STAFF ASSIGNMENTS OF ASTORIA REGATTA NAMED BY ADMIRAL

Phil Metschan Jr., Chief, Surrounds Himself With Fine Array of Nautical Men.

SUBMARINE ONE FEATURE

Entertain Pestive Throngs-R. R. Eubli Orator of the Occasion,

Phil Metschan Jr., admiral of the nineteenth annual regatta, to be held at Astoria, July 2, 3, 4, yesterday announced his staff assignments quite nautically in three typewritten folios, and says there is not a landlubber in

There are enough admirals of lesser degree in the lot to captain the navies of the world, while Phil himself is the admiral admiralissimus. Evidently, the supply of admirals gave out, however, as there are a few commodores and commanders to take orders.

Four submarines from the Bremerton navy yards will be stationed at Astoria all regatta week. They will not only serve to keep order among the admirals, but will undoubtedly make frequent trips to the bottom of the sea, that weary souls may find surcease from the world.

The Elks band will be there in uniform, and will play intermittently. Vice Admiral K. K. Kubli, chief of the office of the advocate general, will deliver the Fourth of July oration on the Fourth of July.

Sunday, July 5, the band will escort the entire staff to Seaside, where the admirals, captains, commodores and commanders will recuperate from the strenuosity of the regatta. Incidentally, their visit will put the Seaside people in good humor, and give Dan Moore some business.

Here are the staff assignments: Staff Assignment. Nineteenth annual regatta, Astoria July 2, 3, 4, 1914. Admiral.
