

A good watchdog is the best insurance against burglars. The use of The Journal's want columns will bring the dog you want.

Oregon Journal

THE WEATHER
Unsettled today, probably showers; variable winds but mostly west.

VOL. XI. NO. 24

CITY EDITION

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 13, 1914.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

AUSTRIANS TRY TO STEM GREAT TIDE FROM EAST

German Infantry and Artillery Heavily Reinforce Austrians; Battle Line Extends From Poland to Dniester.

AID FOR KONIGSBERG BLOCKED BY RUSSIANS

(United Press Leased Wire)

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—Heavily reinforced by German infantry and artillery, the Austrians are making a determined stand in eastern Galicia, after having been in danger of annihilation following the battle of Rawa Ruska. The new line of battle extends from the Russian Poland frontier to the Dniester river, almost in the form of a semi-circle, about 100 miles long. The entire Russian central army is engaged, under the command of General Rouszky, the hero of Lvov (Lemberg). It is believed the fighting here will continue for several days, as the Russians are making a supreme effort to crush the Austrians, now commanded by Archduke Francis Frederick, inspector-general of the Austrian army; Archduke Karl Franz Josef, heir-apparent, and General von Auffenberg, former war minister.

The battle line, according to the reports made public at the war office, extends from a point directly west of Belzard, in northern Galicia, south and west of Rawa Ruska, through Grodek, 20 miles west of Lvov, to the Dniester and Wykoty rivers, near Lamber. The Austrian center rests on the fortified town of Grodek, and it is here that the German artillery has been centered to aid the hard-pressed forces of the dual empire.

Meanwhile it is reported at the war office that Russian forces under General Rennekampf, in east Prussia, have blocked the attempt to relieve Konigsberg, driving the Germans back with heavy losses. The German-Austrian advance into Russian Poland was checked by the defeats at Myszine, Cherzele, Opolje and Turbine, where the Russian cavalry distinguished itself by a series of raids on the enemy's flank.

The entire situation, from the Russian viewpoint, was declared to be excellent tonight. Russian troops have crossed the Carpathian mountains at several points, and a strong Russian force is now in Transylvania, having passed through the Borgo pass. Nearly every large city in Bukowina is held by the Russians. It is stated that the Slav population of this province welcomed the Russians with open arms, many of the Austrian troops surrendering without firing a shot because of their Slav sympathy.

AUSTRIANS SAY THEY GAIN GROUND.

Vienna (via Rome), Sept. 12.—That the Austrian forces in eastern Galicia have been heavily reinforced and that they are now attacking the Russians was announced at the war office tonight. It was said that despite the fact that the Russians far outnumber the combined Austro-German central army, the latter is gaining ground. It

TODAY'S SUNDAY JOURNAL

Consists of

SECTION ONE—TWELVE PAGES

- | | | | | |
|--|--|---|--|--|
| Page 1. Austrians Making Stand. German Right Wing Routed. Oregon Wins in Harbors Bill. Kaiser's Son Reported Dead. | Page 2. Money for Columbia Assured. Chamberlain Stays by Post. Movement of Forces Urged. | Page 3. Allies' Position Stated. Public Schools Reopen Tomorrow. Official Statement Calls of Victories. Program for Gresham Fair. | Page 4. Kaiser Committed Concerning Peace. Dearest Plans for Unemployed Urged. Space in Pamphlet Limited. Booth's Record Against Direct Primary. | Page 5. Changes Urged in Widow's Pension. |
| Page 6. Home Garden Profitable. Vancouver's Celebration Is Ended. Benson's Reply Beats on Fake Proposals. | Page 7. Economy Is Page's Watchword. New York Officers Indicted in Grants Case. | Page 8. History of Modern War Published. Tomorrow Is Visiting Nurse Day. Journal's Round-Up Train. | Page 9. Portland to Be Represented at Waterbury Convention. Why Should City Pay Fancy Prices? Chicago Grain Market. | Page 10. Astoria Dock Work Progress. Game of Thieves Reported in Eugene. Phone Competition Restored. |

SECTION TWO—EIGHT PAGES

- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| Page 1. Seed Collectors Opening Tomorrow. Healthy and Building News. | Page 2. Editorial. |
|--|--------------------|

SECTION THREE—TWELVE PAGES

Part One—Sports, News and Gossip.

Part Two—Marine News: Want Ads.

SECTION FOUR—EIGHT PAGES

- | | |
|--|--|
| Page 1. 200 Insurance Companies in State. Dramatic and Movie News. | Page 2. Home for Curious Needed. McKinleyville Women Boost for Smith for Governor. |
|--|--|

SECTION FIVE—EIGHT PAGES

- | |
|---|
| Page 1-2-3. The Week in Society. Social Service News. In the Home. Music. In Woman's Field. |
|---|

SECTION SIX (MAGAZINE AND PICTORIAL)—EIGHT PAGES

- | | | | |
|--|--|---|--|
| Page 1. Fifth Street Sky-scrapers (Pictorial). Scout von Bismarck Gives Germany's Point of View—An Interview with Edward Marshall. | Page 2. Arts of Peace Forgotten in the Pursuit of Armageddon (Pictorial). Death and Destruction European's Seen Harvest this Year (Pictorial). | Page 3. Belligerent Belgians who Routed the Kaiser's Forces (Pictorial). All Is War and Preparation for War in Europe Nowadays (Pictorial). Air Craft as a Factor in Europe's Great Conflict. | Page 4. The Troy O'Hearts (Continued Story) by Joseph Vance. |
|--|--|---|--|

SECTION SEVEN (COMIC)—FOUR PAGES

OREGON SCORES IN REVISION OF HARBORS BILL

Senator Chamberlain Wins Victory in Retention of Provisions for Improvements of the Columbia.

OTHER STATES WILL SUFFER CURTAILMENT

Appropriations for Ohio, Mississippi and Missouri Rivers Are Reduced.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)
Washington, Sept. 12.—Considering the way other sections of the country have been treated in revising the rivers and harbors bill, Oregon undoubtedly has reason to feel gratified. Senator Chamberlain, who has consistently and energetically labored for the items in which Oregon is so deeply interested, was interviewed tonight regarding the new bill agreed on by the committee on commerce and which will probably be submitted to the senate Monday.

Great Victory for Oregon.

He said: "In view of the situation of the treasury and the necessity of raising additional revenue on account of the war in Europe, I think I have accomplished a great victory in maintaining not only the $1,000,000 appropriation for the Columbia, but in keeping in the bill the clause for a continuing contract, under terms of which a contract can be let for $1,500,000."

"Consultation with Colonel Taylor of the engineer corps, who is friendly to the Oregon project, justified me in compromising on the Columbia river project."

"Not only did I consent to a compromise on this project, but other senators who had projects carrying considerable appropriations also consented to reductions, larger ones in some cases than that made in the case of the Columbia river."

Money Frantically Assured.

"I have no doubt but that money for the Columbia river, under the bill as it is to be reported, is fully assured. It will be brought out in discussion at the United States, I think this much to do with assisting me

(Concluded on Page Two, Column One)

GERMAN CROWN PRINCE REPORTED DEAD

Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany.

TWO SONS OF KAISER ARE REPORTED DEAD OF WOUNDS

London, Sept. 12.—News dispatches from Ostend carry a report from Brussels that Crown Prince Frederick William and Prince Adalbert, the third son of the kaiser, and Prince Carl of Wurtemberg have died in a hospital at Brussels from wounds.

Crown Prince Frederick William was born in 1882 and was married in 1905. There were four sons of the marriage. Prince Adalbert was born in 1884.

The above report is without confirmation from any other source. Various stories regarding the crown prince have been printed and denied since the war began. The latest communications from Berlin and Paris have indicated that he was with his army in the field near Verdun. Prince Adalbert is a sailor and has been supposed to be with the German fleet near Wilhelmshaven. Prince Joachim, the kaiser's youngest son, was recently reported wounded in the thigh by a piece of shrapnel.

Death to Precede Surrender—Joffre

French Commander-in-Chief Issues Orders That Not an Inch of Ground Must Be Given Up to the Germans.

Paris, Sept. 12.—That General Joffre had resolved to stake everything on the result of the battle of the Marne developed here tonight. The commander-in-chief in his official orders declared that death must come before surrender.

"No hesitation will be tolerated," read the official order of the general in command. "Soldiers when unable to advance must not retreat. Soldiers should always be soldiers and be willing to die rather than to surrender a single inch of the ground that is already won."

As a result of this order the French fought with the utmost desperation, it is stated, thousands of men throwing themselves against seemingly impregnable positions.

Greece and Turkey On Verge of Break

Inability to Settle Problems Concerning Aegean Islands Is the Cause of the Trouble.

Bucharest, Sept. 12.—An immediate break between Turkey and Greece is now considered inevitable. The negotiations designed to settle the problems in connection with the islands in the Aegean sea have failed. The delegates, finding themselves hopelessly deadlocked, have started for their respective capitals. It is feared that when they reach Constantinople and Athens their reports may be followed by an immediate rupture of diplomatic relations preliminary to a declaration of war.

Southampton Port Ordered Reopened

Announcement Means No More British Troops Will Be Shipped to the Continent Until Recruits Are in Shape.

London, Sept. 12.—The admiralty announced tonight that the port of Southampton, which has been closed since the opening of the war for military purposes, has now been reopened. Most of the British troops were shipped in the transports from Southampton. This announcement means that all of the available British forces are now on continental soil and that the military can be made ready for service no further British troops will go forward. The Canadian and the Indian troops will be landed directly on the continent.

General's Order Is Found in Room

French Pick Up Notice By German General Tscheppe that the Battle of the Marne Would Be Decisive.

Paris, Sept. 12.—The war office announced that in a room in a house at Vitry le Francois which had been used by General von Tscheppe as a headquarters, an order of the day was found declaring that the battle of the Marne, then beginning, would prove decisive. The general declared that every man would expect every man to fight to his last breath.

D'Annunzio Would Become a Servian

Italian Author Threatens to Renounce Citizenship Unless Italy Joins Allies Against Austria and Germany.

Paris, Sept. 12.—Gabriele D'Annunzio, the author announced today that he would renounce his Italian citizenship and become a Servian should Italy persist in her refusal to join the allies.

CAPITAL TO MOVE BACK

Paris, Sept. 12.—(Sunday)—It was announced here late last night that continued successes of French armies in the field would probably result in the immediate return of the government from Bordeaux.

Cardinal Farley Ill

Rome, Sept. 12.—On Friday after lunch Cardinal Farley suffered a severe stroke of heart disease at Amalfi where he had gone from Sorrento. Professor Cardarelli of Naples visited him, prescribing absolute rest. No immediate fears for the cardinal's welfare are entertained.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

- "WANTED—To trade, high grade $500 plane for runabout auto; must be in good condition, fully equipped, speedometer and self-starter; Maxwell, Metz, Brush or Ford preferred." Class 25.
- "GAS range, plates, sanitary" couches and other furniture for heater of chickens." Class 25.
- "3 ROOM house with full lot, fruit and vegetables, good well, $625 on your own terms." Class 61.
- "WANT to buy a Ford car; must be cheap; pay cash." Class 44.
- "NEARLY new refrigerator, exchange for used cook stove." Class 25.
- "NEW double barrel Belgium shotgun to exchange for counter scales or anything can use." Class 25.
- "LOST—Lace curtain between 40th and 50th and Lincoln and Hawthorne." Class 21.

ENTIRE GERMAN ARMY RETIRING; WING IS ROUTED

Fury of French, British Attack Such That German Right Wing Is Routed, Crown Prince's Army Gives Way.

FLOWER OF GERMANY'S ARMY IS FORCED BACK

By William Philip Sims.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

Paris, Sept. 13 (Sunday).—In the official statement issued at midnight from the war office at Bordeaux and telegraphed to General Gallieni, the announcement is made that the entire German front has been pierced by the French. The Germans are declared to be retreating at top speed, having been compelled to abandon much valuable equipment. Many prisoners also have been taken. The report says:

"The Franco-English forces on the left wing are now pursuing the Germans through the lower Aisne region.

"The German center has been driven across the Marne and is retreating on Epervain.

"Despite the fatigue of the last five days of fighting, the French continue to pursue the Germans at increasing speed. At Montmireail and other points the Germans have been forced to abandon important documents, undistributed letters, etc. At Frominieres the Germans were forced to abandon a battery of motor guns and caissons."

Montmireail, in the department of the Marne, is only 22 miles southwest of Epervain. It was here that Napoleon defeated the Prussians and Russians in 1814.

FRENCH TROOPS TAKE HEART ANEW AS BATTLE TIDE TURNS

Paris, Sept. 12 (11:45 p. m.).—The general retreat continues all along the line and includes the crown prince's army.

This was the official announcement from General Gallieni, military governor of Paris, at 11:30 tonight. It emphasized what has been evident all day—that the Germans have been decisively defeated and are being forced to withdraw everywhere to refit and fill their broken ranks. The rout of the German right wing is complete. The abandonment of the positions near Vitry-le-Francois indicated that the German center had weakened. But the army of the crown prince was there, the picked forces of all Germany, and there had been a disposition to believe that it might yet be able to cause trouble. Therefore the assurance of the veteran Gallieni was doubly welcome.

The general falling back of the Germans to new positions along the Franco-German frontier now is expected. The spirit of the French troops has undergone a remarkable change. The depression caused by the continuous retreat before the oncoming German hosts has been swept away. In the field the French are now declared to be fighting like demons.

The chief difficulty the French officers are now experiencing is the curbing of the impetuosity of their men. The French soldiers want to use the bayonet. They chafe when held back so that the way may be cleared with the artillery. When the orders come to charge, they sweep down on the German lines with utter disregard of death.

Joffre's Strategy Is Succeeding.

The French offensive, drilled into every schoolboy since 1870, is now in full swing everywhere. The wisdom of General Joffre's strategy is now being felt. While the harassed allied armies were withdrawing in perfect shape before the German onslaught, the great bulk of the French cavalry was held in the concentration camps at the south. The British cavalry and a small percentage of the French was utilized to cover the retreat.

Today the French cavalry, admittedly the greatest mounted force in the world, is covering itself with glory. It is pursuing the retreating Germans everywhere. Charging their rear guards and breaking through their defensive lines, the French cavalry is inflicting desperate losses on

(Concluded on Page Five Column Five.)

BELGIANS TAKE OFFENSIVE TO CUT OFF GERMAN LINES

Ostend, Sept. 12.—That the Belgian troops have not only taken the offensive in northern Belgium, but that they are actually moving to retake Brussels, was indicated tonight. Couriers who arrived from the front reported that the Belgian forces today attacked a large German force at Cortenberg, between Louvain and Brussels, and routed them, taking many prisoners.

To the Children, One and All:

THE JOURNAL, together with other leading newspapers of the United States, has joined with THE CHICAGO HERALD in its splendid plan to dispatch a Christmas ship to Europe, laden with gifts and good cheer for the little boys and girls of the war-stricken nations.

YOU will have a merry Christmas. YOU are looking forward to the day when Christ was born. YOU know that father and mother will be with you on Christmas day. YOU know that Santa Claus will come from the frozen north, his sleigh laden with gifts for you.

by the good saint's galloping reindeer. Stockings will hang limp and empty in many a French cottage, and the smoky chimneys of England will know him not. No doll for little Jane and no red mittens for brother John! No soldiers, all red and shining, that Karl had hoped for!

Have you stopped to think what is going to happen on Christmas day to the children of Europe, whose Santa Claus fell dead on the battlefield when father dropped with a bullet in his heart—the father whose kiss and cheery "Up, lazy boots, Kris Kringle has been here!" once woke them on Christ's birthday?

What a mockery this Christmastide will be for them!

For these bereaved children there will be no Kris Kringle. His sleigh bells will not jingle on the frosty air in the Black Forest, and the snows of the Russian steppes will be untrodden

Children of Portland and Oregon, if you could help, you would, wouldn't you? And you may.

YOU may be Santa Claus to those little boys and girls whose daddies died fighting for their country. YOU can stretch out your hands across the sea, bearing messages of love and sympathy to the children of a war-ridden continent—messages from fortunate America to unfortunate Europe.

All YOU have to do is to provide the gifts. THE JOURNAL, THE CHICAGO HERALD and the other newspapers associated in this enterprise will attend to the other details. They will see that your gifts reach the ship that will take them to Europe.

THE JOURNAL will handle the gifts from the children in its field to the children of Europe. Watch THE JOURNAL for subsequent days for further details as to how you children, each and every one, can participate in this joyous movement.