

AT LAST THE EASTERN POLOISTS KNOW THERE'S SUCH A GAME IN THE WEST

GATHER EIGHT RUNS IN SIXTH BUT SACS ARE ON LONG END

Portland Starts by Making 4 Off Williams and Sacramento Evens 'Up on Three.

BANCROFT HITS THRICE

Portland Shortstop Keeps Up His Terrific Pace of Last Two Weeks—Double Header This Afternoon.

Sacramento, Cal., June 17.—Had it not been for that awful sixth inning, yesterday's game might have been fairly presentable, both clubs made four runs and the Wolverines were able to win by a score of 8 to 5.

Portland made four runs on five hits, while the locals only had to make two hits to gather in their quartet of runs.

Sacramento had piled up a three run lead on Evans, while the Beavers were unable to do anything with Claude Williams' left slant until the sixth, when they staged their spurt, which was overshadowed in the second half.

Sacramento also made a run in the seventh off the helve of Miller.

It was announced that the Beavers and Wolves would play a game postponed from opening week, this afternoon.

Bancroft kept up his hitting by getting three bingles in five times up.

SIX RUNS IN 6TH ROUND

Colts Get Into Going First, But Indians Are Able to Duplicate Their Feat in the Last Half.

Spokane, Wash., June 17.—In the first half of the sixth inning yesterday Portland put over three runs and took a 4 to 2 lead, but it didn't last long, for the Indians came back in their half of the sixth and likewise shoved over three runs, which proved enough to win out without the extra run added in the eighth.

After the two that rolled up for the locals in the second, McKune's double and Murray's single gave the visitors one in the fifth. Coltrin singled in the sixth and so did Melchior. Milligan beat out a bunt to Baker, filling the bases. Guigni singled to right and the first pair on the bases scored.
