Mother Says Son Was All to Blame

Klamath Falls, Or., Sept. 21.—After Mrs. Marks testified that she saw her son pursue her son-in-law, Otis Hickman, with a club, striking him repeatedly until he was shot by Hickman, the coroner's jury late Saturday returned a verdict stating that Hickman was justified in killing Vivian Evans at the Marks ranch in Poe valley last night.

Immediately after Hickman was released from custody at the order of the district attorney. Both the mother and sister of the dead man testified that Hickman shot only in defense of his life.

To do away with thresholds under doors in residences there has been invented a hinge which slightly raises a door as it is opened, lowering it against the carpet when it is closed.
