

BEAVERS PILE UP 13 RUNS WHILE HIGGY CYPHERS TRAILERS Three Hits, One of Which Is Gift, All That Visitors Can Gather.

RODGERS GETS FOUR HITS Ty Lober Also Comes Out of Slump and Pitches for Three Hits, Including a Home Run.

Portland had 13 to 0 revenge on the Oaks yesterday. Irve Higginbotham pitched three-hit baseball and Bill Rodgers made up for his mental paralysis of the previous afternoon by getting four hits in five times at bat.

Although Portland made 20 hits off Prough and Christian and they ranged through the calendar from singles to home runs. Higgy would have shaved another hit off the Oak list but for some loafing on the part of Lober and Doane.

The temper of the Beavers was renewed as early as the first inning, when the bombardment of Prough began. First he walked Bancroft, who scored second on a wild pitch. Derrick's out put Lober on the base and Rodgers scored him with a single. The captain scored on Rogers' double over Zacher's head.

In fact, Zacher's tongue was hanging out when the game closed and he was the hardest worked man on the field. Singularly enough in a free hitting game like that of yesterday there was a noticeable absence of errors. The only one occurred in the ninth, when Kaylor dropped Yantz' fly.

Singles by Doane, Kores and Lober in the third and doubles by Davis and Fisher, gave four runs and two tallies were put over in the fifth on Lober's home run over the right field fence, singles by Fisher, Bancroft, Derrick and Rodgers and a double steal.

Gus Hetling's double in the fifth frame was the first hit the trailers got off Higgy. Both Arbogast and Fisher were hit on the hand by foul tips and retired from the game, although the former suffered more injury. Lush replaced Derrick in order to give the latter a chance at the start, Davis going to third. The score:

PROS AND AMSS SPLIT HONORS AT BIG SHOOT O'Brien, Fisher, Riehl and Troeh Break 113 Out of 120 Birds.

Raymond, Wash., Aug. 20.—P. H. O'Brien of Portland and F. M. Troeh of Vancouver, Wash., were high amateurs in yesterday's events of the annual Pacific Indian shoot. Each shooter broke 113 out of 120 birds.

A strong west wind was blowing throughout the entire day, and caused lower scores than those registered during the first day's events. The Olympia Brewing company trophy, a 50 bird handicap at 19 yards, was won by F. M. Troeh with the score of 47.

I. M. Fisher and F. Riehl topped the professionals yesterday with the same scores as the high amateurs. The scores: O'Brien 113, Fisher 113, F. Riehl 113, Troeh 113, Dague 112, L. THREE WAVERLY MEN ARE IN SEMI-FINALS AT GEARHART COURSE Zan, Davis and Smith With Junior, Unattached, Are to Play Today.

Jordan Zan, C. H. Davis Jr. and Russell Smith of the Waverly Country club and A. B. Junior, unattached, will enter the semi-finals of the Gearhart golf tournament as a result of the play yesterday. With the elimination of Dr. J. B. Wise of the Tualatin Country club and the disqualification of Rudolph Wilhelm of the Portland Golf club, the Waverly clubmen will have things pretty much their own way.

Rudolph Wilhelm committed an innocent breach of the tournament governing rules. He was looked upon as one of the strong contenders and was picked to be the runner-up if not the winner.

A. B. Junior defeated Dr. Wise, 6 up and 5 to play. John Wilhelm of the University of Oregon was defeated by C. H. Davis, 7 up and 1 to play, although both produced a score of 75 for the 18 holes.

Russell Smith defeated J. F. Clark of Spokane, 7 and 6, in the second round. In the play today Jordan Zan meets Russell Smith, and Mrs. J. F. Clark of Spokane. Mrs. Davis defeated Mrs. D. T. Honeyman yesterday, 7 and 6, in the women's championship round, while Mrs. Clark defeated Miss Virginia Burns, 5 and 4.

The men's championship results yesterday were: Holt Cookingham defeated Graham Glass Jr., 7 and 6; A. B. Junior defeated J. B. Wise, 6 and 5; C. H. Davis defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6; Russell Smith defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6; Russell Smith defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6.

Second round—A. B. Junior defeated Holt Cookingham, 6 and 5; C. H. Davis defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6; Russell Smith defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6; Russell Smith defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6.

Second round—Robertson defeated Burke, 2 up; James Zan defeated B. Dudley, 2 up; Robert Livingston Jr. defeated Graham Glass Jr., 7 and 6; Whitney defeated J. B. Wise, 6 and 5; C. H. Davis defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6; Russell Smith defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6.

Women's first flight results were: Mrs. L. Devereaux defeated Miss W. Huber, 2 up; Mrs. Louise Burns defeated Mrs. George F. Sanborn, 8 and 6; Mrs. W. M. Cook defeated Mrs. Thomas Robertson, 3 and 1; Mrs. J. D. Thompson defeated Miss F. Huber, 2 up.

Women's second flight, nine holes, medal play—Miss J. Oudin, first net, 52; Miss E. Mackenzie, by default.

Men's championship consolation flight—M. H. Hartwell defeated W. W. Winton by default; Robert Livingston Jr. defeated Graham Glass Jr., 7 and 6; Whitney defeated J. B. Wise, 6 and 5; C. H. Davis defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6; Russell Smith defeated J. F. Clark, 7 and 6.

GRUMAN FIGHTS SAL SALVADORE TOMORROW EVE Portland Boy and King of the Four Rounders in Main Event.

Ralph Gruman, the clever Portland lightweight, who is so well thought of in San Francisco, will have the time of his life tomorrow night, when he meets Sally Salvadore, king of the Bay City four rounders, over the short route in the main event.

Gruman has been working out and roughing it on Harry Foley's ranch and writes north that he is in the best condition of his life and is certain of taking the measure of his opponent.

Gruman recently received very favorable comment in his exhibition with Charley White, who promptly ducked under cover when the Portlander cut loose with a few stinging clouts. He has been training with Frankie Burns, and that he tended to place him in shape for his clash with Salvadore.

GOVERNOR WEST'S BAN ON HUNTING IS GOOD FOR THE SPORT Carlson Says Best Time for Deer After Rains; Hunters Don't Cause Fires.

Carlson says the best time for deer after rains; hunters don't cause fires. The above was the statement this morning of Dick Carlson, manager of the sporting goods department of the Honeyman Hardware company, and one of the best known hunters and anglers of the state.

"Deer hunting in Oregon is always best after the rains. Right now it is extremely hard to get a deer," continued Carlson. "With the hot August weather, they seek the lowest places in the mountain draws to escape the heat and flies, and it is next to impossible to sneak up on them. After the rains and cooler weather they come out a lot of northern Californians, who hunt in southern Oregon, and some of us are selfish enough to believe this will help the Oregon sportsmen later on."

Carlson will leave tonight for a fishing trip to the Rogue river country, to be gone until about September 10.

J. Wesley Ladd and Archie L. Tibbitts are planning a fishing trip to the Quinalt lake country for the first week in September. This particular section is declared by anglers to be the best in the northwest. The country is entered via Hoquiam. An auto stage makes the trip into Quinalt. Indians are at hand to pole the boats for fishermen. If desired, fishermen may take canoes and paddle down the Quinalt river, camping out on the ocean shore.

Harry Jaekel, engineer of the Harbor Patrol boat Eldor, had an unusual experience on his hunting trip, from which he returned today. He, with City Attorney La Roche, John Curtin, C. M. Bristol and a number of other Portland men, were hunting around Waldport last week. Jaekel was away from camp all day Monday and Tuesday, and only saw one deer, and that one a mile away, after a 23 mile tramp. Wednesday morning he started his machine from Waldport, and when five miles from town a 2-year-old buck darted across the road, about 150 feet from the machine. Jaekel brought him down before he reached the bush.

William Briese and wife, C. J. Quinn and wife and A. O. Hanna have returned from an automobile trip to Tillamook county and Newport, where they enjoyed a couple of weeks in fishing and hunting. They report a catch of 700 trout on the Trask and 100 each

BOSTON PRO GETS BEST SCORING IN OPEN GOLF PLAY Tom McNamara Beats Mark of Former Tacoman; Evans Plays Poorly.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 20.—Honors in the second elimination round of the United States open golf championship on the links of the Midlothian club were won by Tom McNamara of Boston, an American professional, yesterday with the score of 145. The low score in Tuesday's qualifying round was 116 by James Barnes, of the Whittemar club, of Philadelphia.

Chick Evans, winner of the Western Golf association amateur title, just barely qualified with the score of 158. Evans took 79 for each round, a wrenched ankle and the lightning fast putting greens were responsible for the poor showing of Evans.

Other amateurs to qualify yesterday were Donald Edwards, Midlothian; K. H. Edwards, Midlothian; Jack Neville, of California, and L. Jacoby, Dallas, Texas.
