FREDDIE WELSH DROPPED $500 ON RITCHIE GO

Receipts Disappoint and the Champion May Make His Home in Los Angeles.

New York, July 17.—Advice received from London today contained the surprising statement that Freddie Welsh, the new world's lightweight champion, intends to make America his home after the first of the year, and that he expects to locate in Los Angeles, Cal., where he has property interests. The statement is unqualified, and its source is considered reliable.

Only the future, however, can prove its value. The fact that it cost Welsh $500 to win the title, from Ritchie, may have something to do with his plans to leave the "light little isle."

Welsh lost money on the championship battle with Ritchie because he agreed to split even with Charles Cochran, who promoted the Olympia affair, on the money left after Ritchie received his $25,000-$15,000 guarantee and $10,000 for moving picture and advertising privileges. The gross receipts amounted to $11,000, much less than expected. Harry Pollock, Welsh's manager, had estimated the receipts at about $35,000. Cochran probably lost about $10,000 on the show.

Double John Moran front in Paris hit by pitched ball—Scheller by DeWolfe. Time—1:35. Umpire—Hayes.
