Bodgers, Donne and Bancroft Aid in Putting the Beavers on Long End of Series With Hapless Hogan,

Irvie Higginbotham, veteran Tiger tamer, was in fine form yesterday and the Haps gathered but three hits off the big bird, whose fast ball and sharp curves had them swinging their heads off. Hig could make the little white pellet do what he wanted and the only man who walked was Carlisle, and he got away in the ninth inning with one out, but was bagged in a double play started by Hig himself on Hosp's grounder. Klepfer also pitched good ball, but the champions played the national passime as it should be played and he had no chance to win. Only one Gondolier paddled to first base and Bayless was the only one of Hap's explorers who ventured beyond that point, on his double to left in the seventh with one out, but he got caught in a double play, when Litschi filed to Lober and that worthy winged to Bancroft before Dicky could get

Some clever base running by Bill Rodgers fooled the Tigers in the first inning with two out. Incidentally Bill increased his base running record with two pilfers on Jack Bligs.

Rodgers walked in the opener and stole second. Doane rolled a slow one down the third base line that Klepfer hounded and beat it out. Klepfer's throw to Borton was wide, and white that worthy was stretching himself, Rodgers outguessed the enemy by crossing the plate. Doane stole second and took third on Bliss' bad heave, but Held called a third strike that evoked indignation from Buddy and the Beavers laid off till the fifth frame when Higginbotham shot a long one between Kane and Bayless for two cushions. Hig didn't do much fretting around the keystone, for Bancroft touted one down the first base line that was good for two bases and Hig loped home, Derrick lofted to Kane and that was the last good chance the locals had to tally, although Rodgers doubled to left with two out in the Hogan sent Molly Meloan up to bat for Klepfer in the ninth, but Molly whiffed. Then Carlisle walked as aforementioned and Hosp hit into a houble play, Hig to Bancroft to Der-tional catches of flies by Kane, the Score of Eighteen Holes Is Fleet Sparrow Finishes Softies to the left of him and the second to the right of him. Bancroft also proke into the limelight with some sparkling flelding.

The series now stands two games to one for the Beavers and they are back in the .500 society again. Umpire Held kept the players on the move and the game was finished in 1:25, the fastest Coast league game of the sea-ginia was the victor yesterday after noon in a close race sailed over white-capped bay with a real "ma iner's wind' whipping in against th The Grayling finished secon and the Fore and Aft was given this place, although she crossed the star ing line first. The Sparrow and Swa low finished so far behind as to be practically eliminated.

When the course was cleared by the Sohomish at 2:30 o'clock the Fore and Aft was near the line and swung in shead of the Virginia and Grayling. which glided across beam to beam. At the turn of the first buoy the two latter yachts were right at the heels St. Louis of the Fore and Aft, and finally in a tack near the flagships the Virginia swung in ahead of the Fore and Aft, and was closely followed by the Grayling. Thus starved, the Fore and Aft Minneapolls soon dropped far to the rear.

In the tack that put her to the fore one of the judges claimed the Virginia fouled both the Sparrow and the Denver Swallow, but his protest was filed too late to have any effect in the awarding of the prizes.

The race was witnessed by a large Ounha Wichita jority of the admiral's staff aboard the Schomish. The same boats will compete again tomorrow. FEDERAL LEAGUE GAMES
