

Little Stories for Bedtime

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Jimmy and Unc' Billy Tell Different Stories.

The little people of the Green Meadows and the Green Forest didn't know what to believe. First came Peter Rabbit with the straightest kind of a story about being chased by a terrible creature without legs, head or tail. He said that it had come down the hill where Prickly Porky the Porcupine lived in the Green Forest. Jimmy Skunk, who, you know, is not afraid of anybody or anything, had been sent to call on Prickly Porky and ask him if he had seen any strange creature such as Peter Rabbit had told about. He had said that he hadn't seen any stranger in that part of the Green Forest, and Jimmy had straightway returned to the Green Meadows and told all of his friends there that Peter Rabbit must have had something the matter with his eyes or else was crazy, for Prickly Porky hadn't been away from home and yet had seen nothing unusual.

"Yo' don't dare go there yourself at daybreak tomorrow!" retorted Unc' Billy.

At the same time Unc' Billy Possum was going about in the Green Forest telling everybody who met that he had called on Prickly Porky and that Prickly Porky had told him that Peter Rabbit undoubtedly had seen something strange. Of course Jimmy Skunk's story soon spread through the Green Forest and Unc' Billy Possum's story soon spread over the Green Meadows, and so nobody knew what to believe, or think. If Jimmy Skunk was right, why, Peter Rabbit's queer story wasn't to be believed at all. If Unc' Billy was right, why, Peter's story wasn't to be believed at all. Of course all this aroused a great deal of talk and curiosity, and those who had the most courage began to write to the Green Meadows and Prickly Porky lives to see if they could see for themselves anything out of the usual. But they always found that part of the Green Forest just as usual as anywhere. If they saw Prickly Porky at all, he seemed to be fast asleep, and no one liked to wake him to ask questions. Little by little they began to think that Peter Rabbit's terrible creature existed only in Peter's imagination. About this time Unc' Billy Possum told of having just such an experience as Peter had. It happened just as it did with Peter, very early in the morning, just as he was passing the foot of the hill where Prickly Porky lives.

"Ah was just passing along, minding my own business, when Ah heard a noise up on the hill behind me," said Unc' Billy, "and when Ah looked up leigh is featured as the worker among the poor. The picture has not been produced with all of the careful attention to detail that generally marks the Famous Players output. A funny Ford Stearns suicide comedy, "At Three O'Clock," and a Gaumont industrial complete the bill.

"The Jungle" in Films.

Upton Sinclair's powerful story of labor and capital, "The Jungle," is the all-star feature production that is being shown at the Majestic this first half of this week. A splendid cast of types headed by George Nash as Juris, and Gail Kane as Ona, portray the story which is given to the screen throbbing with the mighty issues that form its framework. Not the least interesting member of the cast is the author himself, who assisted in the making of the picture and who appears addressing a Socialist meeting. A number of stockyard scenes are shown, all of the settings have been carefully chosen and the photography is excellent. For comedy the bill offers a Vitagraph, "Officer Kate," with funny fat Kate Price as a woman police officer.

FOREIGN FASHIONS FOR AMERICANS

Fur and embroidery add a note of charm to this taffeta frock.

By Lillian E. Young.

There is something irresistible about an ivory white taffeta—maybe the velvety mauve shadows in its folds and the glinting silvery high lights make it so—at any rate, a great many of the most bewitching frocks and gowns of the season are made of it, and it is considered one of the smartest fabrics of the moment.

Just the mention of ivory taffeta and white chiffon, with touches of jade emerald and dark fur, sounds tempting.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Moose Picnic Was One Hilarious Round of Enjoyment for All.

Sporting Events "Dazzled."

The Moose picnic at Bull Run Sunday was one of the biggest of the season. Fully 150 people were present. Eight cars were lined up at the start and many went in autos. The original stunts are too many to mention. One was when 200 prize seekers were induced to pull strings and thereby secure themselves with many buckets of water. Seneca Fouts was "orator of the day" for this popular occasion, and the list of prizes he read off were such as to dazzle the imagination.

For weeks the Junior Moose has been practicing baseball in hopes of beating the seniors. Captain Joe Keller was made umpire, and Dr. Banner Brooks was captain of the seniors. The ball was a soft rubber sphere of about three times normal size, the bats handed out were small brooms and the fun began. The third base was made first base and the umpire declared everybody "safe."

Finally, surrounded by an "infuriated" band of players, Captain Keller drew his guns and began firing "dropping" a man at every shot and tripping. The score was 87 to 87 and declared a draw.

The gathering of "sporting events," games, racing, etc., was one successful of jokes, the like of which had never been seen before. Dr. Banner Brooks is accused of being the inventor of most of them, ably assisted by others of the entertainment committee.

McMinnville Invitation Accepted.

The Council of Administration of the Department of Oregon, G. A. R., Commander H. S. Fargo, presiding, met in the courthouse headquarters Saturday afternoon last. The principal business transacted was to accept the invitation of the McMinnville lodge of Elks, No. 1283, and citizens of McMinnville to hold the annual reunion for 1915 at that city.

The encampment will be held June 14, 15 and 16, and as the 14th will be Flag day it is expected that a well attended gathering will be the result. The council has issued an invitation to the Confederate Veterans of Oregon to help them celebrate at McMinnville. All who have not gone to Detroit before August 27 will leave on that date for the purpose of encampment of the G. A. R. at Detroit. It is not known how strong the Oregon delegation of visitors will be, but it promises to run up into the hundreds.

Supreme Instructor Returns.

Mrs. Ellar Watt, supreme instructor of the United Artisans, has returned from a vacation at Newport and vicinity and will now be found three nights in the week helping perfect the work and marches of the degree teams of Portland and vicinity.

Women Play Baseball.

Kirkpatrick council, Knights and Ladies of Security, will put on a genuine woman's baseball contest at Crystal Lake park in the afternoon as part of the program of the picnic. The two teams have practiced up and will give a game with snap to it.

Mail Too Small.

The genial secretary of the Loyal Order of Moose, R. S. Beatty, is wondering how the initiation on August 25 is to be pulled off with a hall that only holds 25 and at least 500 to be initiated. Edgar Easler, deputy supreme organizer, thinks it can be done.

VACATION DAYS—By Paul West

Phil Wigglesworth Has Got a Great Scheme for Making Our Vacation Longer.

Phil Wigglesworth has got a grate-scheme for making our vacation longer, which he says can't fail to win if smart fellows will only stick rite at it. He toiled up about it this morning, it being this:

If you keep on going west you will save time, it being only 3 o'clock there when it is 4 here, so the thing to do is keep walking & if you walk far enuff you mite gane a couple of days, which is sumthing when they are now only 2 weeks & 6 days moar or vacation.

Phil wanted everybody to drop everything & start west, that not being much time to loose, but only Lance Bogert and Bol Haynes started with him. What we say is, if it works, let them come back & tell us & we will go, too, but we doant see much use stretching a vacation out if you got to spend all the time walking, anyhow.

A Mene Trick, Say We.

Hennery Hood toald Fatty Bellows he would give him 5 cents for every quart of blackberries Fatty would pick out in Hennery's pasture, so Fatty went to work early & kep at it up to dinner time. Then he showed up & toald Hennery he had erned 85 cents, but Hennery sed, "Well, whare are the berries?" Fatty sed, "In me, I et them. If you doant believe I had that many you can talk a look at yore bushes, but give me the munny now because I want to buy some candy before dinner."

Hennery wouldnt pay Fatty a sent, which we think is mene. Fatty says if Hennery wanted him to pick the berries & save them for him, why didnt he say so? Hennery sed, "Well what did you think?" Fatty sed, "I never stop to think when I see a pasture full of berries—I just pick & etc."

Maude Pays a Few Calls.

While Missus Bogert, Lance's

muther, was calling on Missus Muldinkey, Maude's muther, Maude went in the room whare she had lade off her new bunnet & fancy calp & sunshaid & glavs & things, & put them on. Then she went out round the nigherhood calling & toal everybody they was her new things, having been brot as a present to her. Lance Bogert sean her sed they looked like his muthers, but Maude sed they probly got them from the saim male order howse, that was why they was alike, & it shode that they was stylish, anyhow.

Maude got so interested in making calls she forgot to go hoam till it was pritty lait, & then Missus Bogert was so mad she just grabbed the things & went hoam herself. Maude's muther sed, well, anyhow, she was glad Missus Bogert had got mad & went hoam as it being trunning day she didnt have a thing in the howse fit for supper.

That didnt leave Maude off anny esier though!

Farmers Are Asked To Aid Government

Effort to Be Made to Devise Simple Method of Accounting to Make Income Tax Returns.

To devise some uniform method of accounting for income from crops and other products of the farm in order to make correct returns of income, an invitation is extended to the farmers of the state to cooperate with the government simplifying the terms of the income tax law.

The Parson—Do you have family prayers at your house every morning, Tommy?

Tommy—No, sir; only at night. We ain't afraid in the daytime.

"Mamma," said little Laura, "my dollie is awfully stuck up."

"Why do you think so, dear?" asked her mother.

"'Cause she won't bend her knees, and I have to lay her on her stomach to say her prayers," was the reply.

Little Dorothy (aged three)—Turn on, grandma, supper is waddy.

Grandma—Why, dear, this isn't supper; it's breakfast.

Little Dorothy—'Es, torse sat's it, but I toodn't say it.

Beauty Hints

Formula for Shampoo

A shampoo, or hair and scalp wash to be just right should not be caustic with alkaline. We are publishing this week a formula for a shampoo that is just right when properly compounded. Wet the hair, then pour a little of the shampoo liquid into the palm of the hand; rub it into the hair and scalp until you have a rich, creamy lather; or if you are troubled with dandruff, massage the scalp with the tips of your fingers. This shampoo will not cure dandruff permanently, but it will remove it without harming the hair and scalp. Your hair and scalp should be washed at least every 10 days or two weeks. If you will use the following formula, your hair will always be soft and fluffy and your scalp clean and healthy. The formula will contain green soap, potassium carbonate, alcohol, aqua dist.

The following drug stores, one of which is selected in each locality, will accurately and carefully compound this formula, which is on file only in the drug stores represented below.

Special offerings appearing from week to week in these spaces will merit the careful attention of economical buyers.
