Fire Incendiarism

Warden in Jackson County Finds Burning Candles Surrounded by Faper;

Twelve Fires Burning. Medford, Or., Aug. 15 .- There are 12 forest fires burning in different parts of Jackson county. The most serious fire is in the little Applegate district. According to the last report received in the city 30 acres of timber have been burned and the flames menace several homesteads. The Jackson county fire patrol association has 20 men fighting the blaze. The lack of wind to fan the flames is giving the crew time to concentrate its work back firing and the fire is expected to has be under control soon.

Two small fires are burning in Humbug creek, three in Gall creek, five in Grave creek vicinity and a brush fire near Gold Hill. Yesterday afternoon d Up Couch No. 1 from the Gall creek fires, he discov-ered two burning candles surrounded by a bunch of paper. A search is be-ing made for the guilty persons.
