

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 21, 1914.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE WILL PROTEST RIGHTS IF THIRD MAJOR CIRCUIT IS LAUNCHED BY COMMISSION--BAUM

PORTLAND IS BUMPED FOR FOURTH TIME BY SACRAMENTO WOLVES

Evans Pitches Two Innings and Leaves Beavers Hit to 5 to 1 Defeat.

ALL SCORING IN SECOND

Northerners Had Plenty of Chances to Win But Found Williams Tight in Pinches.

Sacramento, Cal., June 20.—Southpaw Evans took his second bumping of the week at the hands of the Sacramento Wolves today, but he developed enough of a grouch to consume the best part of an hour in pitching two innings, and by the time the Beavers had disposed of what Evans left them he had lost their end and forgotten that something resembling animation is required in baseball.

Southpaw Claude Williams worked himself into plenty of bad holes which helped to make the game drag, but he pulled out with a clean slide for a 5 to 0 win, giving the Wolves their fourth win of the week.

It was the first time this season that any Sacramento pitcher, except Sailor Stroud, has won a shut-out game.

All the scoring was done in the second inning. Van Buren and Moran bust out field hits when Evans knocked down drives but could not hold them. A walk and Hannah's mile a minute drive through Han-croft's feet started Evans to the bad.
With a wild throw to first by Rodgers and a wide throw to first by Rodgers in an attempt to complete a double play to help them out, another walk and a hit batter gave the Beavers four runs and left the bases full, when Rieker went to the rescue. Tennant greeted him with a single to center that chased in one more run, but Orr graciously ended the inning by being thrown out at the plate by Speas when he tried to score from second on Tennant's hit.

Tennant took the mound for the Beavers in the third and held the Wolves to four hits and no runs in the rest of the game.

The Beavers had plenty of chances but in the pinches Williams was tight and the two hits that the Beavers made with men on bases were both more or less questionable infield affairs. Four times the first Beavers batsman got on the paths; three times a Beaver went to third, but there was never anything that looked like a score.

Walter Doane was not in uniform, the blow on the head from one of
him suffering occasional dizzy spells.

Table with columns: AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows for Sacramento Wolves and Portland Beavers.

Portland Beavers won 5 to 1. Evans pitched two innings.

THIS CIRCUIT GIVEN
HIGHEST OF RATING
WHEN IT SIGNED UP

No Other Minor League Was to Be Given Privilege Coast Could Not Enjoy.

WAS STRONGEST OUTLAW

Geography Such Organized Forces
Could Not Fight It Successfully—Was Next in Line.

"Sacramento, Cal., June 20.—Sporting Editor, The Journal, I know nothing of the proposed third major league, but I will say for the Pacific Coast league that we will demand our rights."
A. T. BAUM.

The above telegram from the Coast league president, was in response to a wire from the sporting editor of The Journal calling attention to the fact that when the Pacific Coast league then an outlaw organization, joined the national association, or organized baseball league, it was granted the privilege of the highest of minor league classification relative to the population. It was the Coast league's price for coming within the organized fold and its position has always been respected.

The Pacific Coast league was the greatest "outlaw" organization that ever existed and could have continued indefinitely. Owing to its geographical position the organized forces were unable to fight it successfully.
The one attempt, when the Pacific National organization by the Lucas forces, tried to buck it by invading Portland and California, invited disaster and almost ruined the promptly financially before they threw up betweens.

It is hardly likely that the Pacific Coast league will permit four towns to be taken from each of the international and American association cities of its own ranking, to be formed into a third major league without a strong protest. If the Pacific Coast league does agree to this in the war on the Federal league, it will have to be granted very flattering concessions.

It has generally been believed that the third major league would be cast upon the Pacific coast and that it would come during or immediately after the Panama-Pacific exposition.
Of course it could not be expected to include the entire coast, but it could include the big towns, but it would exclude the drafting privilege enjoyed by the majors. From the sudden turn of baseball affairs, it begins to look as if the Coast league will secure a classification in the present turnout over the Federal league inroads.

COAST ATTITUDE IS A DISTURBING PART
IN MAJOR MEETING

By Hal Sheridan.
New York, June 20.—War to the knife against the Federals with the formation of a third league to organize the baseball of the first blow was practically decided on here today when the National baseball commission met in conference with more than a score of league officials at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel. Formed of four clubs from the International league and four from the American association, Ban Johnson, president of the new league, Johnson stated the new league would probably be a fact within 10 days. His statement, made after the national commission adjourned until tomorrow, following the National league and the International league, who first announced the new war plan. Barrow declared that Baltimore and Buffalo would be in the new league, Johnson did not go so far. Neither would he say what American association clubs would be selected, but the announcement was issued with the announcement was "from Missouri" and he was willing to be shown by Indianapolis, Toledo, Kansas City or any other town that it was of major league caliber.

If nothing else was shown at the meeting of the national commission it was clear that the Federal league has the magnets of the new league, Johnson particularly was there with the loud wall as to what the Federals had done to him. He declared that he would patrol a major league team and a major and ruefully admitted he had personal box office reasons to be sure of the fact.

POP ARLETT'S DEBUT PRETTY SMUDGY AS
COLTS GO IN ACTION

They Wallop His Offerings to All Corners and Early Lead Spells Victory.

(Special to The Journal.)
Spokane, Wash., June 20.—Portland's Colts were not puzzled by the offerings of "Pop" Arlett, Spokane's new pitcher from the Coast league, in his first appearance here today. In the first five innings they gathered six runs on him. The Indians also landed on Frambach of Portland in the fifth for four runs and he was replaced by Eastley, while Baker replaced Arlett in the sixth.

In the second inning Milligan and Williams singled, Guigli forced Milligan at third, Arlett for Wurfli. McKune forced Guigli at second. Butler Wagner and Williams scored when Altman threw over Wagner's head.
In the fourth when Portland took two more, Melchior was out, Wurfli to Holke. Milligan singled, then Williams grounded to Holke. Guigli singled to left, Milligan scoring. Guigli scored when Holke let McKune's grounder go through him.

In the fifth, Coltrin singled to left and Callahan singled to center. Mendoza walked and Melchior taking second. Melchior was caught overrunning first by Fisk but in the rundown Holke threw the ball away, Callahan scoring and Melchior taking second. Milligan sacrificed Melchior to third and Williams' hit scored him.
Wurfli, first to bat for Spokane, fled out to single, then Portland took a lead off to the right field fence for two bags. Lewis doubled to the fence, scoring Altman and Butler singled scoring Arlett and Lewis.
Holke walked and Arlett tied to Melchior. Wagner followed with single, scoring Butler.

Baker, who replaced Arlett in the sixth, walked Coltrin, Hausman singled for Callahan, sacrificed, Melchior tripped to right, scoring Coltrin and Milligan singled, scoring Melchior.

Table with columns: AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows for Spokane Colts and Portland Indians.

Portland Indians won 6 to 2. Arlett pitched 5.5 innings.

ORGANIZATION OF
3RD MAJOR BALL
LEAGUE TO START

President Barrows of International League Makes Announcement.

New York, June 20.—President Edward G. Barrows, of the International league, after two hours' conference with members of the national commission, announced that within the next two weeks the formation of a third major league, recognized by organized baseball will be under way.

The new league will be composed of the four best clubs in the International league and the four best paying clubs of the American association. The eight remaining clubs will be amalgamated into a class AA minor league.
The formation of another big baseball league under the protection of organized baseball will be a hard blow to the Federal league. It is the most drastic move that has yet been made in the warfare between organized ball and the outlaws.

The probable lineup of the new league will be:
Baltimore, Buffalo, Pittsburg, Washington, Cleveland, Louisville, Detroit and Cincinnati. Its likely franchisees are Charles Weeghman, owner of the Chicago Federal league franchise, and Ward, who owns the Brooklyn Federal franchise.

It was stated that Ward and Weegh-man are disgusted with the Federal league.

TONY FAUST WINNER
WHEN OREGON FRANK
STUMBLES IN SPRINT

Special Race Is Hummer and Unbeaten Hunter Makes Game Try to Recover.

3 PERFECT IN LIVERPOOL

Annual Spring Meet of Portland Hunt Club at Garden Home Is Largely Attended and Is Success.

Taking the lead from Oregon Frank, Eugene Oppenheimer's undefeated horse, when it stumbled and lost its stride at the one-eighth post, Tony Faust captured the feature event of the annual field day program of the Portland Hunt club yesterday afternoon. The gallery, which witnessed the events, was an exceptionally large one and the race was made in all events considering the heavy condition of the track, caused by the heavy downpour shortly after the noon hour.
The two entrants in the special match race were off on a running start with Oregon Frank slightly in the lead. Oppenheimer's horse held the lead until it stumbled and although it labored hard, could not regain the lead lost by a full length.
Tony Faust was ridden by its owner, Galbraith, and the former jockey handled his mount perfectly. Faust was in splendid condition, while Oregon Frank seemed to be a bit stale.

AMATEUR ATHLETIC
DELEGATES TO MEET
HERE ON WEDNESDAY

cuss Plans for Far Western Athletic Games at Fair

Pacific Northwest, Rocky Mountain and Intermountain associations of the Amateur Athletic Union Wednesday pionship track and field meet during the Panama-Pacific exposition will be discussed.

William Umack will represent the Pacific association, and Seward Simons will carry the vote of the Southern Pacific branch. A. S. Goldsmith, of Sea-attle, and T. Morris Dunne will represent the Pacific northwest association, and R. G. Parvin, of Salt Lake City, and W. E. Day, of Denver, will represent the Rocky Mountain and Intermountain associations.

Athletes from British Columbia, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Nevada, Colorado, Arizona and California will compete in the Far West championships, and records equal to those made in the Amateur Athletic Union meet, which will also be staged in Salt Lake City, are expected. The William Umack, chairman of the Pacific association record committee, and George Bertz, chairman of the Pacific Northwest association record committee, will get together and adopt Pacific coast track and field records. The work of compiling these records has been carried on between the two associations for several months and will be ready for publication about the middle of July.

tucked the game safely away in the seventh round on James home run with three on. The score: R. H. E.

VICTORIA 7, VANCOUVER 4

Victoria, B. C., June 20.—Victoria hit Ben Hunt hard in the pinches and Victoria took today's game, 7 to 1.
Narveson, who opposed Hunt, was tight in the pinches, but erratic at times, and good fielding by the Bees cut Vanover's chances. In the third, with two on, Scharnay hit a liner, on which Moran made a sensational catch, thus cutting off the Beavers at least two tallies. The game was called in the seventh to permit the players to catch the boat for Seattle. An enormous crowd witnessed the game. The score:

TIGERS LOSE TO SEATTLE

Tacoma, Wash., June 20.—Bad judgment and a little bad luck lost Tacoma another game here today, Seattle winning 6 to 4. The game went 10 innings and it was the fatal 10th for Tacoma. Two runners were on bases when the National league pitcher, Kaufman took a look at Swain and walked him.
Email Huhn came next. Kaufman got two strikes on him with no balls and the runner was out. Then he pitched a safe game. Then he sent one straight down the alley and it was just to Huhn's liking. He took one healthy swing and the ball went to center, scoring two men. Score: R. H. E.
Tacoma..... 4 11 2
Seattle..... 6 8 4 Batteries—Vaughan, Kaufman and Harris; Fullerton and Cadman.

DALSTON DERBY WINNER

Denver, June 20.—Dalston, the favorite, with Molesworth up, this afternoon won the Colorado Derby, the feature of the present Overland Park meeting. Fifteen thousand persons saw the race. Judge Greens, Haynes up, was second, and Blarney third. The time, 2:09, is two seconds slower than the record for the distance, one mille and a quarter. Dalston paid $4.00 in the mutuels.

The Cincinnati Reds had a pennant winning team once—in 1859.
