

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

garden flowers in riotous color combination. Assisting in serving were Miss Constance King, Miss Nadine Caswell, Miss Rachel King, Miss Mary Stuart Smith and her house guest, Miss Nye of Nizara Falls, N. Y. Miss Katherine Graham and Miss Madara Steele. Punch was served in the library by Mrs. Lloyd Wentworth and Miss Leslie Smith. The decorations in the library were yellow roses arranged in artistic clusters. In the drawing room quantities of pink gladioli, sweet peas and Killarney roses combined in a beautiful decorative scheme with ferns and greens. Here the hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, Miss Elizabeth Bain and Mrs. E. A. Percy. Mrs. Roschur Morse, Mrs. Lawrence E. Therkelsen and Miss Jean Brownlie. Little Miss Margaret Therkelsen was a dainty figure receiving the cards at the door.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Emma B. Carroll for her June 22 class, the last of the season. Mrs. Carroll's informal musicales and teas are among the most distinguished events in the social life of the city. Assisting Mrs. Carroll are four of her advanced pupils who may rightly be termed artists—Miss Frances Batchelor, Miss Jessie Lewis, Mrs. Stanley Jewett and Miss Katherine Holbrook. The Misses Gladys Mace, Frances Dayton, Margaret Veersted, Elsie Oberdorfer, Adrienne and Marion Shemansky, Marion Richel, Marion Honney, Caroline Simon and Ruth Winchell will also render numbers.

Wednesday afternoon the musical presented by the advanced pupils of Mrs. Imogene Harding Brodie was a notable event both musically and socially. A program of rare excellence was rendered by Mrs. Henry Metzger, Miss Marjorie Hausman, Miss Mamie Mullen, Mrs. B. G. Skulason and Mrs. Russell Hammond. The ball room of the Masonic Temple, where the affair took place, was filled to capacity with a representative audience of Portland society and musicians. The participants in the program were each rewarded with an ovation and responded most graciously with encores. They were literally showered with lovely flowers after their numbers.

For the pleasure of her cousin and house guest Mrs. Clinton Butterfield and Miss Sallie Sterret, a charming bridge elect, Mrs. Bruce Stewart (nee Albee) has asked guests for a tea Monday afternoon at her Irvington home, East Nineteenth and Broadway streets, between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock.

A notable event of Friday afternoon was the musicale at the Portland hotel given by Mrs. Harry S. McCracken. Over 100 guests were in attendance and the following program was rendered by Mrs. Beatrice Dierke: "Invitation to the Dance," Mendelssohn, "Prelude in G Major," Mendelssohn, "Spinning Song," Liszt, etude in D flat; Wagner, "Magie Fire Scene;" Balakireff, "Islamey."

The annual Zeta Psi outing was held yesterday at Estacada. The Zetas left Portland by private car and had their annual banquet at the hotel at Estacada. Among those present were: CARDIGANS, SPENCERS AND SPORTING JACKETS FOR MEN AND WOMEN. K. S. ERVIN & CO., LTD. GENERAL ENGLISH TAILORS. 2ND FLOOR SELLING BLDG. SIXTH AT ALDER STS.

tained the 20 teachers of the Woodlawn school. The large, airy rooms were profusely decorated with nasturtiums and roses and the open fireplace was almost hidden by masses of canterbury bells. Assisting Mrs. Steiner were Mrs. W. E. Ball and Mrs. G. Shaw.
