

Oregon Daily Journal

COMIC - SECTION

PORTLAND, OREGON, SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 15, 1914

DOLLY DIMPLE HAS NO TIME FOR MR. PUNCH'S HUMOR

"Some lively fun," says Dot, "would help."
"At fun," a voice bawls, "I'm a whelp!"

And out jumps Punch. "A showman old
Am I," he cries. "My fun behold!"

He starts a lively rub-a-dub
On heads all 'round him with his club.

And all retort with wrath and riot.
For goodness' sake," cries Dot, "be quiet!"

Punch growls, "You said you wanted fun!"
"I did," says Dot, "not murder done."

"I see no mirth nor common sense
In fun at other folk's expense."