MULTNOMAH IS IN LEAD

Bonded Indebtedness Is Taken Into Consideration in Making the Totals.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)

Salem, Or., Aug. 21.-Insurance Commissioner Ferguson has issued a quarterly report of his accounting department, showing the financial condition of the counties of Oregon at the close of business June 30, 1914, and from this it appears that 26 had surpluses ranging from $2706.06 in Clatsop to $1,050,736.23 in Multnomah and that only eight counties showed deficits. The counties showing a fund surplus were as follows: Baker, $74,606.55; Benton, $39,493.05; Clackamas, $66,-183.09; Clatsop, $2706.06; Columbia, $63,234.72; Coos, $26,415.93; Douglas, 10 $229,322.67; Gilliam, $10,432.03; Grant, $58,787.88; Hood River, $48,971.77; Lake, $54,244.56; Lane, $60,156.15; Linn, $136,697.44; Malheur, $30,842.71; Marion, $299,313.09; Morrow, $23,418.26; Multnomah, $1,050,736.23; Polk, $79,-630.06; Sherman, $23,500.07; Tillamook, $72,963.77; Umatilla, $117,348.63;

Union, $71,491.63; Wallowa, $33,233.28; Wasco, $84,421.79; Washington, $179,-994.69; Yambill, $115,992.60. The counties showing a deficit were s follows: Crook, $13,691.60; Curry, as follows: Crook, $13,691.60; 10 $8568.94; Harney, $13,032.29; Jackson, $395,419.59; Josephine, $229,867.29; Klamath, $416,148.71; Lincoln, $46,-$16.21; Wheeler, $14,574.58. County bond indebtedness is not heavy, only three counties having any, and the list follows: Clatsop, $170,000; Columbia, 10 $260,000; Jackson, $460,000. In finding the surplus or deficit the bonded indebtedness was taken into consideration in the three counties

Guaranty Company Official Compliments State Treasurer After Examination of Books and Methods.

Salem, Or., Aug. 21.—State Treasurer Kay has received a very gratifying re-port, submitted by John C. McCollister to the United States Fidelity & Guaranty company, following an examination of Mr. Kay's office here. McCollister spent some time here and the following extracts from his report are of interest: "I desire to state that I found Mr. Kay's office in excellent shape, exceptionally well conducted by very efficient help, and the books kept in a very neat and orderly manner. My personal impression of Mr. Kay and 1,800 his assistants was that they were very I personally took note of the receipts and disbursements from the official's books, but did not verify them. This was done by my assistant, Kenneth Runner, who checked back 10 or 12 months' receipts and disbursements, taken at random, and verified the additions. Mr. Runner appeared to be very competent. I confined my efforts entirely to the checking up of the securities and verifying the bank balances, which I found to tally to a

Fire Corrals Animals,

Hood River, Or., Aug. 21 .- Herds of deer have been corralled in various sections of the mountains surrounding the Hood River valley, as the result of the recent forest fire. The deer have been driven from the timber to Mt. Hood Is Plan the open sections. A herd of 25 was seen by a woodsman yesterday in one place. Roy Ramsby, who was in the mountains during the week, chased a mother bear and two cubs up a tree. When Mr. Ramsby dismounted from the horse he was riding the old bear put up a fight, but with clubs Mr. Ramsby succeeded in getting the three bears to climb a tree while he went to the rangers' camp nearby and se-
