

Social and Personal

BY NONA LAWLER

MISS SARA CATHERINE EMMONS, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Emmons, was married yesterday morning to Hall Stoner Lusk, the Rev. Father George Thompson of the Church of the Madeleine officiating. The wedding was simple, the couple being unattended. Only the relatives and a few close friends were present. A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents in Elvada.

The bride is a clever and interesting girl with a host of friends in the younger set. She is a gifted miniature artist. She graduated from St. Helens hall, later finishing at Dana hall. The engagement was announced last April at a tea given by her sister, Mrs. Harold Sydney Smith. Mr. Lusk is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lusk of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Clarkson to Entertain.

Mrs. James Francis Clarkson has sent out cards for a large auction bridge party Saturday, October 10, at her handsome Irvington residence in East Twenty-first and Siskiyou streets.

For Mr. and Mrs. Arens.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hausmann entertained at dinner at the Mallory hotel on Wednesday complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Franz X. Arens, well known local leaders of New York. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Everett Brodie, Miss Getta Wasserman, Miss Marjorie Hausmann.

In Farewell.

As a farewell party to their friends on Marquand Hill Mrs. A. M. Mills and daughter, Mrs. Jane A. Ellis, entertained with a most delightful lawn party Thursday night. The lawn was a fairyland with its autumn leaves and ferns and chrysanthemums hung among the trees. Many games were played and the old time dances were enjoyed. Late in the evening a most delightful luncheon was served on tables beautifully arranged under the trees. The guests were delighted with the favors, which were carried out in the form of tiny vegetables and fruits from the garden. Portions were written on the plates, which afforded great amusement when they were read. The table was a bower of autumn leaves and Oregon grapes with candles peeping out from among the greens. Covers were laid for 25 guests.

Brix-Whitmer Nuptials.

Simple, though exceptionally pretty, the marriage of Miss Julie Henriette Whitmer and Lester A. Brix was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Westminster Presbyterian church in Irvington. Rev. Henry Marotte officiating. The young couple were unattended and Frank Cronan and Herbert Brasel assisted the guests. The bride wore her going away suit of blue French serge with chic black velvet hat and a corsage bouquet of orange and madone hair fern. The church was prettily decorated with white chrysanthemums and ferns.

A small reception followed at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Whitmer, 737 Broadway street. Here again huge clusters of white and yellow chrysanthemums were used to decorate the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Brix left for an extended wedding trip to the Canadian Rockies, after which they will be at home to their friends at their new home in Knappton, Wash.

Miss McKelvey to Wed.

This evening at 6 o'clock the wedding of Miss Kina McKelvey and Dr. Thomas W. Ross will be solemnized at the St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral, the Very Rev. H. M. Ramsey officiating. Only the relatives will be present, and the bride and bridegroom will stand unattended. Miss McKelvey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. McKelvey. She is a pretty and attractive girl, with a wide circle of friends. Dr. Ross is a graduate of Columbia University in New York, and has studied abroad. He is the son of Mrs. Sarah Ross of Astoria.

They plan to leave after the ceremony for a two weeks' trip, after which they will be at home to their friends at their charming new houseboat at the Oregon Yacht club.

Arcadian Subscription Dancing Club Party.

Invitations are out for the Arcadian Subscription Dancing club's opening party (tomorrow evening) at the pension hall, Eleventh and Yamhill. The hall will be beautifully decorated for the occasion, and some novelties, with special music, will be introduced. A five minute demonstration of the twinkle hesitation will be given by Mr. and Mrs. M. Christensen. The Arcadians have planned a series of informal parties to be given the last Thursday of each month. The reception committee for tomorrow evening's party is: Ralston J. Clary, Miss Adele Barnickel, Fred L. Carlton, Miss Ada G. Paget, Mrs. James H. Abrey, Jerrold Owen, Mrs. Royden Coster, Miss Lorraine Appel and Miss Anne Dillinger.

Madeleine Parish at Home.

The members of the Madeleine parish in Irvington will celebrate the third anniversary of the building of their church with a large reception next Tuesday evening, October 6, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Clarkson in East Twenty-first and Siskiyou streets. Elaborate preparations have been made for this event which bids

"ELLEN SEEMS HAPPY"

"Not Much Wonder! She Just Bought a Suit at Cherry's on Credit!"

"Poor little thing. You'd feel happy, too, if you'd been wearing the same old shiny blue serge for a year, and suddenly found a way to buy a spick-and-span new suit without depleting your purse."

"My, you interest me. Tell me about it. Perhaps it will help me, for this 'clothes question' is the bane of my life."

"Of course, you know all the trouble Ellen's family has had lately. She was actually so shabby that she had to go to work. But one of the girls told her about Cherry's, so up they went one day."

"Ellen simply went into raptures over the pretty things, and finally decided on a beautiful broad-cloth suit, combining the most style and practicality. She simply paid a small deposit down and took the suit home. Now she pays the balance in easy monthly installments. She's so sorry she didn't know about Cherry's sooner."

"That does sound good. What's Cherry's number? Oh, yes, I know—they are in the Pittcock block, 339-331 Washington st." (Adv.)

Thirty-fifth streets. This is an annual affair, and is always well attended.

Past Grand Sachem Returns.
T. F. Fessler, past grand sachem of the Red Men, returned from Portland, Maine, last Monday. He reports that San Francisco is to be the place for the next national convention.

New Quarters Opened.
Lulu Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, last Monday opened its new quarters on East Morrison, near Grand avenue, with a dance and card party.

Multnomah Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, Tuesday evening, in their hall at Third and Madison, adopted several "nelfaces" and otherwise had a good time.

Minnehaha tribe of Red Men will give a five hundred card party at their hall on Third and Madison streets to-night.

PERSONAL MENTION

Farewell Sermon.
Rev. Delmer H. Trimble, pastor of Centenary M. E. church, East Ninth and Pine streets, whose transfer to the pastorate of the First M. E. church at Tacoma was announced at the termination of the Oregon conference last Monday by Bishop Cooke, will deliver his farewell sermon Sunday. The Trimble will leave for their new home the following Tuesday, and Rev. Thomas W. Lane, the retiring pastor of the Tacoma church who takes Centenary, will be here to take up work Sunday, October 11. Dr. Trimble's morning sermon subject is, "Some Parting Words," and in the evening he will speak on the theme, "Finally, Brethren, Farewell." A farewell reception will be held at the parsonage tomorrow evening.

Inspector Dunlap Returns.
Edward P. Dunlap, chief city electrical inspector, has returned to his desk after an extended trip to the middle west and northwest, during which time he made a study of the electrical requirements of the cities he visited. Few, he states, are farther advanced than Portland.

County Commissioner D. V. Hart returned yesterday, after a vacation spent at the Pendleton Round-Up and in Umatilla county.

Community House Suggested.
At the behest of the Sunnyside Improvement club and the Parent Teacher circles of the Sunnyside, Richmond, Kearns, Fernwood, Hawthorne and Glenwood schools, a meeting has been called for tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Sunnyside school to discuss the plan of a community house in that district. All those who are interested are urged to be present.

Price Put on Their Heads.
San Francisco, Oct. 1.—It was reported the Chinese government had placed $10,000 on the head of each of 12 members of the local oriental colony because they belong to a society the government deems revolutionary.

Hair Tinting All the Rage

The Absolute and Utter Harmlessness of "Brownatone" Has Made Hair Tinting Safe and Easy.

You need not tolerate gray, streaked or faded hair another day. It takes but a few moments to apply "Brownatone" with your comb or brush, and the result is a rich, lustrous, "touching up" once a month should keep your hair the beautiful shade you most desire. It results always the same—always pleasing. Will not rub or wash off and guaranteed to contain none of the dangerous ingredients so often found in "dyes."

It is compared in two shades. One to produce golden or medium brown, the other, dark brown or black.

Sample and booklet sent on receipt of 10c. "Brownatone" is sold by leading drug stores in two sizes—20c and $1.00. Order direct from Kenton Pharmaceutical Co., 531 E. Pike street, Covington, Ky., if your druggist will not supply you. You will save yourself much annoyance by refusing to accept substitutes.

Insist on "Brownatone" at your hairdresser's.

For sale by The Owl Drug Co., 70 stores on the Pacific coast. (Adv.)
