BANCROFT STARTS IT IN EIGHTH AND GUS FISHER FINISHES IT

Fanning Knocked Out of Box by Ryan and Homer Made Off Pernoll.

TAKE FOUR OUT OF SIX

Teams Bowl Along With Two to Two Tie and Then the Big Blow-up Is Staged.

Driving in six runs in the eighth inning off pitchers Fanning and Pernoll, the Beavers broke a 2 to 2 tie and took yesterday's game and the series from the San Francisco Seals. The count was Portland 8, San Francisco 2.

Fanning was pitted against Rieger, who trimmed the Bay City squad in a shutout game in the first contest of the series, and he was touched up for 13 hits, including four two base hits. Pernoll, who replaced Fanning, fanned Lober, but Fisher drove the ball out of the lot, scoring Kores in front of him. Rieger allowed six hits, but was rather free with his passes, and was in hot water several times during the contest.

Manager Del Howard was chased from the game in the sixth inning for disputing a decision made by Umpire McCarthy, Schmidt had hit to Kores at third base and Mundorff was nipped at the plate. Howard claimed the ball was foul and argued himself out of the game.

Portland opened the run getting in the third. Rieger singled and took second on Mundorff's error. Bancroft's bingle put Rieger on third and the Beaver twirler scored when Downs made a poor throw to Schmidt to break up a double steal.

The Seals tied the score in the fifth on Schmidt's single, Fanning's sacrifice, a stolen base and Fisher's poor peg. Fisher made up for his poor peg by doubling to center field. He went to third on Rieger's sacrifice and scored on Bancroft's second hit.

Schaller's walk, Downs' sacrifice, Mundorff's double tied the score in the sixth inning. Howard followed with a walk and Corhan hit one too hard for Bancroft to handle and the bases were filled.

Schmidt hit to Kores and Mundorff was nipped at the plate. This is the play that chased Howard out of the game. Fanning was an easy out. After this inning the Seals were not a bit dangerous.

Portland had men on the bases in every inning except the first. Ryan doubled in the second, but died there. In the seventh Fisher doubled, but Rieger failed to hit the ball and then came the big batting rally.

Schmidt opened the ninth with a single. He stole second and reached third on Pernoll's out, but Fitzgerald and O'Leary were easy outs for Bancroft.

Packy McFarland Marries.

Chicago, July 13.—Patrick MacFarland, 26, better known to Chicago boxing fans as "Packy" was married Saturday night to Miss Margaret A. Loughrin, daughter of the late M. S. Loughrin, a millionaire business man of Joliet. The ceremony was performed at St. Mary's Paulist church, Chicago, by the Rev. P. O. O'Dwyer, of Joliet.

Once in a while a man has so much money that he feels he can afford to be honest.

SEMI-PRO BASEBALL

The Meier & Frank team defeated the Lipman & Wolfe nine yesterday by the score of 5 to 4. The game was one of the features of the Meier & Frank picnic at Bonneville.

The contest was featured by fast fielding. The batteries—Meier & Frank: Parker and Jorgenson. Lipman-Wolfe: Thompson and Powers.

The Lents Park team won its first game by trimming the South Mt. Tabor Park team Saturday by the score of 17 to 11. A. Anderson and A. Nygaard formed the battery for the winners.

St. Andrews continued their long winning record Sunday by defeating Linnton, 10 to 2. Linnton had no chance to win against Cy DeYoung's great pitching, who allowed them only two hits and struck out 12 men. St. Andrews' hard hitters were too much for Treber's slants. "Ty" Barton opened the game with a triple and what followed is told by the score. In the third inning Wirtz of the visitors clouted out a solid double with the bases full, scouring three.

Batteries: St. Andrews—DeYoung and Rodgers; Linnton—Treber and Noyes.

The Dalles, July 13.—The Knights of Columbus of Portland defeated the local team for the second time this season by hard hitting during the last part of the game. Dick Luckey obtained his 5th home-run in the last six games played. Jack Tauscher's fast fielding around the second sack easily explains why he has traveled in faster company. Galvin pitching for the visitors worked in great form. Batteries, K. of C. Galvin and Therion; The Dalles, Wiltze and Calvin. The Knights of Columbus would like a game for next Sunday. Write or phone Mr. C. R. Hughes of the Hibernia Bank.

The Piedmont Maroons lost a 14-inning game to the Hillsboro team yesterday by the score of 2 to 3. Morris pitched for the Maroons and allowed 9 hits. The fielding of Grimm, Cullins and "Bud" Leipold were the features of the games. Leipold played a sensational game at shortstop, pulling down a number of very hard flies.

Score—	R.	H.	E.
Maroons	2	11	5
Hillsboro	3	9	3

Batteries—Morris and Bartholemy; Martin and Phelps.

The Archer-Wiggins Weonas defeated the Gresham Giants yesterday by the score of 6 to 3. The batteries: Weonas — O'Dell and Wentworth; Gresham—Townsend and Hamlin.

The Lang & Co. team was defeated in a fast 10-inning game yesterday at Estacada by the score of 5 to 4. Yesterday's defeat was the first one in eight games for the Lang team. Batteries: Estacada—Smith, Smith and Hearshy—Lang—Fitzgerald and Early.

M. A. A. C. MEN MAKE MERRY AT THE BROAD ACRES OF CAP. THORNE

Low Jinks Voted Best That Has Ever Been Held by the Organization.

WALKER COMPLIMENTED

Genial Superintendent Leaves Nothing Undone in Providing Day of Pleasure for Membership.

Two hundred members of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, who made reservations are figuratively kicking themselves because they allowed a few drops of rain to frighten them out of participation in the revival of the annual "low jinks." Two hundred members of the club trampled down the grass and dredged the foreshore of Captain Frank Thorne's 280 acre farm down the Columbia on the Washington side. It was the best low jinks the club has ever held, said a few of the old-timers like Jack McFall, Ed Daley, L. J. Goldsmith, W. H. Wallace and George L. Bickel.

The excursionists left the Washington street slip at 9:30 o'clock on the steamer Ione, and threw out the lines at Thorne's acres at 11 o'clock. There was no delay in getting the athletic games under way. The association and intercollegiate football were dragged out of the big chest and sent flying into the air. Tommy Tracey's boxers got into action and entertained the crowd for a brief spell. Three or four games of outdoor-indoor baseball games were played before luncheon.

The assistants got to work immediately and threw up a marquee, where Superintendent Dow V. Walker presided, assisted by Assistant Superintendent Davis. Martin Pratt, Plowden Stott, Herbert Greenland, Bill Sinnott, Hal Rasch and Harry Fischer floated about the marquee, as the society editor would say. The serving of luncheon was a continuous affair until the whistle of the Ione tooted "all aboard."

Cap Thorne, ably assisted by Jack McFall, his first lieutenant by brevet, piloted parties over the Thorne domain and gave a technical dissertation in the operating of gas engines, the running of a "hog motor" and the growing of carrots, cucumbers and Brussels sprouts. The captain, it is not quite clear whether the title is civil, military or maritime, has some ranch.

E. von der Werth brought his fleet motorboat, the Naughty Girl, down from the city and it furnished the motive power for the exhibition of "surfless surf" board, staged by Fred G. Failing and Johnny McMurray. Art Allen gave a display of canoeing and then the swimming program opened. It furnished more excitement than all the others combined. It was a regular swim; the kind we used to have in the old pool back home. All that was lacking was the tying of knots. Nobody had to "chaw beef," but a lot of them had a terrific struggle getting out of the stream. Every time a man started to leave the water great gobs of mud were plastered upon him, which necessitated a return. Bert Allen was particularly pernicious in this. Bert got his later when he tried to sneak out. Dell O'Hanlon had a tremendous time getting out. Del furnishes a pretty good target. Stott and Oliver Huston grabbed their clothes and ran a hundred yards or so, thereby getting out of range. Olmar Dranga took a dip in an adjacent lake in order to wash the mud off. By common consent the mudding was called off in order to permit the boat to leave at 5 o'clock.

The success of the jinks depended largely upon Dow Walker, and there was not a detail that the genial superintendent had not provided for, even to the tubs of steaming coffee and fat sandwiches on the boat home.

Captain Fred Hegstrom and First Mate Phebus of the Ione said they wished the club would have a "low jinks" every Sunday.

The day was ideal for a picnic.

Will Repair Bridge Pavement.

Repairs to the pavement on the Broadway bridge will start early this week when the department of public works will place a large number of men at work laying wooden blocks in place of those defective. The Pennsylvania Bridge company which had the contract for the bridge work, has contributed $3000 toward the cost of the repairs and furnished the blocks for the city to lay. It is planned to handle portions of the deck at a time so that traffic will not be hindered.

OLD TIME FIGHTERS HAD TO SHOW GOODS TO WIN THEIR BOUTS

They Had to Travel Long Distances and Were Harder Than Present Crop.

POINTS DON'T MEAN MUCH

Welsh Won From Ritchie but He Didn't Win a Fight—One Punch Counted Ahead of Countless Taps.

By Hal Sheridan.

New York, July 13.—No doubt we have more good boxers and better ones today than we ever had before.

But we haven't the fighters they had a generation ago. Or at least if we have they don't show it any more. Why is this thus?

Why, the answer is that we have quit having finish fights.

A finish fight is a fight, you might say, to the death. Having started, it continues until one man or the other is knocked out. There used to be no such thing as winning on points. One of the two might hit the other one million times to No. 2's once, but if the one million were only taps and the one was a knockout, No. 2 won that fight.

It was a good thing for a fighter to be a boxer, too; but if he couldn't be both, it was a fighter he needed to be. For fighters won those fights.

Ah, them was the days of fights!

Today a boxer and a fighter get into the ring together for a four or a six or a ten or a twenty round go. The boxer piles up points and points and points. When the fighter goes after him he runs away. At the end of the four or six or ten or twenty rounds the boxer has points to burn and the fighter hasn't much of any at all.

So the referee gives the boxer the decision. He can't do anything else.

And yet the referee and the two scrappers and their seconds and everybody in the audience knows if it had gone to a finish, the fighter, who was maybe just beginning to get in his work when the gong rang for the last time, would have won.

Take Welsh and Ritchie, for instance—Welsh won, but he didn't win a fight.

There's something mighty unsatisfactory about a result like that. It's according to the rules, but it doesn't prove anything.

No fight is a real fight without a knockout or a voluntary surrender at the end.

Examinations Are Severe.

Examinations held by the municipal civil service board are very severe as shown by the results of the recent examination for inspectors in the water bureau. Only 23 of the 112 applicants succeeded in passing the test. Four vacancies exist, and the highest six eligibles will be certified to Commissioner Daly who will make the appointments.

LOS ANGELES IS COMING TO PLAY MAC'S BEAVERS

Seraphs and Champs Will Spring First "Crucial Series" of Season.

Los Angeles, July 13.—Jealously guarding the single game won out of eight played, the Sacramento ball tossers have left Los Angeles today, a broken spirited band. Not until the final game of the record series of the year did the Wolves succeed in breaking through the Angel defense, and Harry Wolverton himself, leading the attack at the bat, pushed through the victory.

Musser was the only Angel pitcher to fail to fatten his average at the expense of the visitors, and it took 11 innings for him to force his game into their won column. All the Angels went bat crazy and none of the Sacramento catchers were able to stop them on the paths. Strongly intrenched in first place, the Angels looked more dangerous today than at any time since the season opened. Practically every pitcher is going strong, and the outfield for the week hit at a .400 clip. The arrival of Joe Gedeon also has strengthened Dillon's men. Gedeon worked at second base in both games yesterday, fielding in faultless style and garnering three hits, one a triple.

The Angels are en route today to Portland, where one of the most important series of the year will be played this week.

Oaks Brace Up Bit.

San Francisco, July 13.—Tyler Christian's Oakland cellar champions, after numerous shakeups and shifts, seemed today to have at last struck a winning combination and were full of confidence for the coming clash with the Sacramento near-tailenders, returning from Los Angeles with one lone victory out of eight played in the south. Oakland showed a burst of speed and took Venice down the line four out of seven games played here.

Sacramento and Oakland, playing in San Francisco, probably will furnish the only game in the Coast league tomorrow, San Francisco making the long jump from Portland to Los Angeles and the Los Angeles team traveling the same distance in the opposite direction to engage McCredie's climbing Beavers on their home lot.

Before leaving here last night Manager Hogan of Venice said he would not decide until after his arrival in Los Angeles which one of the Tigers will have to be released to make room for Elmer Koestner, the former Coast league pitcher, who is returning from the major leagues.

In Shortstop Menges, Manager Christian seems to have picked up a star player for the Oaks, both at the bat and in the field. Besides getting three hits in yesterday's two games, he pulled off several circus fielding stunts, making a great hit with the fans.

No games were scheduled for today.

TEAMS IN 14 INNING TIE

Spokane, Wash., July 13.—In a sensational pitching duel between Kaufman and Noyes, the Spokane Indians and the Tacoma Tigers played a 14-inning 1-1 game here yesterday. The contest was called to allow the teams to catch a train.

Kaufman was in wonderful form. He allowed the Indians just four hits, while seven were collected off the delivery of Noyes by the Tigers. Four bases on balls were issued by the Spokane pitcher, while Kaufman did not allow a single. Wagner, who handled 17 chances at second base for the locals, saved the game twice by brilliant one-handed stops. Score:

At Spokane—	R.	H.	E.
Tacoma	1	7	3
Spokane	1	4	1

Plans Balloon Cure for Heart Disease

Cleveland, Ohio, July 13.—A balloon cure for heart disease will be tried by Dr. Rudolph Heym Jr., of this city, who with Aeronaut Lee Stevens will open the first balloon sanitarium ever operated in the country. A balloon capable of holding two or three cots will be hoised by cable 2000 or 3000 feet in the air each night. Patients afflicted with heart disease will spend the night above the clouds, and in the morning the balloon will be pulled down. Dr. Heym believes that spending the night in the rarefied atmosphere high above the city will cure heart trouble.
