

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Snap shots at the tennis tournament. Top, left to right—Mrs. W. B. Roberson, Mrs. C. A. Mackenzie and her guest, Miss May Ballin of New York. Bottom, left to right—Miss Alice Tucker and Mrs. Walter M. Cook.

be solemnized Wednesday evening, July 22, at 8:30, in the White Temple. A reception will be held in the church parlors following the wedding service.

Mrs. J. O. Humphrey has as her guests for about six weeks Mrs. H. B. Davis and children, Haskell and Muriel, of Evanston, Ill., who arrived on Tuesday.

Mrs. Winthrop Terry of Piedmont is entertaining as her house guest her niece, Miss Bernice Riley, a popular member of Chicago's younger set.

Mrs. J. Sullivan and daughter Florence have gone to Newport, where they will remain for the rest of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mackenzie and their house guest, Miss May Ballin of New York, are spending a week at the Mackenzie cottage at Holman's, North Beach.

E. J. Cutting leaves today for Chicago where he joins Mrs. Cutting. After a month at Les Cheneaux islands, Mr. and Mrs. Cutting will visit elsewhere in Michigan and Ohio, returning to Portland in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Mackin with their two children, Wallace and Francis, returned Sunday from two weeks spent at the home of Mrs. Mackin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Keegan, of The Dalles. Another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Corlew, returned from The Dalles the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook have terminated their New York and Boston visit and are home again. Mrs. Cook was present at the reunion of her class at Wellesley and was a guest of Miss Ellen Fitz Pendleton, of Wellesley, who was a Portland visitor last fall.

BARRACKS NEWS

Mrs. Rutherford Harris who has been ill for the past week, is able to be out again.

Captain and Mrs. Walter Sweeney gave a beautifully appointed card party on Wednesday evening at their quarters.

A number of people from the post enjoyed a trip to The Dalles last week. Captain and Mrs. Lucius Bennett, Lieutenant and Mrs. Gilbert Wilkes and Mrs. Blatterman of Mayville, Kentucky composed the party.

Lieutenant Gilbert Wilkes and Lieutenant Charles J. Taylor of the Engineer corps, who have been on a detail at Monterey, Cal., have been ordered home.

Mrs. John H. Page, Jr., has left for a visit in Kansas City while Captain Page is participating in the maneuvers at Gearhart. General and Mrs. Page are occupying their quarters during their absence.

dered to the Philippines for duty and will sail for the Islands October 5, on the government transport leaving San Francisco on that date.

Lieutenant William R. Scott has been ordered to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, to attend the army school there.

Mrs. Hegeman, Mrs. Wilson Chase, Mrs. Edgar A. Fry and Mrs. Fred W. Bugbee and their children have gone to Gearhart for several weeks.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Bernard O. Lewis are rejoicing over the birth of a son on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Richard Moore and her mother, Mrs. Davis, of Washington, D. C., sailed last week for San Francisco where they will go to Monterey to visit Captain Moore, who is in command of the Engineer corps on detail at that place.

Captain and Mrs. Cromwell Stacey gave a theatre party and supper on Monday evening. The guests were Captain and Mrs. Walter Sweeney, Captain and Mrs. Allen Parker, Mrs. Letha, Captain Carroll F. Armistead and Lieutenant Rutherford Harris.

Major Joseph C. Castner and family will leave on Friday for Snelling, Minnesota, where Major Castner has been ordered.

Bishop and Mrs. Easton, of Tacoma, who have been house guests of Colonel and Mrs. Young for several days, left on Wednesday for their home.

Mrs. George S. Young gave a pretty appointed dinner Saturday evening. The guests were Bishop and Mrs. Easton, Mrs. Jere B. Clayton and Miss Trotter.

Colonel William Lassiter who has been on the unassigned list has been ordered to report for duty with the Twenty-first Infantry and will serve under Colonel George S. Young who is post commander. Colonel Lassiter who will be retired this coming autumn has been on duty in the recruiting office at Fort McDowell, Cal.

The regular Sunday afternoon services held by Chaplain James Ossewards have been discontinued during the summer. Chaplain Ossewards, however, remains at the post.

Mrs. John E. Richardson and Mrs. William H. Gill have left for Gearhart to join their husbands who are there with their companies.

Mrs. Polly Young will sail for Alaska with a party of friends the latter part of July. She expects to be gone about three weeks.

Mrs. John H. Page, Jr., has left for a visit in Kansas City while Captain Page is participating in the maneuvers at Gearhart. General and Mrs. Page are occupying their quarters during their absence.

ENGAGEMENTS

Wednesday brought with it an announcement of the engagement of Miss Edith Helen Roof and Leo S. Shapiro, both of whom are well known musically. The bride-elect has only recently returned from a stay in Chicago. September has been chosen as the wedding month.

WEDDINGS

The marriage of Miss Edith Matilda Ryden and Gustaf J. W. Nelson was solemnized Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Henry E. Sandstedt, who used the ring ceremony. The bride came in on the arm of her father. She was becomingly gowned in ivory tulle with small flowers and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Her attendants were Miss Anna Dahlgren, Miss Bertha Melnhoff and Miss Evangelina McIntosh. All wore fetching costumes and carried pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Higginson, Mr. Faxon in the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Faxon, who for 25 years were prominent residents of Pendleton. The Higginson residence was beautifully decorated with a profusion of palms, pink and white roses and carnations in the same shades. The bride was charming in her wedding gown of ivory crepe me-lisse with bodice of lace and lace flouncing on the skirt. She carried a shower of bride roses. Her only attendant was Miss Rosalie Garrett, who wore pink crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. A brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Winnie Michael. Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. The table was presided over by Mrs. W. C. Retass and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman. Miss Millie Mead served punch and assisting further were Miss Michael and Miss Maud Millers. Mr. and Mrs. Faxon have gone directly to Klickitat, where they will make their home for the summer, returning to Portland in the fall.

Miss Emma M. Green and Wayfield Strudgson were married Saturday afternoon, July 11, at 5 o'clock, at the Centenary Methodist church, parsonage, by Rev. Delmar H. Trimble.

On Wednesday Rev. Luther R. Dyott solemnized the wedding of Miss Lucile Moore of Lakewood, Ill., and L. C. Mackay of Portland. The ceremony was solemnized in the Congregational church parlor. Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mackay were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Mackay will spend a month's honeymoon camping near Mount St. Helens.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Willis, Goldendale, Wash., Wednesday, was solemnized the wedding of Miss Hazel M. Willis and Dr. George H. Buck of Portland. Rev. E. H. Longbeak performed the ceremony. Miss Lillian Willis was the maid of honor and the best man was Crede Bonbrake. Dr. and Mrs. Buck left at once for their home in Portland.

Rev. J. H. Bennett officiated at the wedding which made Miss Lillian Higginson the bride of Elwood Byron Faxon on Wednesday evening at half past 8. About 30 guests assembled for the ceremony, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Higginson. Mr. Faxon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Faxon, who for 25 years were prominent residents of Pendleton. The Higginson residence was beautifully decorated with a profusion of palms, pink and white roses and carnations in the same shades. The bride was charming in her wedding gown of ivory crepe me-lisse with bodice of lace and lace flouncing on the skirt. She carried a shower of bride roses. Her only attendant was Miss Rosalie Garrett, who wore pink crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. A brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Winnie Michael. Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. The table was presided over by Mrs. W. C. Retass and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman. Miss Millie Mead served punch and assisting further were Miss Michael and Miss Maud Millers. Mr. and Mrs. Faxon have gone directly to Klickitat, where they will make their home for the summer, returning to Portland in the fall.

Miss Olivia Lipschultz, who celebrates her twelfth birthday tomorrow.

Miss Emma M. Green and Wayfield Strudgson were married Saturday afternoon, July 11, at 5 o'clock, at the Centenary Methodist church, parsonage, by Rev. Delmar H. Trimble.

On Wednesday Rev. Luther R. Dyott solemnized the wedding of Miss Lucile Moore of Lakewood, Ill., and L. C. Mackay of Portland. The ceremony was solemnized in the Congregational church parlor. Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mackay were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Mackay will spend a month's honeymoon camping near Mount St. Helens.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Willis, Goldendale, Wash., Wednesday, was solemnized the wedding of Miss Hazel M. Willis and Dr. George H. Buck of Portland. Rev. E. H. Longbeak performed the ceremony. Miss Lillian Willis was the maid of honor and the best man was Crede Bonbrake. Dr. and Mrs. Buck left at once for their home in Portland.

Rev. J. H. Bennett officiated at the wedding which made Miss Lillian Higginson the bride of Elwood Byron Faxon on Wednesday evening at half past 8. About 30 guests assembled for the ceremony, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Higginson. Mr. Faxon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Faxon, who for 25 years were prominent residents of Pendleton. The Higginson residence was beautifully decorated with a profusion of palms, pink and white roses and carnations in the same shades. The bride was charming in her wedding gown of ivory crepe me-lisse with bodice of lace and lace flouncing on the skirt. She carried a shower of bride roses. Her only attendant was Miss Rosalie Garrett, who wore pink crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. A brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Winnie Michael. Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. The table was presided over by Mrs. W. C. Retass and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman. Miss Millie Mead served punch and assisting further were Miss Michael and Miss Maud Millers. Mr. and Mrs. Faxon have gone directly to Klickitat, where they will make their home for the summer, returning to Portland in the fall.

Miss Emma M. Green and Wayfield Strudgson were married Saturday afternoon, July 11, at 5 o'clock, at the Centenary Methodist church, parsonage, by Rev. Delmar H. Trimble.

On Wednesday Rev. Luther R. Dyott solemnized the wedding of Miss Lucile Moore of Lakewood, Ill., and L. C. Mackay of Portland. The ceremony was solemnized in the Congregational church parlor. Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mackay were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Mackay will spend a month's honeymoon camping near Mount St. Helens.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Willis, Goldendale, Wash., Wednesday, was solemnized the wedding of Miss Hazel M. Willis and Dr. George H. Buck of Portland. Rev. E. H. Longbeak performed the ceremony. Miss Lillian Willis was the maid of honor and the best man was Crede Bonbrake. Dr. and Mrs. Buck left at once for their home in Portland.

Rev. J. H. Bennett officiated at the wedding which made Miss Lillian Higginson the bride of Elwood Byron Faxon on Wednesday evening at half past 8. About 30 guests assembled for the ceremony, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Higginson. Mr. Faxon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Faxon, who for 25 years were prominent residents of Pendleton. The Higginson residence was beautifully decorated with a profusion of palms, pink and white roses and carnations in the same shades. The bride was charming in her wedding gown of ivory crepe me-lisse with bodice of lace and lace flouncing on the skirt. She carried a shower of bride roses. Her only attendant was Miss Rosalie Garrett, who wore pink crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. A brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Winnie Michael. Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. The table was presided over by Mrs. W. C. Retass and Mrs. A. G. Hoffman. Miss Millie Mead served punch and assisting further were Miss Michael and Miss Maud Millers. Mr. and Mrs. Faxon have gone directly to Klickitat, where they will make their home for the summer, returning to Portland in the fall.

Miss Emma M. Green and Wayfield Strudgson were married Saturday afternoon, July 11, at 5 o'clock, at the Centenary Methodist church, parsonage, by Rev. Delmar H. Trimble.

after which numerous games were played and Miss Marguerite rendered a number of piano solos. The table was greatly admired, the centerpiece being a large pink birthday cake. Those present were: Mrs. Froelich, Marguerite Amato, Irene McGahan, Jeannette Rogers, Marie and Sophie McGuire, Margaret French, Cynthia Delano, Laura Powell, Ruth Powell, Jemima French, Ada Stephens, Virginia Sibley, Louise Reuder and Angelina Pitticelli.

Thursday, July 16, Mrs. James Edward Harvey of Mount Tabor was hostess at a reception given in honor of her mother, Mrs. Pauline Reichwein and sister, Zaidee of New York city. Light refreshments were served. Forty guests called in the course of the afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Bartholomew has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Edith Jolie Cahill, to James Loder. No date has been set for the wedding.

An event of Tuesday night was a party given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Finn of 300 Sacramento street, in honor of M. May of Eastern Oregon. The guests were Mrs. K. Finn, Miss M. Leopold, Miss M. Bohan, D. Brogan, H. Shelley, H. Gray, T. Heslin, J. Malloy and Miss M. Whitney. Mr. Malloy will leave soon for his home in Pendleton.

A delightful affair of Thursday was the afternoon for which Mrs. Florence Belle Crawford invited guests. Mrs. Crawford is a poetess of much ability and it was to hear a number of her poems set to music by Mrs. Edith Haines Kuester, of Seattle, that the 40 or 50 guests assembled. Mrs. Kuester presided at the piano and sang the songs. A number of additional poems by Mrs. Crawford were read by Mrs. Mabel Wallace Suterworser. A feature of the affair was the decorations. Many of Mrs. Crawford's verses had as their inspiration flowers and the decorations were all apropos of the poems read or sung. Yellow marigolds decked the table in the dining room where Mrs. W. T. Wade and Mrs. Mark Smith presided. The serving table in the living room had hydrangeas for its flowers and was presided over by Mrs. Walter Howard and Miss Florence Sullenberg.

The Wisconsin Society of Oregon held its regular monthly meeting for July last Wednesday evening at Cottillion hall. A large number of loyal Wisconsinites were present, and many new members were added to the roll. After short business session, which showed the society to be in a prosperous and flourishing condition, there was a roll call, to which each one present responded, giving Wisconsin a hearty recommendation, but boosting enthusiastically for Oregon. A delightful program, consisted of the following numbers: A. B. Cain, baritone solo, "The Hesperian"; Miss Maud Millers, Miss Lulu Carr, soprano solo, "Mrs. Mead, accompanist"; Charles E. Sawyer, reading; Mrs. J. Blumenthal, piano solo, "The Hesperian"; Irish ballad, "The Hesperian"; and a rec- aquainted time was enjoyed by all present. It was decided that the regular annual picnic of the society be held at Peninsula park, on the afternoon and evening of August 20, which would be the regular meeting date.

On June 5 Mrs. Alice Sparks of 876 East Eleventh street north, entertained the sewing society of George Wright Women's Relief corps. A delicious lunch was served to 28, and the entertainment was agreed by all to be one of the most enjoyable. Friday, July 10, the society met at the home of Mrs. Thomas of Montavilla, with 25 present. A chicken dinner was served by the daughters of the hostess. Much work was accomplished and a general good time enjoyed. The next meeting will be at 1005 1/2 the courthouse, W. R. C. hall, Friday, July 24.

Mrs. Raymonde G. Littler entertained with friends at a bridge at her home in Mount Tabor on Wednesday.

COMING EVENTS

There will be a lawn social party given by the United Artisans of Arieta assembly No. 338, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Nortwick, 6703 Forty-fourth avenue, corner of Sixty-seventh street, S. E. Monday evening at 8:30. Ice cream and cake will be served. All members and their friends are cordially invited. Take the Mount Scott car, get off at Kern Park station and walk three blocks north.

The Kansas Jayhawker society of Oregon will hold its regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening in Manchester hall, Fifth and Oak streets. A laughable two act farce comedy and several musical numbers will provide the evening's entertainment.

FRATERNAL NOTES

The closing "500" party of Oregon's First Hive, No. 981, Ladies of the Modern Maccabees, was held at the home of Mrs. L. F. Parker, 1075 Glenn avenue, north, last Tuesday evening. After the prizes were awarded cake and lemonade were served.

The Railroad Woman's club has postponed their basket supper, in the City park, until the first Thursday in August.

Woodmere Hive, No. 90, Ladies of the Modern Maccabees, the babyhood of Portland, instituted May 29, royally entertained their older sisters and friends from the other hives last Thursday evening at the home of Past Commander Mrs. R. E. Alson, 5906 Seventy-seventh street, S. E. Cecil Laird, cornetist, Albert Deckeville, violinist;

Masses of fragrant roses and other blossoms artistically arranged enhanced the beauty of the George Jacobs residence in Irvington on Thursday evening, when Miss Mabelle Jacobs was hostess for 15 guests, who assembled to honor the occasion of Miss Estelle Leader's birthday. A musical program filled the earlier portion of the evening, and dancing rounded out the later. Those who enjoyed Miss Jacobs' hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs, Mrs. H. Leader, Mrs. Mabel Day, Miss Frances Spencer, Miss Nona Leader, Miss Bernice Jacobs, Thomas Dempsey, John Buckley, Abdon Meiss, Stanley Kenney, Charles McDonald and Jack Layton.

A delightful party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Amato, 4209 Thirty-ninth avenue, S. E. Thursday afternoon in honor of their daughter, Marguerite, on her eleventh birthday. The rooms were artistically decorated with flowers, the color scheme being of pink. Lunch was served by Mrs. Ralph Amato assisted by Mrs. P. B. Sibley.

Left—Miss Grace O'Neil. Right—Miss Thelma Garrett of Seattle. Miss O'Neil is now the Seattle guest of Miss Garrett, who was a recent Portland visitor.

Mrs. Deckeville, pianist, Gus Smith, soloist, and Hazel Ellis, pianist, rendered a fine musical program. Following that ice cream and cake were served upon the lawn under the many swinging Japanese lanterns.

The following officers of Bonnie Rose Castle 878 were installed at the regular meeting of the castle on Monday evening: P. I. P. Gilbert Anderson; I. P. Roy Keel; C. C. Anna Smith; W. E. Gertrude McLaren; board of managers, long term, L. L. Haynes; warden, Jay A. Mathews; sentry, L. H. Russell; herald, Mary Damm; state manager, H. J. Gilderleeve, acting as installing officer, and Dr. L. G. McAloney as guide. A membership campaign was started to last six months.

A five hundred party will be given by the guards of Portland hive No. 7, at the home of Mrs. Martha Howell, 1817 Woolsey street, Columbia park.

Thursday afternoon. All Maccabees and friends are invited. Call East 2179 for information.

Applying Home Scenery. St. Louis Republic.

Ruth, 6 years old, had seen an elephant and camel one evening. The next day she said to her brother: "Harold, did you see that thing with two hills on its back and the cow with the tail on its face?"

Worrell's
SIXTH AND ALDER
Closing-Out
Sale of All Spring Suits, Coats and Dresses

Our entire stock of Spring Suits consisting of more than 450 garments, not one of them sold regularly for less than $30 and many of them at $45, $55 and $65, all go at one price—

Your Choice
$9.95

Another lot of Suits that sold regularly at $20 to $27.50, your choice $7.95

Another lot of Suits, the regular prices of which were $12.50, $15.00 and $17.50, your choice $4.95

No Exchanges. No Refunds. No Approvals

Worrell's Sample Cloak and Suit House
SIXTH AND ALDER ST., OPPOSITE OREGONIAN

K. S. ERVIN & CO., LTD.
GENERAL ENGLISH TAILORS
2ND FLOOR SELLING BLDG.
SIXTH AT ALDER STS.

ASK FOR SAMPLES

Engraving
PRINTING AND BOOK BINDING
SPECIALIZING IN WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS BIRTHDAY CARDS AND
INVITATIONS AND NATIONAL MEMORIALS

Tilman
100 and 102 1/2