

EXCESSIVE SUPPLY OF PEACHES MAKES GOOD SEASONING MART WEAK

With Continuation of Present Large Shipments Prices May Drop to 25 Cents Per Box—Lemon Trade Weaker to Lower.

Due to the large supply on hand and which was being continually added to, the peach market today was very soft.

CHEESE TRADE IS FIRMER

The cheese trade is showing very firm with a general scarcity in the supply.

TOMATO SUPPLY LARGE

Local markets are pretty well stocked with tomatoes and not much strength is shown.

PEARS ALMOST GONE

The season for Bartlett pears is drawing to a close.

RUN OF DUCKS AND GESE

An unusual feature in today's poultry trade was an unaccounted for run of ducks and geese.

SPECIAL SHIPPERS' FORECAST

Protect shipments as far north as Seattle against minimum temperatures of about 50 degrees.

GOVERNMENT'S APPLE ESTIMATE TOO LARGE

The estimates for the season's apple crop in the northwest seem to vary widely.

On National Approximation of Crop, Government Names 70,000,000 Bushels More Than Growers and Shippers, 8,000,000 More in N. W.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK RUN.

Following the light run of yesterday, the market this morning was very quiet.

Good Demand Exists, but Offerings Are Off Color—Good Porkers Strong at $9.25—Ewes at $4.35 and Lambs $6.00.
