San Francisco, Cal., July 23 .- Manager McCredie started Elmer Martinoni yesterday, and when Marty was finally relieved by a pinchhitter Portland's lead was overcome and the Beavers were knocked out of first place by a point by Venice, which has taken two games from the Oaks. The score was to 3. Hi West relieved Martinoni at the start of the seventh, but as the battle was already won, West just breezed along. The standing between Portland,

Venice and Los Angeles, reduced to the little figures, is as follows:

The Seals tied it, when Fitzgerald, first man up, got a home run, when Lober misjudged the ball and it bounded into the left field bleachers.

With two out in the third, Bancroft singled and Derrick came through with his homer, the ball going between right and center and Derrick sprinting like a Howard Drew. These were the last tallies the Beavers could gather.

The big blowoff came in the sixth inning. Cartwright doubled to left center with one out and took third on wild pitch. Schaller walked and Downs tripled to right, scoring two. Downs scored when Rodgers made

Osborne was in good shape, and held the Braves down at all points of the game. He had stellar support in the field. Mc-Quary pitched a good game for the visitors, but his support at times was exceedingly poor, and in every instance meant a tally for the Bucks. Considerable wrangling developed in the fifth inning, and threatened to turn the game into a farce, but after that frame both teams played good ball, and the Bucks were enabled only to get in a single run which came in the seventh. William Wallace—Scotland's Great Patriot

OR nearly seven hundred years the sons and daughters of Scotland have revered the memory of Wallace. It is not too much to say that this will continue for seventy times seven hundred years. When but a youth the love of Personal and National Liberty burned so fiercely in the breast of Wallace that he revolted against England's tyrannous rule. At the head of his gallant band of riders he won skirmish after skirmish, and finally, at the opportune time, quickly organized an army and routed the English at Stirling Bridge. William Wallace admired a good Barley-Malt brew just as do the Scotchmen of to-day. Prohibition has ever been a detestable word to the Scotch people. They will not have it enter into their private lives, and the Scotch vote is always registered by a large majority against such sumptuary legislation. In America they have done much to build up the country. Thousands of our solid Scotch citizens are patrons of the honest brews of Anheuser-Busch and have been constant users of BUDWEISER. They have helped to make the annual sales of this world-famed brand exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles. ANHEUSER-BUSCH . ST. LOUIS, U.S.A.
