Salem Mayor Wants City to Own Water

Urged That Now Is Good Time to Con sider Purchase of Plant, as Commis sion Will Soon Make Estimate.

Salem, Or., July 7.—Mayor B. L. Steeves last night, in a special message to the city council, urged the purchase by the city of the Salem Water company's plant, so the city could have a municipally owned water supply. He said the time was now opportune to consider buying the plant because a valuation will be placed on it within a valuation will be placed on it within a specific plant because a valuation will be placed on it within a specific plant because a valuation will be placed on it within a specific plant because a consider buying the placed on it within a specific plant because a property of the sale water supply. Councilman Minton read the riot act to Police Chief Shedeck for being away from his office a few days last week. Minton said that two men had said they would be at the meeting to prefer charges of non-feasance in office against the chief but they didn't appear. He said if they didn't make the charges he would make them at the next meeting of the council.

Councilman Jones said the council was getting to be the laughing stock of the city because city ordinances are they would be at the meeting to pre-
