MRS. JAMES F. M'INDOE, wife of Major Melndoe of the U. S. A. engineers corps, formerly stationed at Portland but now in the Philippines, was the honored guest yesterday and today at two charming affairs tendered for her pleasure by Mrs. J. J. Morrow. Major Morrow and Major Melndoe were in college together, and worked together many years here. Since Major Melndoe was stationed in the islands last fall, Mrs. Melndoe has remained here, where her three children were in school. They will pass the summer on her apple ranch in Washington, and in the fall the two elder children will leave for college at Harvard and Wellesley, and her young son will accompany her to the Philippines. The Melndoes have a wide circle of friends in Portland society and in the Vancouver barracks set, and will be much missed in both places. Mrs. Morrow had guests for 16 covers at luncheon yesterday afternoon. They circled a table which was most attractively decorated with pink sweet peas, baby breath and maiden hair fern. The luncheon was in green and white, and the flowers harmonized most effectively. They were arranged in a crystal bowl in the center of the table, and four slender green vases in the form of hills held smaller clusters of the flowers. The guests were: Mrs. George S. Young, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Adrian B. Fleming, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilson, Mrs. Edna M. Young, Mrs. Oscar Menefee, Mrs. Guy W. Wallace, Miss Ella Hirsch, Miss Carrie Flanders and Mrs. Melndoe. This afternoon Mrs. Morrow had a bridge party of nine tables for the Mrs. Melndoe. Mrs. Wilcox Luncheon Hostess. Monday afternoon Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox asked out a few guests for an informal luncheon at the Wilcox club, followed by golf. A dainty basket of pink sweet peas centered the table, at which were seated Mrs. Carter Pitkin Pomeroy of San Francisco, Mrs. Thomas Scott of Portland, Mrs. Koehler, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Gay Lombard, Mrs. J. G. Woodworth of St. Paul and Mrs. Wilcox. After golf, the guests gathered on the veranda for tea. Informal At Home. Mrs. Hazel Blumauer Litt has invited guests for an informal tea Friday. She will receive on the mezzanine floor at the Multnomah hotel. Tournament and Afternoon Tea at the New Portland Golf Club on July 4. On Saturday, July 4, the first tournament of the new Portland Golf club will be held. The afternoon program of events has been arranged for the pleasure of the members and their friends. The management of the club is intent upon promoting golf, and that a cordial invitation is extended to all members and their friends to be present at the Fourth of July festivities. Several department heads of the Meler & Frank store, members of the club, will be hosts on this occasion, and, assisted by their wives, will serve tea for the members, the ladies and the children. The club is easy of access, being reached by three electric lines. Garden Home, Firlock and Raleigh stations are within a short walk. The well appointed club house, lockers and lunch rooms will be thrown open for the day. Arnette-Young Nuptials. Tuesday evening, June 30, Mr. Arnette James Arnette and Miss Eva Marie Young were united in marriage by Dr. S. R. Hawkins, pastor of the Central Christian church. Only the contracting parties and witnesses were present. The ceremony was pronounced in the pastor's study. Fifteenth Wedding Anniversary. About 50 friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burgeson, 1206 Atlantic street, Saturday, June 27, it being the occasion of their fifteenth wedding anniversary. Miss Esther Erickson and Joseph Hildebrand entertained with vocal and instrumental music. Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour. The guests also enjoyed a trip to the big Mrs. Burgeson and her two sons, Irving and Herbert, bon voyage. They will leave July 3 for Juneau, and will spend the summer in visiting interesting Alaskan points. Leaves for the East. Miss Dora L. Patterson, formerly of Stanton, Pa., is to return to her home in the Portland day school for deaf, has completed the year and has for the past week been the house guest of Mrs. E. L. Wallace of Salem. On Saturday morning for an extensive trip through the east. She will visit the following principal cities: Salt Lake City, Denver, Chicago, St. Paul, Omaha, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, New York, Boston and Scranton, Pa., where she will spend several weeks at her home. Then she will return to Portland, Or., and resume her work. Miss Patterson took part in the social net in Salem, and was graduated from the Keystone academy in the east and specialized at the Pennsylvania Orphan school for the deaf in Scranton, Pa. She will be accompanied by Miss Myrtle L. Davies on her trip. Miss Davies was formerly of Asbury Park, New Jersey, and is also an instructor in the state institution for the deaf at Salem, Or. Home From Outing. Mrs. Carl G. Liebe, Mrs. Henry Harman, Mrs. J. McNicholas, Mrs. La Barre and Miss May Breslin made up a party that enjoyed a motor trip last week at Cape Horn. Society Notes. Mrs. Sylvester Farrell, her daughter, Mrs. W. V. Youngson, her grand daughter, Miss Ruth Farrell, and Mrs. J. H. Williams, left on Tuesday evening to tour Yellowstone Park. Miss Nancy Drew left Thursday to spend the summer in Alaska. Among the visitors at the Salem Cherry fair from Portland were Jane Mills and her mother, Mrs. A. M. Mills. Sunday they were guests at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Harmon, House of Salem. The 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon was awarded the first prize this year in the children's beauty contest.

professorship, being given a chair in bacteriology and receiving an appointment as assistant dean. Dr. Norton is a graduate of Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, where he took his bacteriological work under Dr. W. H. Welch. Following his graduation in 1910 he was connected with the Lakeside hospital, Cleveland. Start on Long Hike. Fred L. Carlton and George E. Love, two well known young men of Portland, left yesterday on a hiking trip with Shasta Springs as their walking destination. Carlton has been connected with the Hy Eilers music house, while Love is assistant manager of the Cotillion dance hall. They started south about 1:30 o'clock, clad in full hiking regalia and bearing 20 pound packs on their backs. They expect to stay at hotels and farm houses en route, but are equipped to camp out if necessary. Their itinerary includes all the principal towns en route to the California line, as well as visits to New London Springs, the Calapooia mountains, Crater Lake national park, Pelican Bay lodge, Harriman's old home, Klamath Falls and Shasta Springs. They will follow the line of the Pacific highway. They will go by train from Shasta Springs to Sacramento, thence to San Francisco and return to Portland by boat. They expect to be gone about six weeks. Signal Honor for Portland. Portland homeopaths received a signal honor at Atlantic City, N. J., yesterday, according to word received in Portland today, in the election of Dr. E. E. Miller, of this city, to the presidency of the American Institute of Homeopathy, which has been in convention at the eastern resort. Other officers elected were: First vice president, Dr. Harry H. Baxter, Cleveland; secretary, Dr. Sarah M. Hobson, Chicago; treasurer, Dr. Thomas F. Smith, New York. M. A. Jackson of Delta, Middlesex county, Va., and Mrs. Jackson, arrived in Portland yesterday morning for a month's visit at the home of his brother, C. S. Jackson, at 610 Salmon street. Philip Jackson, who is a senior at Princeton and a son of C. S. Jackson, accompanied them. The party was delayed 24 hours by washouts. This is Mr. Jackson's first visit to the Pacific coast. Mrs. Henry Hibbard, of Seattle; Miss Katherine Joyce, of Ogden, Utah, and Miss May Ballin, of New York, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McKenzie, will make up a party that will leave tomorrow to motor to Tacoma to see the auto races, and later will visit over the week end in Seattle. Mrs. L. A. Kent, 545 East Yamhill street, has returned from Tacoma, where she attended the funeral of her nephew, Harley McLean, who died in Portland last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Grigsby and Mr. and Mrs. Younger left today to motor to Tacoma, where they are going to attend the auto races. Journal Want Ads bring results.

PERSONAL MENTION Dr. Wilson Leaves. Dr. Joseph Rogers Wilson, who retired recently after serving as principal of Portland academy since its founding 25 years ago, has left for Hemet, Riverside county, Cal., where he will make his future home on his apricot ranch. Dr. Wilson was tendered a farewell banquet by alumni and faculty of the academy Thursday night. On the eve of his departure his successor, Professor James F. Ewing, who has been assistant principal of the academy for several years, presented Dr. Wilson with a gold watch and chain on behalf of the faculty. Portland Well Represented. Portland is well represented at the employed officers' conference of the Y. M. C. A., which is now in session at Lake Geneva, Wis. Members of the Portland Y. M. C. A. staff who are attending are H. W. Stone, general secretary; C. N. Wonnacott, assistant general secretary; R. E. Randall, religious work director, and H. C. Melby, business secretary. A. M. Griley, who is now in charge of the Portland association, received a letter yesterday from Mr. Wonnacott in which he said the next session would probably go to California, which means that many of the leading Y. M. C. A. secretaries will visit Portland en route to the gathering. Mr. Wonnacott says that Mr. Stone and Mr. Melby will probably return to Portland about July 9, and Mr. Randall on July 15. Instructor Is Promoted. Dr. W. H. Norton, who for the past year has served as instructor in pathology at the University of Oregon, has been elected to an associate
