CAUSE AND CURE OF UNEMPLOYMENT TO BE LECTURE TOPICS

Professors Wood and Ogburn of Reed College to Give a Sunday Evening Series.

A course of four lectures on the general topic, "The Cause and Cure of Unemployment," is to be given by Professors Wood and Ogburn of Reed college Sunday evenings in October at the Church of Our Father, Unitarian, Broadway and Yamhill streets.

The series opens tomorrow night, when Professor Wood will speak on the subject, "Who Are the Unem-ployed?" Professor Ogburn's address on October 11 will endeavor to answer the question, "Why Are They Unemployed?" On October 18 Professor Wood will discuss "The Problem in Portland," and Professor Ogburn will conclude October 25 with an address, "The Answer to the Problem."

The first Sunday in October at this church has been observed for many years as Home Coming Sunday, and will be so observed tomorrow, but precedence will be given to the Day of Prayer for Peace, ordered by Presi Dr. Eliot in the morning will speak

Sunday Schools to Hold a Convention

The Mennonite Sunday schools of the state will hold a convention at Zion church, Polk station, Polk county, on the last Sunday in November, preliminary to the organization of a permanent convention. The principal object of this permanent organization, and the object which makes the proposed organization different from other Sunday school associations of the state, is the proposal for members of this organization to perpetuate the German language by teaching that language exclusively in all children's meetings. Backers of this movement regard the Sunday school as the most feasible method of teaching the language to children of the rural dis-

YOUNG PEOPLE WILL OBSERVE WEEK WITH A GENERAL PROGRAM

Conference Subjects for Various Nights Announced for the Session.

Under the auspices of the Portland Baptist Young People's Union, young people's week is to be observed practically every night next week at the White Temple. The institute is being held to help officers and leaders of the Baptist Young People's societies to be more efficient in the leadership tasks, and it will be under the auspices of Rev. J. D. Springston, director of young people's work for the northwest. The conference method will be used at each of the meetings, so that leaders may bring up for consideration the things that directly concern them in their local society work or in their The short time of preparation for the institute was designed to enforce a snappy, intense campaign, and the leaders in each local society were urged to make a thorough canvass in the effort to have their members attend the sessions.

Monday night the conference subject is "An Efficient Campaign"; Tuesday night, "The How and Why of Study Courses," and Wednesday night, "How Conduct Devotional and Other Meetings." Thursday night the regular prayer meeting services will be held and the conference resumed Friday night with a discussion of "Methods of Extension and Promotion of the Local Society Work." The conference ends with a Sunday afternoon session, when "General and Personal Evangelism" will be discussed.

'Come to Church" Committee Slogan

During the past week the Waverly Heights Congregational church, Woodward avand East Thirty-third street, has had a committee canvassing the parish, calling at 1200 homes, ascertaining church affiliations and distributing over 600 "Come to church" invitations. This is in line with Rally Day, to be appropriately observed tomorrow. Following the Sunday school exercises, there will be a communion service and reception of members at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Albert C. Moses, will deliver a sermon in line with President Wilson's Peace Prayer proclamation tomorrow night. The membership of Waverly church will be largely increased tomorrow, due to the activities of the pastor and workers in the last few weeks. The congregations have more than quadrupled in size since
