

Social and Personal

FOURTEEN couples of the younger set will enjoy the hospitality of Miss Margaret Voorhies, a charming debutante of this summer, at a dancing party this evening at the Waverly Country club. Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols will chaperone the party.

Miss Ayer to Wed. At a pretty though informal tea this afternoon given by Mrs. Le Roy Fields (Judith Scott) the engagement was made known of Miss Isabel Ayer, of White Salmon, to Elton Musick, of Pasadena, Cal. Miss Ayer is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ted Ludland, at the latter's attractive home in Laurelhurst and they plan to leave together Friday for Pasadena, the wedding to take place August 6.

Mrs. Fields had about 50 guests for tea including the younger matrons and maids. The house was a floral bower of pretty garden flowers arranged in artistic clusters. Miss Ayer's engagement came as a great surprise. She is a clever girl and has hosts of friends in Portland, where she formerly lived. She is the daughter of Mrs. Alexander G. Ogilvie, Mr. Musick is the son of Henry L. Musick, of Pasadena, of an old and prominent family. The wedding will be a simple home affair, at the residence of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Boyce Charming Hostess. Mrs. Edward Boyce was a charming hostess yesterday afternoon at a luncheon of 12 covers at the Portland hotel. The affair was planned for the pleasure of Mrs. Raymond McCarthy. The luncheon table was lovely with its clusters of pink sweet peas and white baby-breath. Covers were laid for Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Coe A. McKenna, Mrs. Walter Gehring, Mrs. T. Morris Dunne, Mrs. Irving R. Stearns, Mrs. James Ambrose, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Katherine Hunt, Miss Helen Baldwin of Denver, Miss Mayme Helen Flynn and the hostess.

Returned From Abroad. Mrs. J. J. Jennings and her two attractive daughters, the Misses Florence and Violet, have returned home, after passing a year in travel abroad. Both the Misses Jennings are unusually gifted and clever girls, and they passed a profitable year in study as well as travel. Miss Violet working in her art and Miss Florence in her music. Their return home will doubtless be the signal for many affairs of welcome to them among their hosts of friends.

Dancing Party for Miss Riley and Miss Shea. Mrs. Winthrop Terry will preside this evening at a delightfully informal dancing party at her Piedmont home in Haight street, complimenting her niece and house guest, Miss Bernice Riley of Chicago, and Miss Ida Shea, whose engagement to Eugene Bland was announced yesterday. There will be 15 couples present.

At Peninsula Park. The railway mail clerks of the Portland district, with their wives, families and friends, will picnic at Peninsula park Thursday, the 30th. This is their third annual gathering of this nature. Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock.

New Arrival. Felicitations are finding their way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Riffle over the birth of a daughter Friday, July 24. The little one has been named Jesselyn Claire.

Guests From the East. Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Jernander of Savannah, Ill., are the guests of Mrs. Jernander's mother, Mrs. E. M. Masterson, of East Seventy-fourth street, Gregory Heights. They will visit many interesting points along the coast before returning east.

Miss Joslyn Weds at Newport. Miss Melba Joslyn, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlin D. Joslyn of this city, and Leo M. Meeker of Hubbard, Or., were married at Newport, Or., on the evening of July 27. The only guests present at the wedding were the members of the immediate ter feeling and evidence of an upward tendency throughout the lumber industry of Oregon and Washington as well. The St. Mary's district authorized the employment there of an additional Y. M. C. A. secretary.

Life Has Been Exciting. Commodore Robert G. Denis, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Denis of Sandusky, Ohio, are guests at the Benson. The commodore is one of the survivors of the wreck of the Huron off the coast of North Carolina, November 24, 1877, and was present at the election of Kalakaua as king in Honolulu. He has seen exciting service in all parts of the world.

Mrs. Sarah Hinds Wilder of Portland is recuperating from the effects of an operation at Worcester, Mass., according to word from that city yesterday. Mrs. Wilder made the long trip to Worcester especially for the operation.

A. R. Tiffany, registrar of the University of Oregon, is a guest at the Multnomah. Mr. D. Moreland, a lumberman of Tacoma, is at the Imperial.

B. A. Millak of Lebanon is registered at the Cornhusk. Milton A. Olson, a merchant of North Powder, is a guest at the Oregon.

Dr. J. W. Donnelly of Condon is at the Cornhusk. L. R. Mullt of Medford is at the Imperial. Mr. Mullt, who is a national bank examiner, is accompanied by Mrs. Mullt.

E. B. Geisel, representing the Anheuser-Busch company, is a guest at the Multnomah. John Huntington left today for Osage, Iowa, to visit his daughter and grandchildren, stopping off to visit a brother in North Dakota and one in Minnesota. He expects to be gone three months, returning through Colorado to visit a sister near Grand Junction. Mrs. Huntington will accompany him as far as Pasco and North Yakima, Wash., to visit her father and sisters.

L. R. Matthews, business man of The Dalles, is registered at the Oregon. C. A. McCarger and wife of Mosier are at the Multnomah. Mr. McCarger is a fruitgrower.

Roy C. Brook of Hood River is a guest at the Oregon. F. H. Haradon, Astoria attorney, is at the Imperial.

D. W. Crosby of Riddle is stopping at the Multnomah. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Blauvelt of Baker are stopping at the Multnomah. E. M. Ragan, Portland representative of Montgomery, Ward & Co., entered the city.

parents feared concussion of the brain and called Dr. B. H. Sheldon. No serious injuries resulted. Forest Fire Near Lapine. Lapine, Or., July 29.—A forest fire of gigantic proportions is raging in the pines four miles east of here. Experienced fire fighters from the surrounding ranger stations are being rushed to the scene. Forest Supervisor Merritt of Bend is in charge. J. H. Hamer of the Central Oregon Fire Patrol association is also here. Volunteers have been called for. The fire is in privately owned timber, presumably held by the Weyerhaeuser interests. "New Cook, Mary?" "No, but a new 'hotcake' flour—one of Albers', too." Albers' Flapjack Flour—and aren't the cakes delicious? Never too warm for these fine hot cakes. All the "heaviness" removed. Nutritious and easily digested. Ask your grocer for Albers' Flapjack

A home without Fels-Naptha Soap is like a stew without seasoning—it lacks something.

If you are tired out and things go wrong and irritate you, you won't be a pleasant mother or wife, will you? And you can't enjoy your home nor your children nor your husband, can you?

If you are a Fels-Naptha Soap woman, you will know how pleasant and easy it is to do your work with a soap that saves you more than half the time and drudgery of washing, scrubbing and housecleaning. Use Fels-Naptha Soap in cool or lukewarm water and see for yourself what a blessing it is.

Anty Drudge Gives Good Advice Mrs. Newife—"Oh, I am so discouraged and angry! I can't learn to keep house and I'm not going to try any more! Saturday I was ordering my marketing, and when I asked for a ham, the grocer asked me if I wanted a cured ham, and I said I'd rather have one that hadn't been sick, and then everybody laughed, and I was so embarrassed that I came out of the store without getting my soap, and here it is washday and I have to take time to go for some. I'll never get through!" Anty Drudge—"Yes, you will, too. You get a cake of Fels-Naptha Soap and show that man at the store that you do know something, after all. Everybody that knows anything about housekeeping has Fels-Naptha Soap in the house all the time."

Follow the directions on the Red and Green Wrapper. Better buy Fels-Naptha by the carton or box. Fels & Co., Philadelphia
