

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 13, 1914.

IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Martin Van B. Sutherland (Hazel Morrow), a recent bride.

News for publication in the Sunday society pages must be in the Journal office by Friday afternoon.

By Nona Lawler.
ALL weddings seem almost in equal favor with June weddings in society this year. The next few weeks will be filled with prenuptial parties and the formal weddings of several prominent couples. Tuesday evening Miss Minnie Fleischner, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Fleischner will become the bride of William Heller Ehrman of San Francisco, of the well known family of that name of both Portland and San Francisco. They have been betrothed with a continuous round of smart affairs during the past few weeks. Last evening Mrs. Hazel Blumauer Litt gave a charming dance at the Multnomah hotel and this evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger will give a like affair at their home in North Twentieth street. There have been informal luncheons, teas and dinner parties for each day this week in commitment to the bride elect. Wednesday evening the marriage of Miss Dorothy Huber and Kurt H. Koehler will be a smart event. It is to be a large church wedding at Trinity, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Huber and will call forth a large and fashionable assemblage of smart society.

Miss Rosalind Kingsley and Medford Reed are to be married early Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kingsley, on the Heights. The relatives and close friends of the young couple will be assembled for the ceremony and there will be no reception.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wheelwright are being welcomed back home with many social favors. Mrs. J. B. Montgomery entertained in their honor at luncheon Friday at the University club when her guests included: Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Wheelwright, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Burrell, Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell and Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Henry Russell Talbot.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Teal chaperoned the party.
Willie K. Clark was host Wednesday evening at a most enjoyable dancing party which he gave at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn, at their Portland Heights home in Laurel street. Mr. and Mrs. Linn assisted Mr. Clark in receiving and the guests included a merry gathering of the younger set. The wide verandas were enclosed in canvas and the rooms were redolent with lovely clusters of flowers, the blue hydrangeas and pink anemones being combined most effectively. Those who enjoyed Mr. Clark's hospitality were: Miss Mary Stuart Smith, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Rhoda Rumelin, Miss Isabella Gauld, Miss Harriet Cummings, Miss Shanna Cummings, Miss Lora Cummings, Miss Mary Brownlie, Miss Jean Brownlie, Miss Kathryn Wolf, Miss Elizabeth Creadick, Miss Elizabeth Boyd, Miss Esther Tucker, Miss Nancy Zan, Miss Sara McCully, Miss Ruth Small, Miss Louise Small, Miss Charlotte Leidlav, Miss Clementine Lambert, Miss Helen Ladd, Miss Evelyn Carey, Miss Katharine Hart, Mrs. Harold Perrell, Lucie Campbell, P. L. Menefee, Robert Noyes, Collin Livingston, Pete Woll, Raymond Conroy, C. C. Coleburn, Horace Coburn, James Huselet, Robert Livingston Jr., Richard Jones, Prescott Cookingham, Jack Latour-ette, Maury Dooly, Howell Jones, Lealand Smith, Carroll Hendrickson, Joseph Lambert, Harold Bates, Donald Sterling, Charles Summer Holbrook, Dwight Fullerton, Harold Perrell, Henry Boyd, Ferdinand Smith, Mac Snow, L. R. Wheeler and Preston B. Delano.

Miss Frances Warren was an informal hostess Wednesday afternoon when she entertained at luncheon for the pleasure of Mrs. William Blecher Newlin (Ruth Cranston), who writes under the name of Anne Warwick. Mrs. Newlin is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank M. Warren Jr., and is being extensively entertained. She has made her home in London and Buffalo, N. Y., for several years past, but is well known in Portland, where she formerly resided.

Fitzpatrick is of a prominent Boston family, well known as financiers and philanthropists.
The wedding is planned for the mid-winter.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Burrell who passed several weeks at Seaside, Wash., with their children who with their nurse have been passing the summer there, returned home accompanied by their family last Wednesday evening. Alden Burrell will leave soon to enter Choate school in Connecticut.
Miss Lora Cummings, whose engagement was announced to Paul E. Woll of Philadelphia in the early spring, passed the year with her sister, Mrs. Harold Perrell, in Philadelphia, and the engagement was announced in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Perrell, Miss Cummings and Mr. Woll came west a few weeks ago, as the wedding is to be an event of the latter part of the month. Many delightful affairs are being planned for Miss Cummings, who is one of the most charming girls of the younger set. Last evening Miss Sallie Hart gave a small dinner dance at the Waverly club, when the guests included the bride party and a few additional guests.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spencer Turner of Seattle have sent out cards announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Angeline Turner, to Ellsworth Vedale Vachon of this city. Miss Turner is a beautiful girl, a belle of the young set in Seattle. She is a graduate of National Park seminary, Washington, D. C., and later completed her education with a year's travel abroad.
Mr. Vachon has resided in Portland about a year, prior to which he lived at Seattle. He has a wide circle of friends here, and his bride will be a welcomed acquisition to Portland society. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Vachon of Ellensburg, Wash., a graduate from the University of Washington, and is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.
The wedding date has not yet been set, but it will be an event of the mid-winter.
Miss Genevieve Halley will return before October 1 from Carmel-by-the-Sea, where she is now studying out-of-door painting with the New York painter, William M. Chase.
Among the prominent society girls to leave for school in the next few days are Miss Virginia Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter John Burns, who will return to Westover school, Connecticut; Miss Esther Tucker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Earnest P. Tucker, who will enter New York finishing school; Miss Cornelia Stanley, to go to Miss Bennett's school in New York; Miss Nancy Zan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Zan, will enter Briarcliff, 30 minutes east of New York; Miss Helen Wood to enter Dana Hall; Miss Helen Ladd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, who will reenter Westover school, and Miss Irene Strowbridge, who will enter Oaksmere.

Complimenting two charming brides to be, Miss Rosalind Kingsley and Miss Julie Henriette Whitmer, and Miss Helen Tschudy of Kansas City, the house guest of the Misses Harriet and Mary Kern, Miss Katherine Graham was hostess Wednesday afternoon at a smartly appointed luncheon at the Portland hotel. The table was artistically adorned with a cluster of rose pink asters. Covers were laid for Miss Rosalind Kingsley, Miss Julie Henriette Whitmer, Miss Helen Tschudy of Kansas City, the Misses Harriet and Mary Kern, Mrs. Arthur Maxwell Mears and the hostess.

Miss Harriet and Miss Mary Kern received about 50 girls of the younger set Thursday afternoon at their Irvington home in Tillamook street for the pleasure of their house guest, Miss Helen Tschudy of Kansas City, and Miss Rosalind Kingsley, bride-elect. Miss Margaret Porter and Miss Sarah Patrick assisted about the drawing room and serving were Mrs. James M. Ambrose and Mrs. Walter Gearin. They were assisted by Miss Martha Whiting, Miss Clara Marsch and Miss Katharine Graham. The table was adorned with French margolds in the deep golden yellow and brown tones. Miss Kingsley was again feted informally Friday afternoon by Mrs. Ralph Hurlburt, who has a few girls to tea in her honor.

The opening dance of the Irvington club will take place Friday evening, September 18. It will be a formal affair, with the following patronesses and committee: Patronesses, Mrs. Andrew Porter, Mrs. Emory Olmstead, Mrs. Chester Deering, Mrs. W. F. Jones, Mrs. Warren Keeler, Mrs. S. L. Eddy and Mrs. W. F. Woodward. Floor committee, Walter Holman, R. L. Aldrich, E. J. Jaeger, H. R. Hayek and J. H. Beckley.

Dancing parties will be held by the club members the first and third Fridays and the card parties the second and fourth Fridays of each month, with the first card party September 25. F. S. Fields is chairman of the card committee.

Miss Maud Bateham entertained yesterday afternoon with a prettily appointed luncheon at the Portland hotel for the pleasure of Miss Rosalind Kingsley, bride-elect. The table was adorned with a lovely cluster of pink Killarney buds. Circulating the board were Miss Kingsley, Miss Clare Lambert, Miss Ione Lambert, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Helen Wortman, Miss Helen Peters, Miss Lenette Ferguson, Miss Martha Whiting, Mrs. Ralph J. Hurlburt and the hostess. The latter part of the afternoon the girls gathered at Miss Kingsley's home to see her trousseau.

Miss Sarah McCully will entertain Tuesday afternoon with an informal at home, complimenting Miss Helen Ladd, who leaves soon for Westover school. The guests will include the most part the young people, who are going east to school during the next few weeks.

The return home from the war zone of Miss Lenore and Miss Edith Gregory Thursday evening was the occasion of much rejoicing to their host of Portland friends. The Misses Gregory left for Europe in company with their mother, Mrs. William M. Gregory, to study music and art with eminent teachers of Berlin. They have traveled extensively during the summers and Miss Edith has passed part of her time in art study in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Michel and their niece, Mrs. Dan Kellner, of Cologne, Germany, who have been passing the summer with Mrs. Michel's sister, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, have received word from abroad and find that they will be unable to return to their home this month as previously planned.

Miss Valerie Coon, the charming niece of Mrs. Dan Kellner, returned to her home in Brookline, Mass., Thursday, after an extended visit in Portland. Miss Coon will visit in Minnesota en route, reaching home the latter part of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Langille entertained Miss Valerie Coon, Miss Mary Coon and Miss Slinger at their Mount Hood home recently.

Mrs. Raymond McCarthy, who has been the house guest of her mother, Mrs. P. H. Flynn, for the past two months, has returned to her home in Pueblo, Colo., Mrs. McCarthy formerly lived in Portland and has many friends who entertained for her during her visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Greer were hosts Sunday evening at a dinner and musical in honor of Mrs. McCarthy.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Goldsmith announce the engagement of their daughter, Sallie Hart, to Arthur W. Vachon of Buffalo, N. Y. The marriage will take place at the home of the groom in Louisville, Ky., September 17. Miss Goldsmith will leave for Louisville September 13.

Mr. Mayer formerly lived in Portland, but now resides in the east. Miss Goldsmith graduated from the Portland schools and is very popular in the younger set.

After the wedding the young couple will leave for an extended trip, visiting many of the cities in the east, returning to Buffalo, where they will make their home.
