formed on the Columbia River highway, and that he at once turned $2500 over to his brother, Clyde Battersby, to pay a personal debt due the brother. The brother is named in the suit, as it is alleged he knew the money belonged to the company when he received it.

Four Divorce Suits Filed.—Suits for divorce were filed this morning by Ethel G. Cooley against S. J. Cooley, an ex-captain for the Northern Pacific Terminal company. Cruelty is alleged. Mrs. Cooley asks for custody of their two children and $55 a month for the support of the children. They were married March 17, 1902. Minnie Thim has sued George Thim for divorce on grounds of cruelty. They were married May 5, 1909. Grace Peterson sued Peter H. Peterson for divorce for cruelty. She asks the return of her former name, Mrs. Grace Copeland.

Estate Estimated at $5000.—A boat-house located at the foot of Morrison street, three launches, nine canoes and other property are listed among the assets of the estate of G. W. Merrill, who died July 23 at the age of 84 years. The entire estate will approximate $5000, according to the petition of Miss Clara E. Merrill, a daughter, for appointment as executrix in accordance with the will. Mr. Merrill left a daughter, Mrs. Alice M. Rhoades, $1000 to a son, Gustavos G. Merrill, and the residue is to be divided among the four children other than Mrs. Rhoades.

Boys Leave for Clackamas.—More than 150 boys under the leadership of J. Leo Thompson, Portland's play-acting director, left here yesterday afternoon for Clackamas. They will take part in rehearsals for the next playground pageant scheduled for next Saturday afternoon at Col. Joseph Copeland and J. W. Copeland of Portland, L. A. Copeland of Meriden, Idaho, and W. J. McCready of Forest Grove, Or. Joseph Copeland is president; L. A. Copeland, vice president; W. J. McCready, secretary, and J. W. Copeland, treasurer. The liabilities of the company are limited to $50,000.

Association Files Articles.—With the purpose in view of encouraging home manufacturing and consumption of local goods, the Manufacturers' association of Portland has been incorporated, and articles of incorporation were filed with County Clerk Coffey this morning. David M. Dunne, A. J. Kingsley, A. E. Gantzenberg and R. W. Raymond are the incorporators. The association reserves the right to bring actions before the Interstate commerce commission to secure equitable freight rates for goods of local manufacture.

Business Men Enjoy Picnic.—"One of the best trips yet" is the verdict given by the 120 members of the Progressive Business Men's club, who took a trip to Astoria Sunday on the new steamer Georgiana. They had there was something doing all the time. Several editions of a steamer newspaper were published. A late start, owing to an accident to the steamer's propeller, when it came up the Columbia Saturday night, caused Captain L. P. Hosford to abandon the intended run to Port Canby.

Lumber Company Incorporates.—Articles of incorporation of the Copeland Lumber company, capitalized at $100,000, were filed this morning by Joseph Copeland and J. W. Copeland of Portland, L. A. Copeland of Meriden, Idaho, and W. J. McCready of Forest Grove, Or. Joseph Copeland is president; L. A. Copeland, vice president; W. J. McCready, secretary, and J. W. Copeland, treasurer. The liabilities of the company are limited to $50,000.

Rates Being Adjusted.—Rates for the various events of the northwest that have not previously been decided upon probably will be adjusted today at a meeting of the North Pacific Coast Passenger association, which is in session at Aberdeen, Wash. Those attending from Portland are: A. D. Charlot, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific; A. C. Martin, assistant general passenger agent of the O.-W. R. & N., and J. A. Ormandy of the Southern Pacific.

W. E. Galvani Will Speak.—"War Is Hell—We're For Peace," reads the announcement of the Ad club luncheon in the Hotel Portland tomorrow. W. H. Galvani will talk on "The Causes and Consequences of the Present European War." Charles W. Robinson will serve as chairman of the day and discuss the subject, "War Is Hell." It will be ladies' day at the club.

Burglars Make Escape.—Burglars operated in the home of E. K. Griffin, 335 Nineteenth street, last evening, when Ellis Manning returned. As he entered the front door the burglar, who had entered through the rear door, ran across two vacant lots and made their escape. Two small pieces of jewelry were stolen. The Griffin family was not at home.

Will Be Prosecuted Here.—Detective Captain Baty left last evening for Los Angeles to return E. H. Carpenter and a woman known as "June the Blonde" to Portland for passing bad checks. The California bankers have the right to prosecute the couple in that state, thereby turning them over to the Oregon bankers.

MAYOR OF LEBANON WAS GERMAN NATIVE

Albert E. Zeising.

Lebanon, Or., Aug. 18.—Albert E. Zeising, mayor of this city, who died Thursday, was buried Saturday in the Masonic cemetery. The funeral was largely attended. Business houses were all closed from 2 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Zeising was born in Berlin, Germany, in September, 1859, and came to America in 1878, and to Oregon in 1900. He was elected mayor last December.

Mother to Consult Protective Bureau

Court Decrees That Mrs. Green Must Seek Advice Before Enticing Child—treatment on daughter hereafter. Once each week, Mrs. Benjamin Green, 213 East Seventy-seventh street, must report with her 7-year-old daughter to the Woman's Protective bureau for advice regarding the correction of the child. This was the order yesterday afternoon of Acting Judge Haney in the morals branch of the municipal court, and is the first step toward municipal direction of parental control.

Acting Judge Haney concluded that the mother needed advice in handling the child, and as well that the child needed punishment. Each week, said the judge, Mrs. Green and daughter must report to the bureau for consultation. If whipping is needed it will be given under instructions.
