

WAVERLY WHITES WIN FROM VANCOUVER BY JUST ONE HALF GOAL

Clever Work of Harry Robertson Puts Ball Out of Danger at End.

CLAFLIN PLAYS FINE GAME

Games Between Two Clubs Are Evened by Victory, But Tie Will Not Be Played Off Now.

The Waverly Country club Whites defeated the Vancouver B. C. Polo club yesterday and evened up the count, although the score was a mighty close one, but half a point separating the two teams.

With the ball close to the Portland goal near the end, Robertson managed to get it away from Chaplin and shot it down the field and out of danger.

The lineup: Pos. Waverly Vancouver. No. 1, C. Weatherwax. W. Van Roon. Dr. G. S. Whiteside.

Wardens to Tour Eastern Oregon

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., July 28.—Game Warden Evans, Commissioner Duncanson and Deputy Game Warden Bremer are on their way to The Dalles, where on July 29 they will depart on an auto trip to Bend, Canyon City, Burns, Klamath Falls, Medford, Grants Pass and Eugene, planning to be back in Salem by August 12.

This extended trip will be for the purpose of getting acquainted with those who believe in game protection, including members of rod and gun clubs, with a view of increasing the efficiency of the department. It will be the first trip taken by Mr. Evans from The Dalles to Klamath Falls since he assumed office. By traveling in an auto he will be able to reach places which it would be impossible to visit in any other way in a reasonable length of time.

Warden Evans has already covered the section west of the mountains thoroughly, and is well posted on the game situation there.

SIXTH ROUND IS FINISHED

Mannheim, July 28.—The sixth round of the international chess tournament was finished yesterday and shows Spielmann leading with five games. The scores are: Spielmann 5, Alchinnikoff 4, Vidmar 4, Bogjubow and Retl, each 4; Janowski, Marshall and Tarrasch, each 3 1/2.

Yesterday Bogjubow, Breyer, Tartakower, Hahn, Johann and Janowski defeated Carls, Flaming, Post, Duras, Tartakower and Alchinnikoff, respectively. Drawn games were recorded between Mieses and Krueger, Vidmar and Marshall, and Retl and Spielmann.

THIRD PARTY IN RING ON FRIDAY WILL BE IRWIN

Betting Opens With Chip Big Favorite Over Sailor Petroskey.

San Francisco, July 28.—Toby Irwin will referee Friday evening's 29 round contest here between George Chip and Sailor Ed Petroskey.

Announcement to this effect was made here today by Louis Parente, matchmaker of the Tuxedo club and also manager of Petroskey.

"You may safely say," said Parente today, "that Irwin, the regular club referee, will be the third man in the ring. I have not yet discussed the matter with Jimmy Dime, Chip's manager, but I do not think any objection will be made to Irwin. I shall see Dime some time today and talk over the matter with him."

Betting on the contest opened today at 2 to 1 with Chip on the long end. This fact, however, failed to discourage either Parente or Petroskey.

"We expected Chip to be a top-heavy favorite," said Parente, "because of his knockout of Ed in Los Angeles. But the Los Angeles scrap should be thrown out. Petroskey was visibly weakened by weight making and was nowhere near himself. This time he is going to be strong as an ox and there will be a different story."

Both fighters went through a strenuous program at their respective camps yesterday. Petroskey stepped through nine rounds of boxing and at the end of the day's work weighed 162 1/2 pounds. Chip boxed three rounds against Joe Chip and Tom McMahon and also fought three rounds with Dime's heavy punching bag.

Clifford Weatherwax and Dr. George Whiteside, who alternated at No. 1 of the White team, played brilliantly and there was little to choose between their exhibition. Victor Johnson played perhaps the best game that he has put up this season, and Harry Corbett added much to the strength of the Portland team.

With the ball close to the Portland goal near the end, Robertson managed to get it away from Chaplin and shot it down the field and out of danger.

The whistle blew the end of the game during its flight.

A third game will not be played at this time.

The lineup: Pos. Waverly Vancouver. No. 1, C. Weatherwax. W. Van Roon. Dr. G. S. Whiteside.

K. J. Grosvenor, No. 2, Victor Johnson. H. S. Chaplin, L. Corbett. Harry Robertson. J. G. Fordham. Back Harry Robertson. Referee, Major Colin G. Ross; time-keeper, K. G. Snowden; timekeeper, Hugh Hume.

The summary: First Period. Goal Made by Team. Time. 1—Robertson, Waverly. 5:59

Second Period. 2—Chaplin, Vancouver. 6:00

Fourth Period. 3—Corbett, Waverly. 6:00

Fifth Period. 6—Whiteside, Waverly. 2:00

Sixth Period. 7—Johnston, Waverly. 6:30

Seventh Period. 8—Johnston, Waverly. 2:00

Eighth Period. 9—Chaplin, Vancouver. 1:30

Total gross score—Waverly, Vancouver 4. Penalties against Waverly: First period, foul by Weatherwax, foul by Robertson; fifth period, foul by Whiteside. Total net score—Waverly 4 1/2, Vancouver 4.

M'LOUGHLIN AND LIN MURRAY MEET TODAY IN LONGWOOD FINALS

National Champion Beats Williams and Stanford Man Ousts Johnson of Phila.

TENNIS BOWL STAYS HERE

Veteran Easterners Beat Young Californians in Tennis Doubles; Davis Cup Players Get Practice.

Boston, Mass., July 28.—Maurice McLoughlin, national champion, and R. Lindley Murray, the Stanford star who has been startling the eastern tennis set with his brilliant play, were winners yesterday, the former beating R. Norris Williams and the latter Wallace P. Johnson of Philadelphia.

The victory of the two Californians in the semi-finals means that the Longwood bowl will remain on the coast for another year, William Johnson, former Oregon champion, having won it last year.

McLoughlin and Murray will meet in the finals match today, the champion being a strong favorite over the younger player. The winner plays Johnston tomorrow.

Williams played a remarkable game against McLoughlin, and his terrific service was handled better than any other American player has been able to handle it. The score was 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

Hackett and Alexander succeeded in defeating Murray and Potrell in the doubles, although it took four sets for the experienced players to defeat the youngsters from California. They will meet Behr and Pell today for the championship, the winners to meet the doubles teams from various sections of the country at Chicago next month.

McLoughlin and Bundy played a two-set practice match with Mavrogordato and Kingscott of the British Davis Cup team.
