

BRITISH COLUMBIANS IN GREAT SHAPE FOR ROWING RACES TODAY

Junior Events Carded for This Afternoon and Seniors to Compete Tomorrow P. M.

PORTLAND AT NELSON

Announcement Is Made That Crew Will Be Sent North—Changes Are Made in Local Crews.

After brief workouts yesterday afternoon over the Portland Rowing club course, above the Sellwood ferry, the British Columbia oarsmen, representing the Victoria and Vancouver clubs, pronounced themselves fit for the junior events of the twenty-third annual regatta of the N. P. A. O. this afternoon.

The junior singles will be the first event of today's program and it will start promptly at 3 o'clock. Dave Cooper of the Portland club is favorite in this event.

The junior event is expected to be a close one. Portland is represented by the same crew that rowed in the regatta at Vancouver last summer and this squad is confident of winning the event.

The 140 pound four oared crew of the Portland club will also enter the senior four event if it is victorious in its race. A change has been made in the makeup of this crew.

Close Race Expected in Singles. A close race is looked for tomorrow afternoon when A. A. Pfander, of Portland, W. H. Kennedy, of Victoria, and F. Mott, of Vancouver, meet in the senior singles tomorrow.

Some of the Victoria and Vancouver oarsmen will remain in Portland until the local crews go to Nelson, B. C., and they will leave in a special car.

The senior four oared race, the last event of tomorrow's program, will bring together the best oarsmen in the northwest. All the big crews are reported to be in excellent shape and a new record for the local course is expected.

Locals to Nelson, B. C.

The Portland Rowing club senior crews, according to an announcement made this morning, will be entered in the big regatta at Nelson, B. C., next week.

Some of the Victoria and Vancouver oarsmen will remain in Portland until the local crews go to Nelson, B. C., and they will leave in a special car.

The Portland club has arranged a dance for the visitors to be held this evening in the Portland clubhouse at the foot of Lyon street.

George Kendall's "Sylph" will be the judges' boat during the regatta. The officials are: Commodore, J. N. Teele, vice commodore, W. J. Patton; ensigns, R. W. Wilbur, T. J. Mendenhall, Cap-

ILLINOIS TANK CHAMPIONS ARE HERE TOMORROW

Multnomah Will Be Without Services of Norman Ross in the Chicago Meet.

The crack Illinois Athletic club swimming team of Chicago, which broke four records in the international meet at San Francisco last Saturday, will compete in an exhibition meet against the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club tomorrow night in the club tank at 8 o'clock.

The team, which is being accompanied by Instructor Bachrach, is: A. C. Rathel, H. J. Hehner, M. McDermott, K. Wohlfiel, Michael McDermott, Perry McGillivray, William Vornburg and P. McDermott.

Perry McGillivray made the mark of 24 1-5 seconds for the 50 yard swim at San Francisco last week and he will try to duplicate this performance in the club tank.

Harry Hehner made a new mark for the 150 yard back stroke swim and M. McDermott made a new record for the 200 yard breast stroke. The ready team, McGillivray, Hehner, Mott and Rathel, set the coast record of 2:44 3-5 for the 300 yard swim.

The Multnomah team will be without the services of Norman Ross, its crack swimmer, who has not returned from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, where he took part in the Fourth of July aquatic events.

Gus Mankurtz, who was a member of the "Winged M" team several seasons ago, has returned to Portland and if he is able to get in any kind of form he will be in the meet tomorrow night.

The rest of the club team will be McMurray, Lyndstufm, Balback, Wheeler and Tait.

WESTERN TRI-STATE

Pendleton, Or., July 10.—The locals lost a 4 to 3 decision yesterday to the Baker club. Pendleton started Lewis, but he was knocked out of the box and Schroeder finished the game, holding the Kubs to one hit.

Portland, July 9.—Mr. Tom Word, Sheriff, Multnomah County, Portland, Or., Dear Sir—We, the Assessor's Office baseball team, hereby challenge the winning team, after all the preliminary games have been played by the various amateur teams representing the different departments in Multnomah county's courthouse.

Considering ourselves superior in baseball to the different departments, we do not wish to waste our valuable time staging such farces as would be evident were we to enter in contest in such preliminary tryouts as would be necessary to develop a team worthy of our consideration.

When such team has been developed, we request our challenge be accepted, as we are broad minded enough to tolerate you and give you this chance to compete with us.

We are advised, if permissible by the sheriff, that bookmakers have placed us a 7 to 2 favorite.

In order to avoid any possible error after defeat at our hands, of unfair methods and using riners and outsiders not connected with this office, we hereby publish our lineup as follows:

George Funk, catcher; Captain H. U. Welch, pitcher; J. J. Shipley, first base; Phil Harris, second base; D. E. Bomgardner, shortstop; Alloys Harold, third base; Major J. P. Kennedy, center field; Al Meyers, right field; Henry Reed, left field.

Scouts—(1) A. G. Davidson, (2) Carl Stowe, (3) Zip Whitting, (4) A. Y. Beach, (5) Tom Maguigan.

Substitutes—Bob Hendria, Cliff Jones, Carl Wessells, James Dowd, Jack Douglas, James Kennedy, Forrest G. King, W. H. Soules, scorer; Harry Bulger, mascot; Mose Bloch, batter and treasurer.

Respectfully submitted, MANAGER.

One of the richest of labor organizations is the English Bootmakers' Federation, which has $300,000 on hand.

"We have enough pitchers as it is," declared Ewing. "It is not the failure of the pitchers that has caused the Seale's slump. I consider that we have as good, if not the best, pitching staff in the league."

Manager Del Howard of the San Francisco club, playing here this week.

Walla Walla, Wash., July 10.—Walla Walla made four errors yesterday and lost the game to North Yakima, 4 to 3. The locals made all of their runs in the first inning, when two doubles, two singles and an error, counted for three runs.
