of their daughter, Mrs. Lucy Nicolal Betts, to Ernest C. Duncan. The ceremony took place at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Emma Duncan, September 15.

Mrs. Warren E. McCord has issued cards for an elaborate bridge tea for next Friday afternoon at her Portland Heights home, in Ford street.

A simple though charmingly appointed wedding was that of Miss Hazel Henrys and Amandus Pfander, which took place last Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. Edward Manning, 1199 Haight avenue, Piedmont. Rev. Mr. Kerr read the ceremony at 7:30 p. m. before an assemblage of about 105 guests. A reception followed from 8:30 until 11 o'clock. There were no attendants. The bride and groom took their places amidst a bower of flowers and greenery. The rooms were beautifully adorned with pink asters and ferns with stately palms and other potted plants. The bride was gowned most becomingly in an imported robe of Venetian lace and seed pearls draped over white charmeuse. Her veil was also imported, a hand embroidered chiffon which was draped from the back of her coiffure which was wreathed with orange blossoms and it fell to the hem of her long court train. She carried a great shower bouquet of Bride roses, lilies of the valley and white cyclamens.

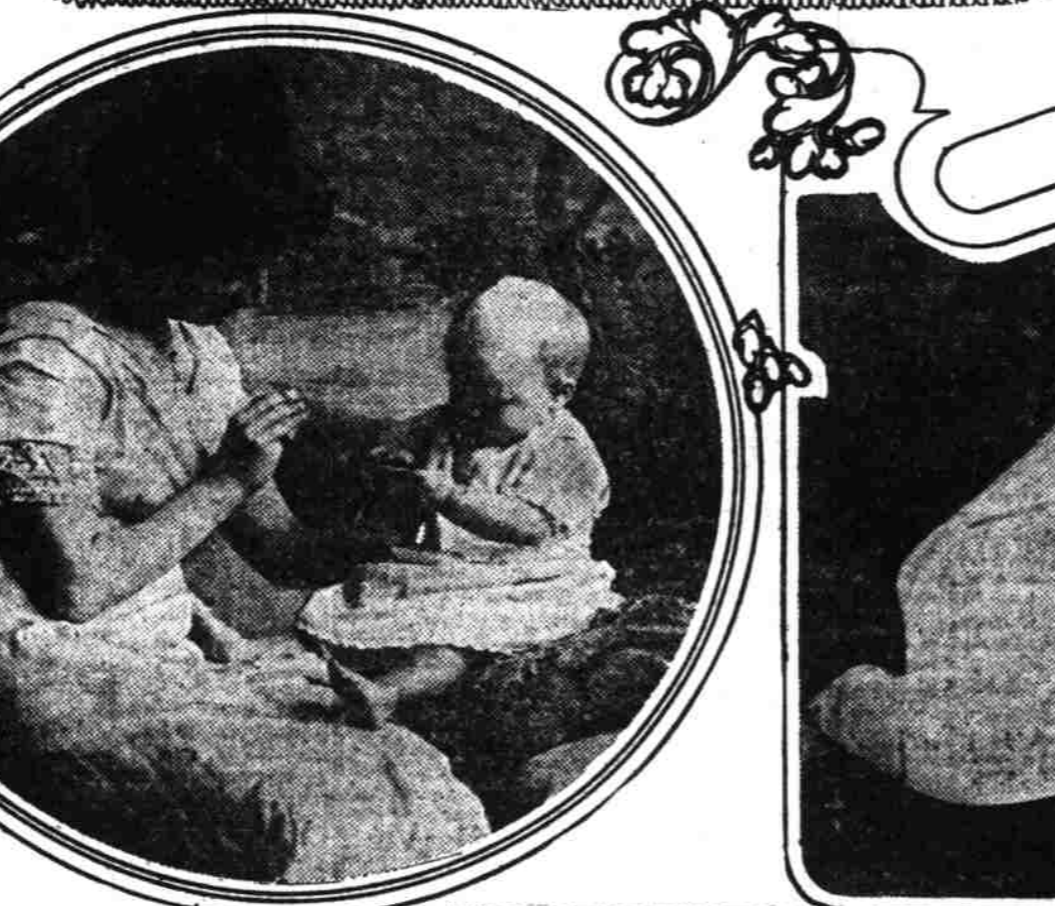

K. Scott, C. E. Cochran, E. S. Higgins, Walter O. Haines, H. A. Conner and Robert Krohn.

Assisting in receiving the guests were Mrs. A. C. Holmes, Mrs. George Parrish and Mrs. Phil Neu. There were 20 card tables arranged in the card rooms on the balcony with both "500" and auction. The following ladies were in charge: Mrs. F. W. Patt, Mrs. Max Smith, Mrs. C. E. Cochran, Mrs. E. K. Scott, Mrs. H. A. Conner, Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mrs. O. W. Kennedy, Mrs. Walter O. Haines, Mrs. C. L. Horn, Mrs. J. Grebel, Mrs. W. O. Spencer and Miss Isabelle de Fries.

Presiding over the refreshments was Mrs. George L. Baker, who was assisted by the following young girls: Miss Marian Spoerl, Miss Helen Rose, Miss Marjorie Pike, Miss Myrtle Grebel, Miss Bernadene Grebel, Miss Mabel Riggs, Miss Dorrie Skeel, Miss Edith Camp, Miss Dorothy Ariss and Miss Winnifred Kendall.

One of the most enjoyable social events held in Lentis this fall was the silver tea given in honor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, given by Mrs. Arthur Geisler at her beautiful home on Main street on Wednesday, from 2 to 4 p. m. The house was decorated with autumn leaves and asters. An
