STRIKE BELIEVED TO BE AVERTED BY SALE OF KRAFT TO NEWARK

Player Around Whom Storm Centered Sold by Nashville Club at Its Own Price.

WARLIKE BAN IS DOCILE

Johnson's Battle Meeting Turns Into Party, Where Doves of Peace Flutter in Large Flocks.

New York, July 21.—The threatened strike of American and National league baseball players was believed to have been averted today by the action of a meeting here of American league magnates, called by President Johnson to formulate plans to fight the demands of the Players' fraternity.

Contrary to the warlike utterances of Johnson before the magnates assembled, the meeting authorized a resale of Infielder Clarence O. Kraft, around whom the storm centered, to the Newark International league club, at a valuation placed on his services by the Nashville Southern association club, whose claim was upheld by the national commission.

It was against the national commission's ruling sustaining Nashville's right to use Kraft that the fraternity rebelled.

When informed of the action of the American magnates in the Kraft case, President Fultz of the Players' fraternity said: "There will be no strike now. The disposition of Kraft is agreeable to me. That was all we wanted—simply to give him a square deal."

The program adopted by the American league meeting enabled the magnates to sidestep the strike issue so far as their organization is concerned. President Ban Johnson did a fight about face, changing front completely from his belligerent attitude earlier in the day. He sought to belittle the idea of a strike.

"I don't think there will be any strike," Johnson said. "There is nothing to worry about as far as the American league is concerned. The Kraft case is a matter for the National league to settle now."

Charles H. Ebbetts of the Brooklyn Nationals, who also owns the Newark International league club, said he was willing to pay $2500 for Kraft. This was regarded as closing the incident.

What Fultz Kicked About. New York, July 21.—Admittedly facing the greatest crisis in organized baseball's history, both factions in the controversy here today are in the ultimatum of President David L. Fultz of the Players' fraternity demanding that the national commission recede from its ruling.

A meeting of American league magnates, called by President Ban Johnson for today, was expected to formulate plans for warfare. Apparently full of confidence, Fultz was standing pat, insisting that all members of the fraternity unanimously endorsed his stand.

Fultz' letter, which brought matters to a head, reads: "Mr. August Herrmann, Chairman National Commission, Cincinnati.—Dear Sir: Inasmuch as organized baseball seem fit to continue its violation of section 18 and several other sections of the Cincinnati agreement, which agreement is a part of every player's contract, the board of directors of the Baseball Players' fraternity has authorized me to inform you that on and after Wednesday, July 22, the members of the organization will no longer consider themselves under contract."

In a statement Fultz said: "While the Kraft controversy is the main point at issue, it is only one cause of difference. Players have been released without the required preliminary notice. Players have been suspended without pay and no reason assigned, as is required. We have taken five or six cases up with Mr. Farrell, secretary of the national board, who decides all claims presented to that board; and, although one of these cases was filed nearly three months ago, we have not been accorded the courtesy of an acknowledgment of the receipt of any of them."

Reports received from all over the American and National league circuits indicated strong support of the stand taken by the fraternity.

HOMING PIGEON CLUB TO MEET TOMORROW EVE

St. Johns and Arleta Juvenile Race District to Be Segregated.

The Oregon Homing Pigeon club will meet in room 208 Panama building tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of segregating the different race districts.

The St. Johns and the Arleta juvenile districts will be present with a possibility of a new district from the Alberta vicinity.

President E. H. Bauer will give an interesting lecture on the raising, training and flying of homers, and as he has made a close study of these birds for a number of years, his remarks should prove very interesting.

The following incident will show the attachment homing pigeons have for the loft in which they were raised. Gordon Taylor has his home near Council Crest, and secured a pair of homers from a loft on the outskirts of Rose City Park. He kept them locked up for some months and they went about their household duties apparently happy and contented.

"CHIP" SETTLES DOWN TO HEAVY WORK FOR BOAT

Sailor Petroskey Hopes to Reverse Knockout Recently Scored.

San Francisco, July 21.—George Chip of Newcastle, Pa., settled down today in his training quarters at San Rafael to prepare for his 20 round bout with Sailor Ed Petroskey here July 31.

Accompanied by his manager, Jimmy Dime, his brother Joe and Tom McMahon, the Pennsylvania middleweight arrived from Los Angeles by boat, and the party went at once to San Rafael.

Dime said Chip had been taking it easy in the south, but would not require much work to put him on edge for the Petroskey match.

Petroskey will arrive from his ranch in Plumas county within a few days and get down to hard work for the match. He hopes to reverse Chip's knockout victory over him, scored several weeks ago in Los Angeles.

San Francisco, July 21.—Promoter Coffroth was scheduled to see George Chip late today to discuss a match with Mike Gibbons here some time next month. When Gibbons wired his acceptance, Coffroth regarded the match as settled, but meanwhile Chip agreed to box Petroskey, which may interfere with next month's match. If Chip is unavailable as an opponent for Gibbons, Coffroth will go to work on another match, with Billy Murray of Sacramento as one of the principals.
