When You Go Away Have The Journal sent to your Summer address.

Escapes From Conspirators.—Florence Gray, the beautiful heiress who was captured some time ago by a number of Russian conspirators...

No Fires Will Be Permitted.—Owing to the large number of brush and grass fires in the last few days started from bonfires at the Mt. Rainier fire department...

Hotel Lenox, Third and Main.—A quiet, convenient home at suburban prices. Rooms $4 per week, $15 per month and up. Excellent service. (Adv.)

Speakers at Camp Meeting.—A great day at the camp of the Oregon Home-owners' association is arranged for tomorrow. At 10 a. m. Mrs. O. B. Ong will preach on the white slave traffic from actual observation, and will

(all of some of the things she has come in contact with in her work in some of the California cities. Rev. Charles Stalker, Quaker evangelist, missionary, traveler and author, will be in charge of the camp. The camp is at East Thirty-third and Mason streets, on the Broadway line.

Had a Few Cents in Pocket.—When the sailors in the police station last evening searched Fred Wilson, who applied for lodging, they found 65 cents in his pocket. Wilson had informed the officers he was without funds and a place to sleep. To the jailors he later admitted spending 50 cents for liquor an hour before applying for free lodging. A charge of drunk and vagrancy was placed against him. The municipal judge this morning suspended sentence.

Many Auto Drivers Fined.—Four speeders and five traffic violators were arrested yesterday. They were before the municipal court this morning. The speeders are J. J. Setzer, Albert Getz, Lin Beicher and C. J. Hubbard. The fine imposed in each case was $10. The traffic violators were for turning the corner too sharply, and the men are Warner Fitzgerald, W. Margulis, L. C. Sheldon, C. R. Howard and S. C. Rasmussen. A fine of $2 was imposed in each case.

Streetscar Company is Defendant.—Harry Davis, 18 years old, yesterday filed suit through his guardian, W. S. Davis, against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company for $750 damages, alleging that he suffered two broken ribs and other injuries when thrown from his automobile by a collision between the machine and a streetcar. The charges that the car was speeding when it struck his machine at East Thirty-first and Hawthorne avenue.

Judgment is Reversed.—On an appeal from the district court, G. W. Holcomb yesterday secured a reversal of the $100 judgment awarded to Carl Lehto for damages to his automobile, alleging that he was riding along on his motorcycle at East Thirteenth and Hawthorne avenue July 5, 1913. Circuit Judge Gatens, who heard the appeal, said he could find no evidence that the dog was vicious, as alleged.

Neighbors Will Not Speak.—Upon complaint of Mrs. Hattie McDonald, 4202 Sixty-fourth street, Mrs. Millie Hirscheimer, a neighbor, was before Municipal Judge Stevenson this morning for using abusive language toward the complaining witness. She denied the accusation, but proposed to the court that she would never speak to Mrs. McDonald, if the latter does not start a conversation. The judge accepted the offer.

Given Ninety Days on Rockpile.—Edward Biny, 21 years old, was given 90 days on the rockpile this morning on a charge of stealing a motorcycle from Arthur Baxter of 450 Belmont street. Testimony showed that Biny went to the Baxter home Saturday, told Mrs. Baxter he was sent to get the machine, and rode away. Detectives Smith and Grism found the machine yesterday.

Guardian Brings Suit.—Ralph Blaisdell, auditor of the O.-W.-R. & N. company, was yesterday sued for $10,000 damages by Sam Getelph, an 8-year-old newsboy, through his guardian and sister, Anna Tobin, as the result of an accident on Fifth street, between Washington and Alder streets, July 11. The complaint alleges that Blaisdell ran the boy down and seriously injured him.

Indiana Society Picnic.—The Indiana Society of Oregon will give a picnic in Seneca park, Albina avenue and Almsworth street, Saturday afternoon July 25. Instead of holding its regular monthly meeting, a basket dinner furnished by the members will be served at 5 p. m. All Hostesses and their friends are invited to come with well filled baskets.

Jaywhores Will Give Play.—At the regular meeting of the Kappa Kappa Kappa to be held tonight in Manchester hall, 85 1/2 Fifth street, the members will put on "Dr. Curell," a comedy in two acts. The question of entering the "Federation of State Societies" will also be discussed. Admission free to all former Kansans and their families.

Husband Alleges Desertion.—Alleging desertion and cruelty, Marie A. Garrett yesterday filed suit for divorce against William H. Garrett. The Garretts were married at Salt Lake city, Utah, September 30, 1912, and Mr. Garrett charges him with leaving her while they were living at 880 East Burnside street, April 15, 1913.

Prohibition Debate Tonight.—The prohibition question will be debated tonight under the auspices of the Bonville association. Clifford S. Wilson will speak in favor of prohibition and Paul Turner against it. The meeting, which is free to the public, will begin at 8 o'clock in room A, Central library.

Wife Sues for Divorce.—Bertha L. Ogden yesterday sued Charles H. Ogden for divorce, alleging drunkenness and cruelty. The Ogden was filed in the municipal court yesterday afternoon. She alleged that she was suffering from nervous prostration as a result of his treatment. The Ogden is a resident of Portland.
