MAKE IT A FINISH FIGHT SENATOR CHAMBERLAIN will be elected.

Those who are trying by fair means and foul to defeat him are wasting their time. They are wasting their energies. They are wasting their money.

They are as afraid of his orations as of dum dum bullets. They have even become skittish over his well known production, "A Greater Oregon."

THE HILLSBORO paper does the Germans great injustice. It does the Scandinavians great injustice. It does the French and Austrian and other high class European-born workers in this country great injustice.

A LONG WAR THE military experts are predicting that the war is to be a long one. This prediction is based on the inability of either side to deliver a crushing blow.

DUMDUM BULLETS CHARGES that the allies have used dum dum bullets have brought denials. Similar charges have been frequently made in recent wars.

A WORLD'S LOSS RHEIMS, whose historic buildings are reported to have been destroyed by German artillery, has been a city of importance since the time of the Romans.

THE EXEMPTION SMALL corporations would not be allowed exemption under the $1500 exemption measure, the Oregonian truthfully declares.

finished thirty years later, together with the transepts and part of the nave, while the superb west facade dates from the latter part of the thirteenth century.

This last was adorned with three exquisite recessed portals containing in more or less good state of preservation over 500 statues.

The famous clock with its mechanical figures was in the north transept. It was said to be the oldest moving piece of clockwork in existence and dated from the sixteenth century.

WHY NOT A SINGING TOUR D. W. WITHYCOMBE is campaigning in Eastern Oregon. But he isn't making speeches.

After an uproarious experience with him, the Portland "advisers" fear his speeches may backfire. They are as afraid of his orations as of dum dum bullets.

As governor and senator for a dozen years, his life has been an open book in Oregon. All the people know all about it. That makes it useless for his opponents to try to tell them something different about it.

There are no better workers in the world than these and other foreign-born immigrants, no matter what the Independent and Dr. Withycombe may claim as a Chinaman. It is far better for them to have opportunity to buy the raw land at low prices.

THE EVERLASTING CONFLICT J. B. ZIEGLER defends himself in the Oregonian against the charge made that he is an "undesirable citizen."

When the nations legislated at the Hague against bullets capable of gouging to the size of a tea-cup at their points of exit, which the modern high-power, small caliber, soft nosed bullet will do, it was an attempt to "civilize" warfare.

will probably never end. In brute life, the strong dominate the weak, and in the present state of human nature, most of the strong attempt and to a great extent, ply the same process.

Portland women are raising the question of where the $15,000 comes from that Mrs. Stubbs, of Illinois, is going to spend in Oregon to beat Chamberlain. They say Oregon women had only $1800 in the fight in which they won suffrage in 1912.

WOMAN CHAMPIONS CRITICIZED. Vancouver, Wash., Sept. 25.—To the Editor of The Journal.—A letter signed Ella M. Finney says Mrs. Abigail Scott Loomis is a woman of great ability.

Individual Liberty. The Dalles, Or., Sept. 24.—To the Editor of The Journal.—In the Journal of September 21, W. S. Hollis and W. H. Black attack Mrs. Dunniway's stand for personal liberty.

THE PRICES TO THE FARMER. Portland, Sept. 25.—To the Editor of The Journal.—I have just finished reading the most despicable paper that was ever printed, called the Oregonian.

TESTIMONY AS TO MAINE. McMinnville, Or., Sept. 25.—To the Editor of The Journal.—The prohibition history of Maine is now continuing to be written.
