

TOWN TOPICS

[174th DAY OF 1914.]

AMUSEMENTS

HELIOS—Eleventh and Morrison. Motion pictures. 2:30 and 8:30. Annette Kellerman in 'The Girl in the Red Dress'.

COMING EVENTS
Montana Festo, Tacoma, Wash., July 2, 3, 4.
Astoria regatta, Astoria, Or., July 2, 3, 4.

Chautauquas
Roseburg June 23-28
Eugene June 24-29

Municipal Band Concert
At Forestry building, old fair grounds, at 8 o'clock this evening.

Today's Forecasts
Portland and vicinity: Unsettled tonight and Wednesday, probably showers; southerly winds.

Weather Conditions
The pressure is moderately low over the western and northern portions of the country.

Table with columns: Station, Max. Temp., Min. Temp., Precipitation. Lists various cities like Baker, Or., and their weather forecasts.

Today's Events
High school graduation exercises at Lincoln, Washington and Jefferson auditoriums, at 8 o'clock.

When You Go Away
Have The Journal sent to your Summer address.

Funeral of Mrs. Hexter.—Until two years ago, Mrs. Moses Hexter, who died at the age of 81 years, at Spokane Sunday, was a resident of Portland.

Library Spectacles for Comfort in Reading
And for the working efficiency of your eyes. They are stylish and thoroughly practical.

Dr. De Keyser
REYEZIAN SPECIALIST
24 FIFTH COLUMBIA BLDG.

Summer Resort Subscribers.
When you go away on your vacation, have The Journal follow you at the regular rate of 15 cents a week.

Case Settled Out of Court.—On motion of the Oregon City school district, Circuit Judge Kavanaugh yesterday dismissed his suit against Kelly & Maloney, contractors of the new Oregon City high school.

Plans of New School Shows.—Superintendent of School Properties F. A. Naramore showed residents of the new Shattuck school district plans for the auditorium last night, and there were but few suggestions of improvement on the original plans offered.

Modern Dances Shown.—Professor Ringler has returned from the east with the latest steps taught by the Cagles, Sebastian, Maurice and other leading New York artists.

100 Feet of Piano Show Windows at Reed-French plan store, Tenth street and Stark. Best bargains in the city, $209, $218, $245.

Steamer Jesse Harkins for Camas, Washougal and way landings, will depart Sunday. Leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m.

Farm Furnishes Garden Truck.—County employees engaged in construction of the Columbia River highway were treated to a feast of fresh garden truck several days ago when 350 pounds of cabbage and lettuce from Multnomah farm were sent to the various camps on the highway.

Wild Blackberries.—Wild blackberries are ripe and in great abundance. Among the best places to go on the Estacada line are: Hayes, Boring, Deep Creek Junction (go up side track one mile), Rivermill and Cazadero, Bull Run line: Cottrell, Mabery, Baraboo, Bull Run Park and Bull Run.

Meeting at North Portland Tonight.—At the regular meeting of the North Portland Commercial club's Women's Auxiliary tonight in the North Portland library, the accounts of the Peninsula park rose show will be closed and plans will be made for the establishment of a local public market in North Portland.

Several Desirable Office Rooms in The Journal building, single or en suite.

Michigan Society Picnic at Bonneville, June 27. Tickets $1 round trip. Children 50c.—Adv.

Card of Thanks.
To those who so kindly helped with their sympathy and flowers in my recent bereavement, I extend my most sincere thanks.

Auto Driver Fined $50.—J. F. James, merchant at 54 East Morrison street, was fined $50 this morning in the municipal court for driving his auto over the hedge at 1317 Hawthorne avenue, across the lawn, and against the house. The hedge was damaged as well as the front veranda.

Steamboat Steward Fined.—For breaking the ankle of John Neils, cook on the steamer Santa Catalina, Louis Weiss was fined $25 this morning in the municipal court.

Royal Arcanum Meeting.—A joint meeting of the Oregon grand council of the Royal Arcanum lodge and the Past Regent's association and Multnomah council No. 1481 of the Royal Arcanum will be held at the Royal temple building tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

East Side House Raided.—In a raid this morning at 2:30 o'clock on a house at 165 East Sixth street, Patrolmen Day and Russell arrested three men and three women.

Kansas Society to Meet.—The regular monthly meeting of the Oregon Kansas society will be held on Saturday evening of this week at Manchester hall, Fifth and Oak streets.

McClain Fines Up Ball.—W. S. McClain, a miller of Buena Vista, Or., yesterday submitted to arrest on a charge of attempting to bribe Circuit Judge Phelps in a divorce case brought by his wife and put up $500 for his appearance in the district court when his case is called.

The Million Dollar Mystery.—It will be here tomorrow. It will give everybody something to think about. Father, mother and all the children will want to solve this mystifying mystery.

County Fair at Laurelhurst.—A genuine country fair, with modern innovations, will be staged by the Laurelhurst club next Saturday night on the lawn of Dr. H. I. Keeney's home.

At Christian Brothers' College.—The annual commencement exercises of the Christian Brothers' college will be held tonight in the college hall, and half a dozen young men will receive diplomas.

Young People's Meeting.—The young people's branch of Central W. C. T. U. will hold its semi-monthly meeting tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in W. C. C. headquarters, Dekum building.

He Escapes in a Balloon.—Surrounded by his enemies a millionaire escapes from the top of his mansion in a balloon at night. The balloon is pierced by bullets and it drops into the sea. What becomes of the million dollars. Watch for 'The Million Dollar Mystery.' It comes tomorrow.

Estate Valued at $30,000.—The estate of Andrew J. Dufur, founder of the town of Dufur, Or., was filed at probate yesterday. The estate consists of personal property valued at $30,000 and is to be divided between his widow, Mary M. Dufur, and his two daughters, Mrs. Ada Kahn and Mrs. Anna May.

Mr. Calvin B. Gady will give the opening lecture of his normal course for teachers of music and other subjects at the School of Music Education, 715 Everett st., cor. 22d, Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m.

Motorcycle Reported Stolen.—Mrs. R. H. Ward, 631 East Sixth street, north, reported to the police this morning that a stranger rode away with the family motorcycle yesterday, after he called to inspect it with an idea of purchasing it.

Found Dead in Room.—Emerald Borin, bartender at 288 1/2 Salmon street, and living at 188 Halsey street, was found dead in his room yesterday afternoon. After an investigation by the coroner the cause of death was announced to be from a gasm.

Pension Expenses Reduced.—The total monthly expenditures for widows' pensions took a drop yesterday when the case committee of the juvenile court stopped three pensions and suspended a fourth, making a total reduction of $47.50 a month.

Meeting at North Portland Tonight.—At the regular meeting of the North Portland Commercial club's Women's Auxiliary tonight in the North Portland library, the accounts of the Peninsula park rose show will be closed and plans will be made for the establishment of a local public market in North Portland.

Several Desirable Office Rooms in The Journal building, single or en suite.

Michigan Society Picnic at Bonneville, June 27. Tickets $1 round trip. Children 50c.—Adv.

Card of Thanks.
To those who so kindly helped with their sympathy and flowers in my recent bereavement, I extend my most sincere thanks.

Auto Driver Fined $50.—J. F. James, merchant at 54 East Morrison street, was fined $50 this morning in the municipal court for driving his auto over the hedge at 1317 Hawthorne avenue, across the lawn, and against the house.

Steamboat Steward Fined.—For breaking the ankle of John Neils, cook on the steamer Santa Catalina, Louis Weiss was fined $25 this morning in the municipal court.

Royal Arcanum Meeting.—A joint meeting of the Oregon grand council of the Royal Arcanum lodge and the Past Regent's association and Multnomah council No. 1481 of the Royal Arcanum will be held at the Royal temple building tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

East Side House Raided.—In a raid this morning at 2:30 o'clock on a house at 165 East Sixth street, Patrolmen Day and Russell arrested three men and three women.

Kansas Society to Meet.—The regular monthly meeting of the Oregon Kansas society will be held on Saturday evening of this week at Manchester hall, Fifth and Oak streets.

McClain Fines Up Ball.—W. S. McClain, a miller of Buena Vista, Or., yesterday submitted to arrest on a charge of attempting to bribe Circuit Judge Phelps in a divorce case brought by his wife and put up $500 for his appearance in the district court when his case is called.

The Million Dollar Mystery.—It will be here tomorrow. It will give everybody something to think about. Father, mother and all the children will want to solve this mystifying mystery.

County Fair at Laurelhurst.—A genuine country fair, with modern innovations, will be staged by the Laurelhurst club next Saturday night on the lawn of Dr. H. I. Keeney's home.

At Christian Brothers' College.—The annual commencement exercises of the Christian Brothers' college will be held tonight in the college hall, and half a dozen young men will receive diplomas.

Young People's Meeting.—The young people's branch of Central W. C. T. U. will hold its semi-monthly meeting tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in W. C. C. headquarters, Dekum building.

He Escapes in a Balloon.—Surrounded by his enemies a millionaire escapes from the top of his mansion in a balloon at night. The balloon is pierced by bullets and it drops into the sea.

Estate Valued at $30,000.—The estate of Andrew J. Dufur, founder of the town of Dufur, Or., was filed at probate yesterday. The estate consists of personal property valued at $30,000 and is to be divided between his widow, Mary M. Dufur, and his two daughters, Mrs. Ada Kahn and Mrs. Anna May.

Mr. Calvin B. Gady will give the opening lecture of his normal course for teachers of music and other subjects at the School of Music Education, 715 Everett st., cor. 22d, Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m.

Motorcycle Reported Stolen.—Mrs. R. H. Ward, 631 East Sixth street, north, reported to the police this morning that a stranger rode away with the family motorcycle yesterday, after he called to inspect it with an idea of purchasing it.

Found Dead in Room.—Emerald Borin, bartender at 288 1/2 Salmon street, and living at 188 Halsey street, was found dead in his room yesterday afternoon.

Pension Expenses Reduced.—The total monthly expenditures for widows' pensions took a drop yesterday when the case committee of the juvenile court stopped three pensions and suspended a fourth, making a total reduction of $47.50 a month.

Meeting at North Portland Tonight.—At the regular meeting of the North Portland Commercial club's Women's Auxiliary tonight in the North Portland library, the accounts of the Peninsula park rose show will be closed and plans will be made for the establishment of a local public market in North Portland.

Several Desirable Office Rooms in The Journal building, single or en suite.

Michigan Society Picnic at Bonneville, June 27. Tickets $1 round trip. Children 50c.—Adv.

Card of Thanks.
To those who so kindly helped with their sympathy and flowers in my recent bereavement, I extend my most sincere thanks.

Auto Driver Fined $50.—J. F. James, merchant at 54 East Morrison street, was fined $50 this morning in the municipal court for driving his auto over the hedge at 1317 Hawthorne avenue, across the lawn, and against the house.

Steamboat Steward Fined.—For breaking the ankle of John Neils, cook on the steamer Santa Catalina, Louis Weiss was fined $25 this morning in the municipal court.

Royal Arcanum Meeting.—A joint meeting of the Oregon grand council of the Royal Arcanum lodge and the Past Regent's association and Multnomah council No. 1481 of the Royal Arcanum will be held at the Royal temple building tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

East Side House Raided.—In a raid this morning at 2:30 o'clock on a house at 165 East Sixth street, Patrolmen Day and Russell arrested three men and three women.

Kansas Society to Meet.—The regular monthly meeting of the Oregon Kansas society will be held on Saturday evening of this week at Manchester hall, Fifth and Oak streets.

McClain Fines Up Ball.—W. S. McClain, a miller of Buena Vista, Or., yesterday submitted to arrest on a charge of attempting to bribe Circuit Judge Phelps in a divorce case brought by his wife and put up $500 for his appearance in the district court when his case is called.

The Million Dollar Mystery.—It will be here tomorrow. It will give everybody something to think about. Father, mother and all the children will want to solve this mystifying mystery.

County Fair at Laurelhurst.—A genuine country fair, with modern innovations, will be staged by the Laurelhurst club next Saturday night on the lawn of Dr. H. I. Keeney's home.

At Christian Brothers' College.—The annual commencement exercises of the Christian Brothers' college will be held tonight in the college hall, and half a dozen young men will receive diplomas.

Young People's Meeting.—The young people's branch of Central W. C. T. U. will hold its semi-monthly meeting tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in W. C. C. headquarters, Dekum building.

He Escapes in a Balloon.—Surrounded by his enemies a millionaire escapes from the top of his mansion in a balloon at night. The balloon is pierced by bullets and it drops into the sea.

Estate Valued at $30,000.—The estate of Andrew J. Dufur, founder of the town of Dufur, Or., was filed at probate yesterday. The estate consists of personal property valued at $30,000 and is to be divided between his widow, Mary M. Dufur, and his two daughters, Mrs. Ada Kahn and Mrs. Anna May.

Mr. Calvin B. Gady will give the opening lecture of his normal course for teachers of music and other subjects at the School of Music Education, 715 Everett st., cor. 22d, Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m.

Motorcycle Reported Stolen.—Mrs. R. H. Ward, 631 East Sixth street, north, reported to the police this morning that a stranger rode away with the family motorcycle yesterday, after he called to inspect it with an idea of purchasing it.

Found Dead in Room.—Emerald Borin, bartender at 288 1/2 Salmon street, and living at 188 Halsey street, was found dead in his room yesterday afternoon.

Pension Expenses Reduced.—The total monthly expenditures for widows' pensions took a drop yesterday when the case committee of the juvenile court stopped three pensions and suspended a fourth, making a total reduction of $47.50 a month.

Pacific Phone | All Purchases Promptly Delivered to All Parts of | Home Phone Marshall 5080 | the City, Vancouver and Oregon City—Parcel Post | A-2112 and Express Packages Prepaid on $5.00 Purchases—Mail Orders Promptly Filled

Our Store Opens Daily at 8:30 a. m. Saturday At 9 a. m. Our Store Closes Daily at 5:30 p. m. Saturday At 6 p. m.

AN EXTRAORDINARY ANNOUNCEMENT! Tomorrow You May Again Profit by Our Great June Sale of Beautiful Summer Silks 69c Yd.

Read Carefully of the Wonderful Values Offered on This Occasion, and Do Not Let Anything Prevent Your Attendance—It's a Brilliant Display of High-Grade Silks at a Price That Foreshadows Sensational Selling—Included Are Hundreds of Yards of Plain and Fancy Silks, in Weaves, Weights and Colorings That Are Suitable for Almost Any Purpose—They Are Silks of Regular $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 Qualities, Which We Will Place on Sale Tomorrow at a Special Price, Yd. 69c

DRESS AND WAISTING SILKS in an endless variety of patterns and colorings, suitable for both street and evening wear. Self-Colored Fancies, Persian and Pompadour Silks, Novelty Brocades, exquisite floral designs, etc. A variety so extensive that every taste may be suited. Silks that have sold all season at $1, $1.25 and $1.50 a yard. Priced for June Clearance at only 69c

Decided Underpricing of Dainty Scrim and Marquisette Curtains SHOWN IN BOTH LACE EDGE AND HEMSTITCHED STYLES $1.69 VALUES WORTH UP TO $2.50 A PAIR SPECIALLY PRICED AT $1.69

Another Important Offering—A Sale of White and Ecru Scrim Curtains, Neat Styles, With Either Lace Edge or Inserting—Reg. $1 Grade, Pair 69c

Special June Underpricings in High Grade Undermuslins Supply All Your Wants of Dainty Muslin Underwear at a Great Saving Tomorrow—Finely Finished and Neatly Trimmed Gowns, Skirts, Princess Slips and Combination Suits—Reg. $1.50 Grade 98c

THE GOWNS are made of high-grade nainsook and crepe in the popular slip-over or button-front style. They come with either high or V neck and long or short sleeves. Neatly trimmed with fancy yokes, laces and embroideries. Shown in extra good length and fullness.

To Chautauquans!

To the Chautauqua Associations, Guarantors, Committeemen and patrons at Ashland, Albany, Gladstone, La Grande, The Dalles, Roseburg, Eugene, Lebanon, Corvallis, Salem, Dallas, McMinnville, Vancouver, Baker, Pendleton, Walla Walla, and the Northwest Chautauquas generally—to lovers of worth-while entertainment everywhere—we extend this word of greeting and appreciation. You are doing a splendid work. It's time to get busy.

NOTE—Chautauquas lasting six days each open at Roseburg, June 23, Eugene 24, Lebanon 25 (Thursday), Corvallis 26 (Friday), Dallas 27 (Saturday), McMinnville 28, Salem 29, The Dalles 30, Baker July 1, Pendleton July 4, and Vancouver July 15.

Some of the Talent You Will Hear: DR. THOMAS E. GREEN CIRCILLO ITALIAN BAND PETER MacQUEEN on "Mexico" THE ELWYNN CONCERT CO. THE LYRIC GLEE CLUB THAVIU GRAND OPERA CO. Thirty Attractions Ellison-White Chautauqua System "Quality Folks" Lumber Exchange Building

SCHWAB PRINTING CO BEN F. GREENE, PRESIDENT 245 STARK STREET