

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF PERPETRATING A FRAUD ON FARMERS

No Less Than Dozen Complaints Have Been Lodged Against G. H. Thompson.

MERCHANTS INVOLVED

Produce Obtained Without Paying for It Is Alleged in Complaint Now on File.

George H. Thompson, 1165 Belmont street, was arrested this morning by Detectives Tichenor and John Moloney for defrauding farmers and merchants in the valley by obtaining produce without paying for it. There are no less than a dozen complaints already in the detective bureau against Thompson, who has been sailing under the titles of G. W. Webster and R. L. Baker, it is said.

The first complaint against Thompson was that of Martin Bros. of Tualatin, who said a man representing himself to be from Newberg reported to produce company at East Thirty-ninth and Lincoln streets, bargained for two dressed hogs. These were shipped to Portland, but the Tualatin merchants never received payment. Efforts to locate the produce company were without result. This was early in May.

Frank Zumwalt of Newberg reported to the detectives he sent the People's Produce company four cases of eggs and received no answer. Frank Cummings of the same town reported he sent the same produce concerns 12 cases of eggs, payment being not received. Cummings came to Portland to investigate and found a vacant building at East Thirty-fourth and Salmon streets, the address given. Thompson represented himself to be G. W. Webster to the Newberg men. Others at Newberg also sent him produce.

This morning two crates of live chickens were to be received from Gorkhe & Braden of Bandon, Or., by Thompson, so he arose early. While waiting he was arrested by the detectives. Thompson is married. Thompson admitted the charge. He is held in jail on a felony charge of obtaining money under false pretense.

ANOTHER 'CUPID' ON DECK

"Cupid" Cochran, of the smiling face, is absent from duty, and prospective bridegrooms are met with another smile in his place. Deputy County Clerk George J. Quinn occupies Cochran's place behind the marriage license counter of County Clerk Coffey's office and will retain it until Cochran returns from unknown parts, to which he hied on a two weeks vacation.

Chauffeur's Body Found in Mountains

Los Angeles Sunday With Two Men Passengers Sunday; Automobile Is Found Overturned on Grade.

Los Angeles, July 2.—Found in the mountains three miles west of Ventura, the body of Richard Wharton, a chauffeur, who disappeared three days ago, is believed to offer evidence that he was murdered. Wharton left Los Angeles Sunday with two men as his passengers. The following day his automobile was found overturned on a mountain grade. The passengers had disappeared.

The body was found late yesterday apparently laid carefully beneath a bush. The head was wrapped in an overcoat. The ground bore no evidence of a struggle. Ventura county officers believe Wharton was murdered and his body carried to the spot.

More Money Is Needed for Patrol

State Forester Urges Appropriation of Five Times the Amount Provided for in Bill Introduced by Rep. Hawley.

Salem, Or., July 1.—State Forester F. A. Elliott sent a telegram to Congressman W. C. Hawley advising him that an appropriation of $500,000, as provided for in a bill introduced in congress by Senator Chamberlain, was not adequate to defray the expense of patrolling the timber lands in the Oregon-California land grant during the present fire season. Mr. Elliott urged an appropriation of $2,500,000 for this purpose. The Oregon & California railroad company, which claims the lands, is prohibited from patrolling them by an injunction decree issued by Judge Wolverton of the federal court, in which he held that the title to the lands had been forfeited to the government.

Pamphlet Paper Ordered.

Salem, Or., July 2.—An order was placed today for 50,000 pounds, or 40 tons, or two carloads of paper for use in printing the initiative pamphlets. This amount of paper is sufficient to print 300,000 copies of a pamphlet with 128 pages.

State Printer Under Act.

Salem, Or., July 2.—The state printing board has decided to bring the state printing department under the workmen's compensation act. The construction work on the Tumalo irrigation project has been brought under the act, so all the hazardous industries under the supervision of the state have been given protection under the new law.

Railroads Fix Rate.

Salem, Or., July 2.—After many months of correspondence between the state railroad commission and the officials of the Southern Pacific and Oregon Electric, the two railroad companies have agreed to a rate of $2.25 on coke shipped from Fairfax, Wash., to Salem.

Gold may be the key to society, but poverty is the strongest bar.

JUNIOR CAMPAIGN IS TAKING ON LIKENESS OF GROWN-UP AFFAIR

Boys and Girls Running for Office All Out Working Hard; Exciting Finish.

Political affairs among Junior Government campaigners are taking on the complexion of a real "grown up" campaign near an exciting finish. The 28 boys and girls running for the Junior Government offices are all out working hard.

On Tuesday night the entire field campaigned together from a big auto truck. All the boys and girls spoke. Attorney Delbert A. Norton, recently from New York, where he took active part in an organization for the betterment of conditions among the newsboys, accompanied the youngsters on the truck, and introduced each speaker to the crowd.

"Stump speaking" will be general from now until the close of the campaign, Saturday night, July 11. The money raised by the sale of votes at the cent each, will be used to help raise the debt on the Newsboys' Home. The tally as announced, is as follows:

Accident Proves Fatal.

George Erch, a logger, died at the St. Vincent's hospital yesterday from loss of blood, due to an accident sustained near Kelso yesterday afternoon. Erch was riding on a logging train and fell between the cars, his left leg being severed at the thigh. He was given temporary attention at Kelso and brought to the hospital last night. His home was at 781 Harvey street.

Two Women's Tickets in Field.

San Francisco, July 2.—The Women's State Republican league endorsed a set of candidates for state office entirely different from the list endorsed by the California Women's Republican club, declaring itself "the only recognized state organization."

Prohibition in Idaho.

Boise, July 2.—The Republican, Democratic and Progressive state conventions all declared for prohibition.

Southern Oregon Plans Advertising

Ashland, With Others, Will Send Delegation to Klamath Falls, Where Exploitation Ideas Will Be Discussed.

Ashland, Or., July 2.—Ashland will send a big delegation to Klamath Falls tomorrow to meet with other delegations from southern Oregon towns at a booster meeting to lay plans for exploiting the scenic wonders of this section of the state. Special emphasis will be placed upon improvement of Crater Lake park and adequate advertising of this great attraction. The caves of Josephine county, henceforth to be exploited as the "Marble Halls of Oregon," in an annual cave day on June 15, will be another subject of consideration.

Ashland's project for developing her mineral springs—a project for which $175,000 bonds have already been voted—will be well to the front in the plans outlined for the booster movement. The Klamath lakes and Pelican bay will come in for their share of attention. The hunting and fishing of this region will be considered, as well as Jackson county's $500,000 scenic boulevard over the Siskiyou and through the Rogue River valley.

Klamath Falls is preparing to entertain the delegates at the Elks' Rodeo, which will be on at the time.

Four Indictments by Marion Jury

Salem, Or., July 2.—Four indictments were returned by the Marion county grand jury today. One was against H. H. Gilman on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Gilman represented himself as being a chiropractor of Seattle and is said to be wanted on similar charges in Portland, Eugene and other cities in the state. Richard Schutte was indicted on the charge of committing a statutory crime against Mrs. Anna Bachter of Gervais. An indictment was returned against Albert Johnson, 19 years old, who was arrested yesterday while attempting to pass an alleged forged check. Charles Edmondson, who was convicted of selling liquor without a license, was indicted for bootlegging in violation of the local option law.

First Accident on First Day of Law

Industrial Accident Commission Receives Report on Eugene Gas Fitter, Who Suffered Artery Out.

Salem, Or., July 2.—The first accident report to be made to the industrial accident commission was received today. William Smith, gas fitter, employed by the Oregon Power company in Eugene, was injured while putting up a five pipe, which fell and cut an artery. The accident occurred yesterday, the day the insurance features of the compensation law went into effect.

YOUNG SAILORS ARE ON THE BOUNDING DEEP BLUE THIS DAY

Four Hundred Naval Militiamen of Oregon and Washington Sail on Milwaukee.

HONOLULU DESTINATION

Daily Drills and "Washing the Decks" Will Be Routine Work of the Amateur Sailors.

Seattle, Wash., July 2.—More than 400 members of the Washington and Oregon naval militia are today aboard the United States cruiser Milwaukee en route to Honolulu. The vessel left Seattle at 7 o'clock last night.

Most of the division of naval militia are university and high school students. The cruise will end July 24. Daily drills and "washing the decks" will be the chief work of the amateur sailors, and in exchange, they get a deep sea voyage and a visit to the Hawaiian Islands.

At Honolulu several boat races and other athletic contests have been arranged.

The cruise is taken at the expense of the government.

Last Day for Filing Measures

Proposed Law Providing for Commission of Five Members to Draft Tax Code Presented for Filing.

Salem, Or., July 2.—The initiative measure proposing a law to provide for a commission of five members to draft a tax code, was presented to the secretary of state today for filing. As this is the last day for filing initiative measures, it is expected a number of those for which petitions have been circulated will be filed this afternoon. The tax code measure was initiated by the Non-partisan League, of which George C. Mason, Portland, is manager. It provides for the appointment by the governor of a commission of five members, to study taxation matters and draft a code for presentation to the subsequent meeting of the legislature. The bill carries an appropriation of $2500 for clerical help and traveling expenses.

Completed petition for the proposed measure extending the terms of all county officers to four years, initiated by R. P. Rasmussen and others, was presented yesterday afternoon.

First Heat Prostration.

White Salmon, Wash., July 2.—The first known case of heat prostration in the history of White Salmon occurred here Tuesday. Ray Hamilton, a young man in the employ of the local electric company, while working on the wiring of the new cannery building, was overcome by the heat and is in serious condition. The thermometer registered 99.

Bucket Dredge Burned.

Marshfield, Or., July 2.—A bucket dredge owned by the Simpson Lumber company, was entirely destroyed by fire last night. The loss is $5000. The dredge was tied at Porter Mill, in North Bend, and for a time the mill was in danger.

Find Body on Beach.

Aberdeen, Wash., July 2.—The body of a man was found on South Beach, near Westport, last night. It is believed to be the remains of the sailor on the steamer Saginaw, who committed suicide several weeks ago, just as the steamer was coming into port from San Francisco.

Journal Want Ads bring results.

THE Gorgeous Electric Parade of the Rose Festival will be given in Portland on the night of July 4, under the auspices of the Portland "Ad" Club.

The parade will move promptly at 8 o'clock.
