

PENDLETON ROUND-UP, THRILLING EXHIBITION, JUST TWO DAYS AWAY

Arena Ready for Great Outdoor Show, Which Will Continue Three Days.

JOURNAL SELLS TICKETS

Non-Worry Special Trains Will Give Patrons Every Comfort; Fare Admission, Meals, Berth for $25.

What two for the Round-up! Two more days and the greatest of all western frontier exhibitions will be on. For three short days Pendleton will live again the stirring life of pioneer and cow country.

For Portlanders who go to the Round-up there is only one way, and that is The Journal way. This way means no-worry, comfortable way, with seats in the best section of the grandstand and adequate accommodations at Pendleton.

These trains will be made up of the most modern railroad equipment and after being packed down into the Pullman cars of the Round-up, will serve as the homes of the passengers for the two principal days of the show.

Tickets may be procured at The Journal business office at $25 each, this amount covering round-trip fare, meals, berth and admission to the Round-up.

Senate Will Sit All Night Again

Simmons and Burton Confer Over Compromise—Former Says More Attempts to Break Filibuster.

Washington, Sept. 21.—After a call at the White House today, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, chairman of the senate finance committee, announced that the senate would convene tonight in an effort to break the filibuster directed against the rivers and harbors appropriation bill.

Senators Simmons and Burton, the latter of whom is leading the filibuster, conferred this afternoon with a view to effecting a compromise. The bill has been pared down until its appropriations now aggregate but $1,500,000. Supporters of the bill plan to hold continuous sessions until it is passed by the senate.

Woman Disappears; No Trace Discovered

Mrs. Gaines Fueston Is Sought by Husband—Edward DeMuth Also Reported Missing.

Gaines Fueston, 230 1/2 Russell street, has appealed to the police to assist in the search for his wife, who left home Saturday afternoon. They recently came from Spokane, where the woman knew a neighbor somewhat better than Fueston desired, he says, and he thinks the neighbor may have something to do with her disappearance.

Mrs. Fueston has been ill for several months, however, and this may be the cause of her absence. She is 39 years old, of dark complexion, brown hair and eyes, and weighs 115 pounds. Edward DeMuth, 1433 East Flinders street, has also been reported missing since Saturday night. He is 25 years old and had $38 when last seen.

JOHN HEUSNER DIES SUDDENLY FOLLOWING 2 MONTHS' ILLNESS

George F. Heusner, the well known street railway promoter and owner of the Kenton carline.

Mr. Heusner was to have gone to Gearhart tomorrow in company with Harry L. Heusner, but in the hope that the sea air would benefit him, the only belief he had been able to secure of late being from Turkish baths. He had been taking daily exercises to reduce his weight.

Mr. Heusner came here seven years ago from Chicago, where he had operated bakeries. Before that he resided at Oakbrook, Wis., where in his younger days he was station agent for a railroad.

During his residence in New York Mr. Heusner held the bicycle championship and kept the medals symbolizing that fact up to his death. He was naturally athletic and delighted in playing handball and medicine ball with the Bowdoin players, including Larry Madden, the pugilist.

Mr. Heusner was about 44 years old. He was a prominent Shriner and associated with several other orders as well. The body was taken to Emley's undertaking parlors, but plans for the funeral have not been made.

Court Shows Consideration

In consideration of the fact of a member of the jury who was injured by the personal injury suit of George H. Caughman against the Broadway Improvement company, Circuit Judge DeWitt closed the morning session that the juror might attend services in honor of Rosh Moahana, the Jewish New Year. Court will be taken up again this afternoon.

Warrants for Chinese

Warrants were issued this morning for the arrest of J. Ahe and Kung Wick Wah on charges of failure to secure licenses to sell fish from the market fish warden before engaging in the fish business. They will be given hearings in the district court.

Alexander's Record Is Being Searched

Friend of Miss Carrie M. Elwert and Temple Alexander Wait for News of Wedding.

Miss Carrie M. Elwert, 60 years old, and one of Portland's wealthiest women, left Portland Saturday night for Victoria, B. C., while Temple Alexander, under parole from the state prison, left that afternoon for the same place. Assertions of acquaintances of both are that the two persons plan to marry.

This morning, W. G. McLaren, chaplain of the prison, is delving into the records of Alexander's conviction and parole to learn if he has violated the parole. Should it be found he has, the warden is to be asked to send for him.

Miss Elwert is estimated to be the possessor of $25,000. Friends attempted to talk her out of the trip, but she told them that she was going on a short vacation and pleasure trip, and her intentions of meeting or marrying Alexander.

Alexander is about 30 years old. He was convicted of defrauding the O. W. R. & N. company out of several thousand dollars while employed as clerk in the purchasing department.

Miss Elwert was recently sued in the circuit court for $50,000 by a man alleging that she agreed to marry him then failed to do so.

RUSSIANS REPORT A BIG VICTORY ON SAN OVER THE AUSTRIANS

Indignation at Petrograd at Report of Handcuffing of Russian General Martos.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Petrograd, Sept. 21.—Further Russian advances in Galicia were claimed today by the war office here. In a night attack on Dubieck, on the River San, it was said the Austrians were overwhelmed and thousands of prisoners and many guns were captured.

An official denial was issued to the German charge that General Martos, a Russian officer captured in East Prussia, had instructions to burn East Prussian villages and kill their male inhabitants. It was denied also that he ordered such burnings or killings without orders.

Reprisals were threatened in case the German court-martial, which it was said would try him, should sentence him to death.

The greatest indignation was expressed at reports that Martos had been taken to Berlin in chains, handcuffed to a private soldier, and that he had been exhibited to the crowds at railroad stations on the road.

German, Austrian Embassies Guarded

Home Takes Care to Prevent Demonstrations Against Representatives of Peoples She May Fight.

Rome, Sept. 21.—The German and Austrian embassies here were strongly guarded today against popular demonstrations of hostility.

Feeling was directed more particularly against the Austrians, but the Germans, as well as the former allies, came in for a good share of the people's dislike.

Concerning the prospects of Italy's entrance into the European war, nothing new could be learned. Strictly guarded was observed at all the government offices.

Weather Hampers Operations

London, Sept. 21.—The Franco-British military operations in the north realize today the strength of the German positions along the River Aisne.

The former's losses, it was admitted, were staggering. The weather, however, pronounced the situation favorable from the allies' standpoint.

General von Kluck's position, at the extreme German line, was very serious, despite the fact that he was receiving reinforcements estimated to be 100,000 strong.

More seriously hampering operations, showed no improvement. Rain fell steadily and the whole of the fighting zone was being converted rapidly into a huge bog.

Russians Invading Germany

The Hague, Sept. 21.—Following their victory at Lyck, German troops are pushing rapidly to the southeastward into Russian territory, according to Berlin advices received here today.

News of their occupation, after a brief engagement, of the towns of Grajewo and Soudozoy, and of their defeat of the fourth brigade of Finnish riflemen near Augustow, showed that the campaign was being pushed rapidly.

Florence Teacher Drowned in River

Florence, Or., Sept. 21.—Jean Sherman was drowned yesterday in Slusness Bay, near the Mission Agency, Hazel and Alice Weatherston, had been boating and their craft tipped over as they tried to make a landing. Miss Sherman was thrown under a scow.

The others were saved. Miss Sherman was an assistant teacher in the Florence high school. The body has not yet been recovered.

Must Show Credentials

Adolph Lowenthal, one time public defender, is to be cited into Circuit Judge Morrow's court to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. Lowenthal recently appeared to defend two highwaymen and was questioned as to his license to practice law. He assured Judge Morrow that he had been admitted to the bar and offered to produce papers to that effect. He has since failed to produce the evidence and no trace of any license can be found. It is alleged that he has been practicing without having been admitted to practice.

CLUB WOMEN OF OREGON DECRY FIGHT UPON CHAMBERLAIN

Grudge Attack of Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage Denounced.

INSULT TO HOME STATE

This Is View of Leaders Who Say Chamberlain Has Betrayed Woman Suffrage Cause.

Oregon club women are not taking kindly to the invasion of the state by Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs, who has come here from the east, as a representative of the Congressional Union for Woman's Suffrage, to instruct the Oregon women how to vote in the November election.

Chamberlain, whose name she is seeking to retailate against the Democratic party, which she holds responsible for the failure of congress to submit a woman suffrage constitutional amendment, by endeavoring to defeat all Democratic congressional candidates in equal suffrage states. In this state she is preparing to wage a campaign against the reelection of Senator George W. Chamberlain, whose name she is opposing for the suffrage amendment.

"This is an insult to the intelligence of Oregon women," declared Mrs. Millie R. Trumbull, secretary of the called labor commission and prominent in club circles, at a meeting of the council of State Federation of Women's Clubs at the Benson hotel yesterday. About 75 members, from Portland and all over the Willamette valley, were present.

Deemed an Insult. "It is an insult to our gratitude," continued Mrs. Trumbull, "coming here to ask Oregon women to support against men who are the strongest advocates of equal suffrage.

"It looks to me like a movement of the 'big interests,' who want to get rid of the senators who oppose their efforts to get special privileges. The Democratic congress has passed a number of measures of great benefit to the common people, and I must believe that a movement under the guise of woman suffrage to defeat Democratic candidates regardless of their individual support of woman suffrage."

"Report has it that Mrs. Stubbs has $15,000 to spend in this state. I would like to know where she is getting this money? It looks like Republican money. It looks like a Republican money movement shows very little respect for the intelligence of suffrage women. We know we will get the votes of Senators Chamberlain and Ahe for the most part of Oregon, and we will throw them away."

Not a Partisan Matter. "Has the Republican party gone on record in favor of equal suffrage? If it has, it is a partisan matter. I think other interests are using suffrage as a cloak for something else.

"I think other interests besides merely supporters of woman suffrage are putting up the money. The women of Oregon should resent this invasion of our state, regardless of how they intend to vote. I don't think the women should go to hear them speak, or have anything to do with them. I think the women of all parties should resent their coming.

"These women are now seeking the defeat of Democratic candidates on the ground of suffrage. If they are successful, the next time it will be something else."

Mrs. M. L. Hadden, 722 Wasco street, an active club and suffrage worker, is very indignant over Mrs. Stubbs' assumption of superior intelligence by coming to Oregon to tell the Oregon women how to vote.

"It is insulting to think of an outsider coming to Oregon expecting to corral us in a movement against any party, whether Democratic, Republican or Socialist," said Mrs. Hadden. "This ought to be shown she is not wanted here."

"I hope the women of Oregon will stand on a higher plane. We have received help from men in all parties and we are prepared to get that help. And I think the women of this state will not look for the party label, but will be able to decide whom to support and whom to oppose, but in choosing our public officials will vote for the man who will best represent the people of Oregon."

We want to maintain our independence and stand for the highest ideas. I really feel that this movement is outrageous."

Had No Money in Bank. Justice Knispel, soap box orator, who was convicted on appeal last Saturday of selling morphine, will be sentenced by Circuit Judge Morrow next Monday to the Oregon reformatory. Morrow's court Saturday was called Knispel gave stenographer J. F. Wood a check for the reporting fee. Wood refused to file the money, which was forthcoming. His messenger discovered that Knispel had no bank account to cover the check and the trial was held by Judge Morrow until the matter was adjusted by Knispel's bondsman.

Will Discuss Civic Problems. A meeting will be held tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Sherman, 552 East Twenty-ninth street, under the auspices of the Missionary society of the Methodist Presbyterian church, Mrs. M. L. Hadden will deliver an address on civic problems.

War Tax Measure Is Now in House

Penny Tax Imposed on All Telephone and Telegraphic Messages Costing More Than 15 Cents.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The war tax bill was introduced in the house today by Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee, to which it was referred, and will be reported tomorrow. The measure will be considered by the house Thursday.

Except for taxes on beer, wine and gasoline, the measure follows closely the war tax imposed during the Spanish-American war. The method of collecting a tax on telephones and telegrams will be changed. Instead of affixing a stamp on telegrams, the company will be required to keep a record of all messages and remit a penny for each. A penny tax also will be imposed on all telephone messages. The telephone and telegraph tax applies to all messages costing more than 15 cents and does not affect local telephone calls.

U. S. Circuit Court Of Appeals Sitting

Judges Gilbert, Ross and Morrow Sit in Full Official Regalia and Hear Arguments.

The United States circuit court of appeals for the Ninth district, began its fall Portland term here this morning, with Judges W. M. Gilbert, Erskine Ross and W. M. Morrow, in full regalia.

Two cases appealed from the Idaho federal courts were argued. The first was that of J. M. Leiter and Floyd J. Campbell against Thomas S. Poindecker.

The second case was that of the Stockgrowers State Bank of Mountain Home against the First National bank of Mountain Home against Charles E. Coriker.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon an ex-parte motion on the part of attorneys for the government against R. S. Southern Pacific Railroad company in regard to preparing the record of the appeal of the Oregon & California railroad land grant suit to the United States supreme court was heard.

Appeal in the case of the state of Oregon, the county of Multnomah and the city of Portland against R. S. Howard Jr., receiver for the Title Guarantee & Trust company, in which the county of Oregon and the city of Portland are parties, was heard later in the afternoon and probably tomorrow morning the sessions here will continue under the presentation of the suit of Charles Edward Grele against the city of Eugene.

Deliberations Begun By Federal Jury

William C. Alvord Is President and H. P. Palmer Is Secretary of Autumn Jury; Four Are Excused.

With William C. Alvord, president of the Willamette Iron & Steel works, as chairman, and H. P. Palmer, of the H. P. Palmer-Jones company, as secretary, the autumn United States grand jury, made up for the most part of Portland business men, began its deliberations this morning.

Fritz Abendroth, jeweler; D. A. Pattulo, of the Crown Flour mills; Charles F. Berg, of the Lennon company, and F. M. Johnson did not appear and Judge Bean ordered the United States marshal to bring them into court. Their explanations were accepted. Mr. Abendroth appeared later with a satisfactory excuse and Mr. Pattulo is out of the city. All four were excused from the jury service because the panel is filled up.

The body will probably be in session off and on for six weeks. The panel as finally accepted is as follows: J. C. Ainsworth, banker, Portland; William C. Alvord, foreman, president Willamette Iron & Steel works, Portland; Walter J. Albert, salesman, Portland; Charles A. Bartlesay, Bowling; L. P. Beno, Portland; Charles C. Byers, Portland; F. H. Call, Portland; David Chambers, Portland; H. D. Curtis, Portland; H. F. Dutton, Portland; D. Ellery, Portland; Graham Glass, Portland; Alden Gardner, Portland; W. R. Haislip, Portland; F. M. Johnson, Portland; Thomas Murphy, Portland; H. P. Palmer, Portland, secretary; Joseph Saunders, Portland; A. H. Thomas, Portland, and Charles Westcott, Gaston.

WOULD SELL THE CITY HALL

Householder Makes Threat in Letter to Treasurer.

The city hall is in a fair way to be sold this morning, if G. A. Pietold, 708 East Thirteenth street, is able to carry out a threat made in a letter received by City Treasurer Adams this morning.

Pietold states that he has just completed a house at a cost of $5000 and has assessed that amount to the city hall. He says that if the city does not pay the assessment within 10 days he will sell the city hall to the highest bidder.

A letter followed the notice sent Pietold by the city treasurer that the assessment against his property for street work was delinquent and if not paid within a certain time his property would be sold.

Two Divorce Suits Brought.

A charge of first degree murder was filed this morning in the municipal court against John Luciano, proprietor of a saloon at Fourth and Sheridan streets, for shooting Secondo Cocco Saturday morning in the saloon. An inquest will be held this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. When arrested, Luciano told a story of self-defense. A pistol was found under his coat and a certain investigation by the detectives indicate the weapon was placed there after the shooting.

Is Accused of Murder.

Two divorces in which cruelty was charged, were filed this morning by two women. Anna S. Thomas asks for a divorce from Evan J. Thomas and the return of her former name, Anna Miller. They were married in Buffalo, N. Y., September 5, 1904. Annie M. Byrn asks for a divorce from Claude D. Byrn, custody of their two children and a week for the support of the children. They were married at Salem, Or., December 31, 1905.

REMONSTRANCE WINS AND HARD SURFACING PLAN MEETS DEFEAT

Proposed Use of Hassam on East Lincoln Street Opposed by Holders.

PROJECT WAS EXTENSIVE

Promoters of Improvement Will Now Have to Wait Six Months Before Making Another Attempt.

Owing to the remonstrances filed today against the proposed type of pavement for the hard surfacing of East Lincoln street, from Fifteenth to Sixtieth streets, all proceedings have been automatically killed and it will be impossible to again start proceedings within six months.

School Attendance Shows a Big Gain

Friday Total Registration Amounted to 25,522 and Actual Gain Is Between 1500 and 2000.

Last Friday there were registered in the public schools of Portland 25,522 children. This was the last day of the first week of school. The corresponding Friday of last year 23,122 children were registered. A gain of 407 for this year is thus shown.

It is said that the actual gain would be between 1500 and 2000 had it not been for the rule preventing unvaccinated children from coming to school for two weeks. This rule has greatly lessened the attendance at Creston, Arleta, Hoffman and Woodmere schools. The registration at Creston on the opening day was 400, but only 150 last Friday.

It is expected that the per capita cost of education in the public schools this year will be higher than last year. It is not possible to state now what the increase will be, says School Clerk R. H. Thomsen. The war has increased the cost of articles brought from Europe in some instances as much as 200 per cent. Until the budget has been made up and the total registration determined, it will not, however, be possible to say what the cost will be.

The per capita cost for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1913, was $39.99 for high schools, $44.25 for elementary schools and $139.93 for special schools, such as the schools for the deaf. An instance of increase of cost is furnished by the board's ruling eliminating slates. Paper pads were substituted and several carloads were bought. The children had been required to pay for their slates.

Garrison Mum on Removing Troops

Withdrawal Date, It Is Estimated, Depends on Outcome of Diplomatic Negotiations Now Pending.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Secretary of War Garrison conferred with President Wilson today, but he would not say when the withdrawal of American troops from Vera Cruz will start.

Garrison told the president that the transports would be ready to start home with the troops either September 25 or 26. The withdrawal date, it was intimated, depends on the completion of certain diplomatic matters.

Reports that priests and nuns were destitute in Vera Cruz were denied by Secretary Garrison. He also denied that the war department would furnish them with transportation home.

Allies Supreme on Seas, Says France

Bordeaux, Sept. 21.—"The allies' warships are supreme on the seas," announced the French admiralty today. "The allies are supreme on both the German and Austrian coasts."

"We are certain of ultimate success if the war is prolonged." "Special reference was made to the Mediterranean."

"Our ships," it was stated, "have successfully conveyed from Africa the transports bringing French soldiers."

"The French, aided by the British, are assuring the security of the Mediterranean."

TO TAKE UP ALASKA BILL

Washington, Sept. 21.—Senator Simmons of North Carolina assured President Wilson today that the senate would undertake the passage of the Alaska coal bill during the present session. The president favors the bill and believes the possibility of a cessation of coal supplies from British Columbia for Alaska as a result of the European war makes it necessary to pass the measure at the earliest possible date.

Redding, Cal., Sept. 21.—Mount Lassen was in eruption today for the forty-eighth time since its crater burst into activity last spring. The outbreak was an unusually sharp one, residents of Macomber flats, nine miles from the peak, declaring their houses were shaken by the shock. The crater was in eruption twice Sunday.

Opium Case in Court

In Circuit Judge Morrow's courtroom today a jury is trying Seid Yo on an appealed opium sale conviction. During the trial tests of the substance in a alleged Seid Yo sold to Dan O'Mara, a crippled newsboy, as opium for 65 cents, were made. W. J. Staples, a chemist, performed the test and he testified that he found the substance to be opium.

Writs for Butte Union Men Denied

However Applications Can Be Renewed in 30 Days If Militia Fails to Transfer Prisoners to Courts.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 21.—Applications for writs of habeas corpus sought for "Muckie" McDonald, president of the new miners' union in Butte, and other military prisoners, were denied today by the state supreme court with the proviso that if the militia fails to transfer the prisoners to the civil authorities within 30 days the applications may be renewed.

The decision was regarded as a victory for the miners, as it virtually deprives the military authorities of jurisdiction in the case.
