Conspicuous Nose Pores

How to reduce them

Complexions otherwise flawless are often ruined by conspicuous nose pores.

In such cases the small muscular fibres of the nose have become weakened and do not keep the pores closed as they should be. Instead these pores collect dirt. clog up, and become enlarged.

Begin tonight to use this treatment

Wring a cloth from very hot water, lather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When the heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Then finish by rubbing the nose for a few minutes with a lump of ice.

Woodbury's Facial Soap cleanses the pores. This treatment with it strengthens the muscular fibres of the nose pores so that they can contract properly. But do not expect to change in a week a condition resulting from years of neglect. Use this treatment persistently. It will gradually reduce the enlarged pores and cause them to contract until they are inconspicuous

Woodbury's Facial Soap is the work of a skin specialist. It costs 25c a cake. No one hesitates at the price after their first cake.

Do this today-Now! Tear out the illustration of the cake below and put it in your purse as a reminder to get Woodbury's. Tear out the cake now. Take it to your druggist or toilet counter today. Begin tonight to get the benefits of this facial soap. For sale by dealers everywhere.

After dinner the little guests were taken to the theatre. Miss Kathleen Harrison of Oregon City furnished the music for the occasion and Miss Rita Mangers of Spokane, Wash., was toast mistress. Those attending were: Gyla Kathrine Kemmer, Dorothy Loraine Burgess; Leah Bryden Murphy, Fay Marguerite Kemmer, Dorothy Stanley Faull, Miss Kathleen Harrison, Miss Rita Mangers, Mrs. Thomas O'Connor, Masters Roy Hamilton Kemmer, Armstrong Haney and Jorden Haney.

Miss Mildred Baker of Walla Walla was hostess at luncheon last Saturday for the pleasure of Miss Bernice whose engagement to R. Douglas Greer was announced. Mr. Greer was a former Portland man and has many friends in the city.

The Misses Anna Walker and Mabel Mascot entertained with a dancing party Saturday evening at the home of the latter. The color scheme was red and green, and the main room was gaily decorated with pennants, masses of ferns and roses. The dining room was centered with a beautiful bouquet of red carnations and as-garagus ferns. Miss Alice Walker served the punch and presented unique red programs to each of the following guests: Miss Margaret O'Shea, Birdid Waidt, Grace Patton, Pearl Hershey, Alice Walker, Mabel Mascot and Anna Walker, and Messrs. Dr. J. Clanahan, Harl Kinney, R. W. Chapman, Dr. L. P. Waidt, Claude Walker, C. Rudeen, C. Tingley, A. K. Weisendanger, William Secore and Gordon Bennett.

In a paper read before the Northvest Music Teachers' association convention held here during the week, Mrs. Emma B. Carroll, of this city, contended that "the value of teaching lies in the power to mold the character of the pupil into strength, industry, steadfastness and beauty."

"One must know the whole of subject so to speak to teach any phase ntelligently or well," said Mrs. Car-

"No person has any fitness for so great and responsible a profession as teaching," she continued, "who has not by broad educational opportunities, developed a trained mind—who does not know human nature and life through books and travel, and has not above all things, faith in the possibility of ultimate human perfection, through conscious knowledge and personal aspiration and effort.

"That our young people today have no respect for their elders and know no superiors is due largely to our educators. For years the public schools have wrested with the problem of educating the child-with little or no attempt to arouse the creators of the children to do their part and fulfill their responsibility to the child and society.

"Whenever the public schools or reputable private teachers fail to reach and interest the child in its own development, the fault is because the child's parents and home are delin-
