---an Atiyeh Bros. Oriental Rug Sale of unusual character

WE ARE PLANNING to exhibit at the San Francisco Exposition—planning to go there with the largest collection of rare pieces ever assembled for a World's Fair. We were awarded the Grand Prize at both the Lewis and Clark and Alaska-Yukon Expositions. We naturally desire to maintain the prestige accruing from unquestioned Pacific Coast leadership resulting therefrom by securing similar results at San Francisco. To aid in such an achievement we must make a sacrifice now.

It takes a lot of time and money to prepare for a World's Exposition. For example, a member of our firm must leave soon for Constantinople and Persia to assemble the exhibit; and he must have money, as rug transactions in the Orient are on a cash basis only. To make sure of getting this necessary cash—and getting it now—we have taken two radical measures.

First, we have closed one of our branches—that at Spokane—and have shipped to Portland a stock as large as that regularly maintained here.

Second, these rugs, together with our regular stock, will for a short time go on

Extraordinary Special Sale Tomorrow (Monday) Morning

We have a stock of 3000 Rugs and Carpets. No stock approaching this in size and variety has ever before been offered to Portland buyers. We want to move it, and time is pressing. Many of the reductions made for this sale are the most noteworthy in the history of our business. Dealers and collectors will recognize them immediately and will profit accordingly.

Red sale tags have been added to every piece, so that you can come and stay and look about as long as you like without having to inquire what the reductions are on every piece that attracts you.
