Douglas Plans Celebration. Roseburg, Or., July 2.—Never before have so many celebrations been planned for the Fourth of July, as this year. The celebration in Roseburg will be held under the auspices of the Park and Garden association, of West Side park. George M. Brown, candidate for attorney general, will deliver the oration. The other towns and districts that will hold celebrations are Drain, Sutherland, Gilde, Ten Mile, Umpqua, Tiller, Glendale, Roberts Creek, Oakland, Eskdale, Coles Valley. J. C. Hamilton, formerly a cook in a local restaurant, is under arrest here charged with passing a worthless check for $21 on the owner of a local cigar store. When arrested Hamilton was en route to Tiller. He said had he arrived there he would have killed a young lady who had spurned his love, and then turned the gun on himself. Too much liquor, he says. Acting upon the advice of Attorney B. L. Eddy, legal adviser of the Roseburg railroad committee, that it would be well to do so, the committee has decided to hold an election in conjunction with the regular city election next October to authorize in the sum of $300,000, with which to aid the construction of a railroad from Roseburg to the coast.

Blancher Is Candidate. Hood River, Or., July 2.—E. O. Blancher, cashier of the First National bank of Hood River, and former mayor of this city, has announced that he will be an independent candidate for the office of joint state representative from Hood River and Wasco counties. In the primary election, both aspirants for the office will be elected by the two candidates in the field from Wasco county, and in view of the fact the Wasco county has the joint state senator, Hood River county is entitled to one of the joint representatives.

Hood River Lumber Company, operating on the Hood River, was arrested yesterday for allowing sawdust to run into the river. Frank Davport, president of the company, pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $25 and costs of prosecution.

The third annual session of the Hood River county water district will begin this evening in the Hood River high school play "Esmeralda." Friday evening the annual Chautauque concert will be given in which the "Ad Club" and "Boys' Club" will be prominent part. The Fourth of July celebration will be merged with the Chautauque program. One of the most interesting events will be a parade in the morning, a band concert in the city park at noon and the comic opera "The Mikado" will be staged in the evening. A large stadium has been erected and will remain as a permanent improvement in the city park.

Educators at Eugene. Eugene, Or., July 2.—A party of 31 school workers of the state, including a number of members of the state department of education, and 24 county school superintendents who have been at Salem grading the state examination papers held in each county two weeks ago, visited Eugene yesterday at the Hotel Osborne, where the mayor and president of the Commercial club delivered addresses of welcome. They spent the afternoon at the city park where they heard the regular lecture before the summer school by Dr. A. A. Berle, and were then taken about the city and its environs in automobiles.

To make Coburg five miles from Eugene by wagon road instead of over seven as at present is the purpose of opening a new road from the city directly south to join the old road halfway between the two cities. The people of Coburg say that when the road is established they will place a ferry across the river at that point and shorten the distance two miles. The court has ordered the road viewed.
