

Social and Personal BY NONA LAWLER

Monday and Tuesday of this week seem to be set aside for rest, as they are entirely free from social events. Tomorrow there are several interesting affairs scheduled to break the monotony of things. Miss Rhoda Nebling, the attractive visitor from San Francisco, who is the guest of Mrs. W. W. Cotton, will be the motif for an enjoyable launching party on the Willamette, which will wind up with a dance and supper at the Country club, given by Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Dickson.

For Mrs. Frederick Warren Farrington Jr., a recent bride, Mrs. Farrington Sr. will entertain with a bridge party in the afternoon and Miss Helen Higgins, the attractive bride-elect of Frederick De Noff, will be honor guest at a bridge party given by Miss Louise Boyd. Friday Mrs. Charles T. Whitney will entertain with a luncheon at the Waverly club for Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Frank E. Hart has bidden guests for luncheon the same afternoon to her attractive home on Riverside drive, in compliment to Mrs. J. B. Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Randon R. Mason Jr. (Kitty MacMaster) are being showered with all the pretty expressions of congratulation since the arrival last Sunday of a baby son, who is to be named Landon Randolph Mason III.

Mrs. L. Allen Lewis left last Wednesday for Elk creek, where she will visit at the Lewis summer home for a week or 10 days. Mrs. Gordon Voorhies and her little daughter, Lucretia, will leave the end of the week for Gearhart, to visit Mrs. Oscar Menefee, who will be in charge of her attractive summer cottage at Gearhart Park, where they will stay for a week, and then they will visit Mrs. James Honeyman. Captain Voorhies will join them for the week end.

Miss Alice Carey, who was with the J. G. Gaults at Tillamook beach, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alvord were also in the party. Miss Beatrice Nickel of San Francisco, who is the house guest of the Misses Carey, passed the week end with Mrs. David T. Honeyman at Gearhart.

Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooks's sister, Miss Harriet Pomeroy of San Francisco, who has been visiting her for several weeks, is now in Seattle with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver O. Clark of Los Angeles arrived today at the Hotel Multnomah, where they will be guests for several days. They are en route for a visit in British Columbia.

Congratulations Received. Congratulations are finding their way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Gruetter (Louise Gleason), who are rejoicing over the arrival Sunday afternoon of a baby boy. The child to be named for his grandfather, lately deceased, James Gleason Gruetter.

Birthday Pleasant Event. In celebration of her twelfth birthday Miss Olivia Lipshutz, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Lipshutz, was given a delightful party yesterday afternoon, when a number of her girl friends enjoyed a social afternoon with her from 2 until 5 o'clock. Games and music, with an elaborate luncheon, made up a delightful party. An interesting event was the presentation of a ring by her mother to Miss Olivia which is over years old. It was given by her grandmother as a family keepsake on her twelfth birthday and to her mother in turn. The ring is a quaint antique of hand wrought design, with garnet setting.

Yacht Club Dance. At the Oregon Yacht club this evening the S. D. O. R. club will hold a midsummer shirtwaist dance. The patronesses for the event are: Mrs. W. Doyle, Mrs. C. Spencer and Mrs. O. F. Olsen. The committee in charge consists of Miss Gordon Spencer, Miss Hazel Doyle, Miss Olsen and Willis Doyle.

Kansas Society Host Social. The Kansas Jayhawk society of Oregon meets tomorrow night in Manchester hall, Fifth and Oak streets. A box social will be a feature of the meeting, and a play by members of the society's dramatic club will be given. Also vocal solos by Miss E. Naugle, soprano, and J. O. Leake, baritone. The Kansas society, while only organized last September, now is the second largest state society in Portland, and with the steadily increasing membership expects to shortly compete for first place.

Tillamook House Party. Mrs. Lofting and son Frederick were hosts at a delightful house party in their cottage at Marony's Town, on Tillamook Beach, the past week. The guests were Misses Doris Amery, Grace Clark, Mrs. Murphy and daughter Katherine, Misses Bratthwaite, Mrs. Lippert, Mrs. Banks and daughter Emmeline, Captain Maroney, Lester Maroney, Kenneth Banks and Harry Shank. Many delightful evenings were spent around the bonfire, where refreshments were served. Hikes, picnics and other gaieties were enjoyed.

Society Notes. Miss Florence Streiff and Elmer Young of Portland were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Anderson at their cottage at Oswego Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Towle and family returned to their summer camp on the grounds of the W. F. Honey resident at Gresham yesterday from an automobile trip to Shaw, Or., where the visited relatives.

Mrs. C. L. Gilham, Mrs. C. S. Unna and A. J. Unna are spending their vacation in Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hunter, Miss Dora Hunter and Miss Marie Freeman are spending two weeks at Rockaway beach.

Mrs. Frederick A. Behrends is enjoying an extended trip in Alaska, where she is visiting friends.

Miss Martha Chapin has been a Tacoma visitor, the house guest of Mrs. Addison G. Foster. She left last week for a visit with friends in the mountains near Metzler's.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Patton are visiting Mrs. Patton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George White, in Tacoma.

Mrs. G. W. Dickson has returned home after visiting friends in Walla Walla.

Mrs. W. J. Preston of Walla Walla has returned home, after visiting friends in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank S. Smith of Seattle have as their house guest Miss Nelle Bayley of Portland.

Mrs. Arthur D. Jones is passing a few weeks in Seattle, the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Stillwell.

Wabash Securities Authorized. St. Louis, July 21.—Federal Judge Adams has authorized Receiver Pryor of the Wabash to issue $16,000,000 in receiver's certificates.

Pouring Concrete at Eugene. Eugene, Or., July 21.—Excavations for Eugene's new $110,000 high school are nearly finished and the work of pouring the concrete for the basement walls has begun. The contract for the superstructure will be let July 29. Several Portland men and at least four Eugene men, besides one at Roseburg, will bid on the structure.

Forgotten But Not Gone. Chicago, July 21.—The seventh annual Congress of American Esperantists opened yesterday.

Auto Party Thrown Out; Only Scratches. La Grande, Or., July 21.—To be assaulted in an automobile to the pavement of Fourth street without serious mishap was the experience of a party of five last evening.

Months I was unable to get my coat on without assistance. Every step increased the pain in my knee, so that I was able to go about but very little. Then I used Akoz as directed, and in two weeks I was free from pain and as supple as a boy.

"I hope the multitude of rheumatic sufferers will use Akoz with as satisfactory results as I did."

Thus it is with hundreds of persons in this vicinity who are suffering from rheumatism, stomach, kidney, liver and bladder trouble, sciatica, catarrh, piles, ulcers and other ailments. Akoz is nature's own remedy, and is giving relief in case after case that the doctors pronounce incurable.

Akoz is sold at leading drug stores. (Adv.)

THEATRICAL NEWS

Actor Wins Distinction of Being Voted Handsomest American.

Contest Country-Wide. To be called "the handsomest American" is something, but to have been voted that by thousands of fellow Americans is a great deal more.

Francis X. Bushman, who will be in Portland this week, is Mr. Bushman won his title through a recent contest held by the Ladies' World in connection with its serial, "One Wonderful Night."

As soon as the winner was announced the Essanay Motion Picture company began filming the story with Mr. Bushman playing the lead. Truly the old era of matinee idols is passing when a man becomes such through his pictures alone and when he is worshipped as such on the screen by matinee girls from one end of the country to the other.

In a remarkably short time from the date of Mr. Bushman's being announced the handsomest and most typical American, the film story has been completed and the great advantage of the present day screen matinee idol over the old stage matinee idol allows Mr. Bushman to be seen simultaneously in many cities by those who had a share in giving him his new title.
