

GUNMAN'S TRIAL FOR MURDER WILL BEGIN TOMORROW IN BOSTON

"Chippy" Robinson, Who Killed Policeman in Cafe, Said to Be Daring Criminal

"PEACHED" ON BY "PAL"

Arrested Only After Desperate Running Fight Which Blocked Traffic in Nearby Streets.

Boston, Mass., July 18.—The district attorney's office has everything in readiness to begin the trial Monday of Lawrence (Chippy) Robinson, the notorious gunman who less than four weeks ago shot and killed Police Inspector Thomas J. Norton, who was one of a squad of officers attempting to arrest Robinson and a companion in a well known downtown cafe. The accused man, despite his immaculate dress and outward appearance of gentility, is considered one of the most daring criminals with which the Boston police have ever had to deal.

Robinson hails from Ohio and is understood to have made Toledo his headquarters most of the time. He was wanted in Grand Rapids, Mich., in connection with the daylight robbery of the Thompson jewelry store in that city last September, in which three men connected with the concern were shot and killed by two robbers, who escaped with more than $2000 worth of diamonds.

"Peached" on by Pal
Three months ago Walter Lawrence was arrested in Covington, Ky., on a charge of having been connected with the Grand Rapids robbery. He is alleged to have confessed to having named Robinson as his companion in the crime. The Grand Rapids police sent circulars broadcast bearing a description of Robinson and offering a reward of $2000 for his capture. Other rewards offered for the capture and conviction of the murderers totaled $7500. This led to great activity on the part of police and detectives the country over.

The Pinkertons were brought into the case by the National Protective association of jewelers. Two of their detectives finally succeeded in locating Robinson in this city, where for several weeks he had been living at a downtown hotel and spending money lavishly at near-by summer resorts. Living with him was a young man named Joseph Duddy, whose acquaintance he had made in Toledo, but who, so far as it is known, was not concerned in the Grand Rapids robbery.

On June 19 the two detectives found Robinson and Duddy dining in the cafe. The detectives belonging to Philadelphia and in consequence had no authority to make any arrests here without a warrant. They therefore telephoned to police headquarters to send an officer to make the arrest. Police Inspector Norton was just leaving headquarters to attend the graduation of one of his seven children. Without hesitating a moment he was assigned and hurried to the cafe to meet the detectives. On learning of the dangerous character of Robinson and his propensity to shoot on the slightest provocation, the inspector picked up two of his brother officers on the street, which made a party of five to accomplish the arrests.

A Desperate Running Fight
Upon entering the cafe the party at once walked toward the table where sat Robinson and his companion. It was mid-afternoon and the cafe was filled with men and women, laughing and joking. As the police approached, Robinson glanced up and in an instant was on his feet. He drew his revolver quickly, saying, "You'll never take me alive when I'm armed." A shot, Inspector Norton grabbed Robinson, who grappled with the inspector, managed to snipe him off, and broke away. Again Robinson fired his revolver. Norton fell with a bullet wound just under his heart and died before he reached the hospital.

The other policeman running after Robinson, but he fought them off, and reaching one of the exits, dashed up the stairway leading to the street. Then followed a running pistol fight, the like of which Boston had never seen before. Bullets flew wildly, but not a pedestrian in the crowd was hit. The chase soon ended, however, for the police were reinforced by mounted officers, Robinson, cornered, was taken to headquarters. In the course of the pursuit the desperado was shot three times by the officers. None of the wounds proved serious and at the end of three or four days he was removed from the hospital and lodged in a cell.
