

What Society is Doing BY NONA LAWLER

INVITATIONS have been sent out for the marriage of Miss Marie Evangeline McDougall and Casimir A. Campbell at St. Patrick's church, Wednesday morning, September 2, at 10 o'clock. A reception will be given at the Willametta Heights home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D. McDougall, 1244 Thurman street, in the afternoon from 3 until 4 o'clock. Mr. Campbell is a well known insurance man. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Campbell of an old and well known Portland family. Both the bride to be and Mr. Campbell are popular in their set and they are being feted with numerous pre-nuptial parties.

Visiting Near Mount Hood.
Miss Zola Hitchcock and Miss Merle McKelvey are passing a week or 10 days at the mountain cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Willbur Reid (Evelyn Hitchcock), "Alder Brook" cottage, which is located near Rhododendron tavern.

Luncheon for Mrs. Greene.
Miss Hazel Kurtz entertained at luncheon this afternoon for the pleasure of her house guest Mrs. Harry E. Green of The Dalles. Pink was the color scheme carried out in every appointment of the table, which was centered with a pretty cluster of pink sweet peas. Covers were laid for Mrs. Greene, Mrs. Nellie Hawthorne, Mrs. F. A. Devers, Mrs. Frank F. Spaulding and the hostess.

For Out-of-Town Visitors.
A number of out-of-town visitors were the inspiration for a delightful afternoon spent at the home of Mrs. Ida M. Gay, 711 Milwaukie street, on Wednesday. Those present were: Mrs. W. G. Martin of Seattle, Miss Ella Colquhoun and Mrs. C. R. Offner of Walla Walla, Miss Gertrude Keasney of Astoria, Mrs. George Knight Clark, Mrs. Bertram Douglas Newcomb, Miss Anna Meehan and Mrs. George Robert Clark. Miss Kearney and Mrs. George rendered delightful musical numbers. Mrs. Martin entertained with some clever readings, after which refreshments were served.

25th Wedding Anniversary.
Captain and Mrs. Delmar Shaver celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Wednesday, Aug. 15, at their beautiful summer home on Cannon Beach. Dinner was served at 9 o'clock under the trees on the lawn. The trees were decorated with Japanese lanterns and later in the evening these were lighted and a large bonfire added its cheerful glow to the scene. The following guests enjoyed the hospitality of Captain and Mrs. Shaver: Captain and Mrs. W. Shaver, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. S. Heints, Captain and Mrs. Orin Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Plympton, Miss Martha Hoyt, Miss Emma Lacey, Miss Hattie Plympton, Miss Ellen Shaver, Miss Doris Shaver, Homer T. Shaver, James Delmer Shaver, George W. Hoyt Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Tichenor, Miss Vera Tichenor, Miss Volla Tichenor, Mr. and Mrs. Albert and Mrs. J. English, Miss Alice McCurdy, of Hood River, and Miss Fay Armstrong, of Corvallis.

Home From Gearhart.
Mrs. J. F. Alexander and daughter Virginia of Irvington returned from Gearhart Tuesday evening, where they have been spending the summer season at their cottage. Several smart affairs have been held at the Alexander cottage during the past few weeks. Among the guests who were entertained by them were: Mr. and Mrs. H. R. O'Bryen, Lewis E. Kelly, Margaret Shaver, Winifred May Hutchins, Clarence McLaren, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baker and Francis Redick of Portland. Guests not living in the city were: Miss Marjorie Behrens and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Perkins of Nome, Alaska. The Alexanders will spend the balance of the season in Portland at their Irvington home.

Motor Party to Crater Lake.
Mrs. Herman Wittenberg, Miss Genevieve Shaver, Ralph Wittenberg, Mrs. Sarah McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stettler, Miss Jennette Stettler and Mr. and Mrs. Clark made up an automobile party that are enjoying a trip to Crater Lake, Klamath Falls and points of interest in the surrounding country. Mr. Wittenberg will leave on his return home for Harvard college.

Surprise Party.
On Saturday evening, August 15, Miss Fayretta Freichel was given a pleasant surprise party at her home, 835 Main street, by a few of her friends from the Utopia Rebekah lodge. The evening was spent in music, games and dancing, after which a luncheon was served. Miss Freichel

Miss Crystal Hyland, one of the attractive girls of the younger set who recently returned from a several months' trip in California with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hyland. The Hylands have taken a country place on Lake Vancouver, several miles from Vancouver, Wash., where they plan to pass the fall months.

and her mother will leave on the twentieth of August for Milwaukee, Wis., and Buffalo, N. Y., by the way of the Canadian Pacific to be gone several months, to visit friends and relatives. Those present to wish Miss Freichel and her mother a safe and pleasant journey were: Mr. and Mrs. V. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Steele, Mr. and Mrs. George Sturgis, Charles Bonadurer, Miss Emma Bonadurer, Miss Edna Savory, C. F. Freichel and Chester Freichel.

Mrs. Casey Hostess.
Mrs. Thomas J. Casey (nee Josephine Semtegard) was hostess Wednesday evening, when she entertained with a dinner party at her new home in Westmoreland for a number of her girl friends. The table was decorated prettily with pink sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Covers were laid for Miss Myrtle Jemtgaard, Miss Jane Keep, Miss Ellen English, Miss Margaret Mann, Miss Anna Reich, Miss Augusta, Selfer, Miss Laura Willbanks, Miss Winnitta Marr and the hostess.

"Merry Owls Club" Hold Meeting Surprise for Two of its Members.
The "Merry Owls" held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hobbs last Monday night. Previous to the meeting a buffet luncheon was served, which was enjoyed by the members. While the supper was served, Fred Sobel, in behalf of the club, presented Walter Frazier with a brass combination smoking set bearing the Owl design as a birthday remembrance. During the meeting plans were discussed for future entertainments to be given by the club. The next party will be given at the pretty Fulton Hill home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Phillips on Wednesday night, August 26. After the business meeting an Owl pennant was presented to Aubrey Waters, who willoughby Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Richardson, is spending a few weeks at Maroney Town, Manhattan Beach, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Richardson and their son and daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. J. Richardson Jr., and infant son left today on an automobile trip to join their son at Maroney Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Litt Hoffman spent the week end at Mount Pleasant, Wash. Among the affairs of a social nature given during their visit was a delightful dinner party at which Frank Smead of Mount Pleasant was host at his bachelor quarters, last Sunday evening.

The many friends of Miss Quenele Howe of 554 East Everett street will be glad to hear of her recovery from a long illness. Miss Howe is the daughter of the late theatrical manager, J. P. Howe.

Mrs. S. Jessup of Eugene is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Werlein and daughter, Miss Helen, at 725 West Madison street. Mrs. Jessup is house mother of the Delta Gamma sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas A. Freeman and daughter, Mrs. Edna Freeman Stafford are enjoying their outing at Barview, Bayocan and other points of interest near Tillamook.

Mrs. R. W. Stephens and granddaughter, Miss Hazel Channey, have gone to Sacramento to be the guests of Mrs. Stephens' daughter, Mrs. Josephine (White) Dixon.

Miss Irene Wilson and Lawrence Jamieson have returned from Saltair, where they have been the guests of Mrs. D. Franks at her cottage, Liberty Hall.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred A. Liewallen and daughter Barbara, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cronin and son Robert, have returned from a two weeks' motoring trip to Tillamook county beaches.

Mrs. J. B. Knapp (Cornelia Pinkham) and her small son left yesterday for the beach.

Burglars Unusually Active Last Night

While the family of F. D. Shull, 314 Overton street, was away last evening for a couple of hours, a burglar pried open a rear window, entered the home and stole several articles. Two watches and several stickpins are the most valuable things taken. At Gevurtz, 685 Gilsen street, reported to the police last night that a burglar entered his home early in the evening, taking $7 in cash and four rings belonging to children. One man's ring was also missing. W. L. Flanagan, 715 East Market street, reported a burglar entered his home during the night, but apparently was chased away before he had time to get anything.

There is nothing half-way about coffee. It is either good or bad! Its delicious flavor explains the continued popularity of German-American!

In two months G-A became the most popular coffee in the Northwest—because it equalled most 35c and 40c coffees. In almost four months, it is still the only quality coffee.
