

What Society is Doing

BY NONA LAWLER

MISS HELEN HIGBEE'S engagement to Frederick Mason DeNeff was made known today to a group of friends who were gathered for luncheon with Miss Ethel Clarke, at her home in East Twentieth and Ash streets. The covers were arranged at luncheon. The table was most attractively centered with pink sweet peas, Canterbury bells and delicate fernery. At each place a tiny cupid held the place card, which was an envelope engraved with a red heart, and containing the names of Miss Higbee and Mr. DeNeff. Pink baby ribbon was drawn from each cupid to a huge bow of pink tulle in the center in a most effective manner. Covers were laid for Miss Higbee, Miss Inez Cross, Mrs. Horace Fenton, Mrs. Charles Hart, Mrs. George Woodley, Mrs. Boylston, Mrs. Conley, Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. Joseph Knapp and Miss Clarke. Miss Higbee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hadley. She is a lovely girl, accomplished and exceptionally pretty, of the blond hair and blue eyed type. She attended both the universities of Washington and Oregon, and is a popular member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. DeNeff is well known in Portland, where he has resided for the last six or eight years. He lived formerly in Spokane. He was graduated from the University of Michigan in '04, where he was a Phi Alpha Delta man. He has practiced law in Portland for the past six years.

The wedding will be an event of late July or the first part of August.

Mrs. Ladd to Give Large Reception.
Mrs. William Mead Ladd will receive an elaborate garden party June 26 honoring her daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Sargent Ladd (nee Babcock), of New York, who has come out for the summer months. The Ladd place, "Cedarhurst," at Riverdale is famous for its beautiful gardens. Mrs. Ladd's "May Walks" on May day have been annual events for many years, much anticipated by the smart set.

Mrs. Bair and Daughter Home From the East.

Mrs. Charles M. Bair and her two attractive daughters, Miss Margaret and Miss Alberta Bair, have returned home after passing the winter in the east. Miss Alberta was in school and Mrs. Bair and Miss Margaret passed their time in motoring. They visited all the relatives and friends en route. Since school commenced Mrs. Bair and Miss Margaret joined them for a trip to Atlantic City, where they visited friends and were extensively entertained.

Home From School.

Miss Myrtle Brix, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brix, has returned home for the summer from LaSalle seminary at Auburndale, Mass.

Law Graduates' Banquet.

Friday evening the graduates of the University of Oregon law school will enjoy a gala time when they will give a banquet in the ball room of the Hotel Multnomah. J. E. Werlein has charge of the arrangements and a program of musical numbers, speeches and impromptu "stunts" by the members of the class bids fair for a delightful evening.

Miss Mills Luncheon Hostess.

Miss Leida Mills of the Lincoln High school faculty was the hostess at a luncheon at the Virginia Hill hotel during carnival week. The guests at the rose laden table were Misses Christina Macdonald, Misses Barnes, Laura Peterson, Ruth Rounds, Leona Larabee, Emma Griebel, Laura North, Mary Buckley, Elizabeth Bain, Theodora Livingston, Anna Rogers, Mrs. Mundt, Mrs. Altman and Mrs. Marsh.

Chicago Visitor to Festival.

Miss Corrine Charter of Chicago was visiting relatives here during carnival week. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Sirdar of 436 Oregon street. She left for Marysville, Wash., today to visit her brother, whom she had not seen for 13 years.

To Give Shirts to Party.

The G. N. C. B. girls will give a shirtwaist party Friday evening, June 19, at Cottillon.

Society Notes.

J. Carey Othous has returned home from Cornell university to pass the summer with his parents and Mrs. J. C. Othous, of 15 East Ninth street, south.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Fry will leave soon for Honolulu, where Dr. Fry will be superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Miss Margaret Hagadorn and Miss Miriam Hagadorn returned home today after passing the winter in school at Chevy Chase seminary, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. G. L. Buland has left for Castle Rock to pass the summer.

Miss Frances Baltes of Wellesley college has returned home for the summer months to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baltes.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel May (nee Taubenhaim) of the city, who have been enjoying an extended sojourn abroad for the past six months, are expected home tomorrow.

Miss Belle McBoyle and Miss Maud Sloan of San Francisco will be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis in Irvington for the summer.

Cotton Plantation Flooded.
Calceio, Cal., June 16.—Two hundred acres of the Abbott cotton plantation in Lower California were submerged today by flood waters of the Colorado river. Nearly 1000 acres on the plantation now are under water. A carload of seed cotton was destroyed. No further damage from the flood was expected.

And a hungry man disregards all rules of table etiquette.

Miss Helen Higbee, the attractive fiancée of Frederick Mason DeNeff. Miss Higbee's engagement was announced this afternoon at a luncheon given by Miss Ethel Clarke.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Entertainment for Indian War Veterans Is Being Arranged.

Pleasant Reunion Expected.

The officers of the Sons and Daughters of the Indian War Veterans, with headquarters in this city, are Mrs. F. L. Benedict, president; Mrs. J. W. McGregor, treasurer; W. H. Wood, secretary. This organization looks after the welfare of the aged veterans of the Indian wars in Oregon, and every year gives them and their wives and widows a banquet and arranges for the entertainment of the veterans tomorrow. The business men of Portland are generous in their contributions to the men who fought for the Oregon country long ago, and have contributed practically all of the materials going to make up the banquet this year. The younger women have contributed labor and skill to make the reunion a pleasant one. Monday afternoon the executive committee of the Sons and Daughters of the Indian War Veterans met in the W. O. W. temple to complete arrangements for the entertainment of the veterans tomorrow. Mrs. F. L. Benedict, president of the organization, presided. The program was outlined as a business meeting tomorrow morning at the W. O. W. temple, 123 Eleventh street. At noon a meal will be served to the veterans, their wives and widows. The afternoon an excellent literary program will be given. Colonel Robert Miller will deliver the address. Mrs. Maud Springer Watkins, choir leader at the Central Christian church, will give several of her patriotic solos and old time songs. This singer is the daughter, granddaughter and great-granddaughter of veterans who have fought for the flag.

One of the live fraternities of Medford is the Knights of Pythias. This organization always has some new members on the road and some good times at every meeting.

Molding Weekly Luncheons.
The Ancient Order of United Workmen, usually spoken of as the A. O. U. W., is holding a series of luncheons at noon in the Hazelwood every Thursday. On the program for the next luncheon is W. E. Conner, general manager of the Northwest Electric company who will speak on "Electrical Energy." R. L. Durham will preside.

Reception to Matron.
On June 24 the Masons of Medford will give a reception to Mrs. W. H. McGowan of that city, who was recently elected grand worthy matron of the Order of Eastern Star at its grand lodge in Portland. Among the prominent Masons from Medford who attended the grand lodge were E. E. Gore, Otto R. Fouts and J. R. Woodford. Mrs. R. L. Hamilton and Mrs. C. F. Young represented the Eastern Star with Mrs. McGowan.

Artisans Hold Big Picnic.
The United Artisans at Rickard, Folk county, recently had a picnic that was attended by over 6000 people. Dr. G. C. Eschelman, supreme medical director of the United Artisans of this city, attended and reports that people came there from over 40 miles around. He brought back a box of very fine cherries presented him as a token of what could be done in that line.

Salem Wants Artisan Front.
The winning of the first prize by the United Artisans of this city is a fitting recompense to the efforts made by this organization to make the Rose Festival a success. The president of over 15,000 beautiful Portland roses to visitors as they came off the trains was a task in itself enough to tax the endurance and resource of any organization, and did a great deal to make welcome the hosts of visitors within our gates. This organization has invested in loans in business while groups of picnickers enjoyed basket luncheon in the adjacent woods. The women of the Lenta C. O. O. F. had charge of the refreshments. A. W. Lafferty, independent candidate for congress, delivered a half-hour address on public matters of moment.

Made Commendable Showing.
The members of Bonnie Rose Castle, No. 778, are receiving congratulations on the showing they made in the parade on Friday last, the personnel of the team being as follows: Jay Matthews, Helen Hest, L. H. Hayman, Georgia Allen, H. D. Benham, Laura Piepka, H. C. Marr, Elsie Lutkenberg, Will Gibson, Bell Schoepfer, H. V. McQuiggin, Rose Willett, L. Russell, S. Gildersleeve, Leonard Wright, Mary Darnall, Captain H. J. Gildersleeve. The members of the castle will give a reception to the team at their next meeting, June 22, at W. O. W. temple.

Will Receive Charter.
Lenta chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, No. 778, are receiving congratulations on the showing they made in the parade on Friday last, the personnel of the team being as follows: Jay Matthews, Helen Hest, L. H. Hayman, Georgia Allen, H. D. Benham, Laura Piepka, H. C. Marr, Elsie Lutkenberg, Will Gibson, Bell Schoepfer, H. V. McQuiggin, Rose Willett, L. Russell, S. Gildersleeve, Leonard Wright, Mary Darnall, Captain H. J. Gildersleeve. The members of the castle will give a reception to the team at their next meeting, June 22, at W. O. W. temple.

SHALL WIVES WORK?

By Jessie Roberts.
Not of working himself, oh, no! But ashamed to have his wife work. Listen to what she says:

"Dear Miss Roberts—Before I married I was a milliner, working in one of the best shops in the city, and getting a good salary. At first everything went well with my husband and me, but in the end he made me realize he did not make as much as he had been used to getting, and several unexpected expenses had to be met. The result is that most of the money we had saved is gone, and soon the rest will have to follow it."

"I wanted to try to get my place again in the shop, but my husband will not hear of it. He says that the girls there will think I have married a failure. I do not see that it matters what they think, but so long as he feels that way I don't want to go against his wishes."

"Now I want you to advise me as to what I can do to help him without going out to work. Do you think I could make up my mind to go to some of the ladies I know and offering to make hats for them? I could do this at some saving to them, and I know I could make pretty hats. If I had capital I could make a few as samples, but I cannot afford this. Would it be a good idea to have some cards printed, saying that I would copy any desired hat, or follow any given design, such as are so often printed in the papers and magazines? I must try for something. Please oblige me with a reply. Sincerely yours, MRS. DEB."

It is a pity your husband feels as he does. In the end you will have to work harder and suffer more to satisfy his false pride. There is no disgrace in not doing so well in a hard year, and he should recognize that there is none in your frankly helping him. In France husband and wife always help each other in adding to the family income. As to your plan, it should work out in time, but it is hard to get customers. You are a brave woman. Try the cards by all means.

New Officers Chosen.

The following are the officers-elect of Ivanhoe lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias: Chancellor—commander, W. J. Clark; vice-chancellor, Harry K. Smith; prelate, George E. Woodward; master of work, Thomas E. Dowling; keeper of records and seal, E. M. Lance; master of finance, Thad L. Graves; master of execution, Charles Siglin; master-at-arms, Cliff R. Meloney; inner guard, Dr. W. O. Rowell; outer guard, Dave Nelson.

Masons to Institute Lodge.

Lenta U. D. lodge of Masons, which has 54 members, will be instituted the evening of June 24 in Odd Fellows' hall by officers of the grand lodge, which granted it a charter at the session last week in Portland. Officers will be elected and installed. The present officers are: Master, Dr. O. A. Hess; senior warden, C. L. Gessell; junior warden, Charles Kennedy; secretary, Dr. C. S. Osgurby; treasurer, Fred Katzy; senior deacon, Dr. E. L. Selis, and junior deacon, Bert Hogua.

A new lodge of Red Men is being organized in Lenta. The charter will be closed in 30 days.

Elected Supreme Usher.
Mrs. Margaret Herron, grand chief of the Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., who has been representing the Oregon grand lodge as delegate in the supreme council at Sioux City, Iowa, has been elected supreme usher. She will return to Oregon in about three weeks.

Catholic Foresters Picnic.
A large crowd attended the all-day picnic given Sunday by the Catholic order of Foresters at Hoyt's Park. A genius imagines the world mismanaged by him—and he may be right.

Captain Kills Himself.
Chattanooga, Tenn., June 16.—Captain E. W. West, recently dismissed from the marine corps, shot and killed himself.

Havana, June 16.—Chief of Police Aguirre shot and killed Genaro Cana, his business partner, in a quarrel over finance.
