

TILLAMOOK WOMEN'S CLUB UNIT IN FIGHT TO ELECT DR. SMITH

Organization Is Really Non-Partisan and It Is Out to Pick Best Man.

GIVE REASON FOR PLEDGE

Democratic Candidate Stands for the Home and Moral Cleansing of Society, the Members Say.

Tillamook, Or., Oct. 3.—Drawing its membership from the prominent women of Tillamook, from those who class themselves as Republicans as well as from the Democrats, a Smith-for-Governor club was organized at an enthusiastic meeting of women held Monday afternoon at Hotel Tillamook. The officers of the club are as follows: President, Mrs. Norman Myers; vice president, Mrs. Robert Leonard; secretary, C. E. Trombley; executive committee, Mrs. Mary Lamar, Mrs. G. L. Dick, Mrs. S. M. Wendt, Mrs. F. W. Todd, Miss Annie I. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. A. A. Worrall, Mrs. A. J. Carpenter and Mrs. W. J. Hill.

By inclusion in its membership of women who are affiliated with the Republican and other parties, the club is really a non-partisan organization out to elect Dr. C. J. Smith as governor because they believe he stands for the things which lie closest to the heart of women voters.

Reasons They Advance.
What some of these things are is told in resolutions adopted by the club, as follows:

Be it Resolved by the Tillamook Women's Smith-for-Governor club, That we endorse Dr. C. J. Smith for governor and pledge him not only our own votes, but our loyal and entire support to his campaign; and that we give these as our reasons for so doing:

That Dr. Smith in his public and private life has always been on the side of the home and good government. That Dr. Smith's well known interest in the public schools and his long experience as school director specially qualify him to advance and protect the schools, which is our first interest after the home.

That Dr. Smith's fearless and outspoken stand for law enforcement entitles him to the support of every good woman. Our lives and the lives and fortunes of our homes and our children are unalterably bound up in the restriction of vice and immorality of all kinds, and in Dr. Smith we believe we would have a governor firm and fearless for the right and on the side of all good things.

Active Interest Taken.
Mrs. Norman Myers, president of the club, is also president of the Ladies Aid society of the Christian church, and is an active worker along lines of special interest to the home.

All the women are taking active interest in the work outlined for the club in the state. The members of the new club are as follows:

Club Membership.
Mrs. Norman Myers, president; Mrs. Robert Leonard, vice president; Mrs. C. E. Trombley, secretary; Mrs. Mary Lamar, Mrs. G. L. Dick, Mrs. S. M. Wendt, executive committee; Mrs. A. MacKenzie, Mrs. W. B. Maddis, Mrs. R. D. Lamar, Mrs. John Lamar, Mrs. Thomas Conley, Mrs. Merrill Smith, Mrs. P. W. Tor, Mrs. B. R. Hayes, Mrs. Henry Van Winkle, Mrs. S. S. Johnson, Mrs. C. R. Monk, Miss Annie I. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Hope M. Watson, Mrs. Luella Nelson, Mrs. A. A. Worrall, Mrs. A. J. Carpenter, Mrs. Larson, Miss Eva Larson, Mrs. J. Bailey.

Sound Ports Are Watched.
Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—United States Immigration Commissioner Henry M. White yesterday received advices from the Canadian authorities of the proposed attempts of the reservists to enter this country without passing through the regular channels.

In the report of the Canadian authorities of her pastor, that in addition to the Clevee, two other vessels had departed from Vancouver which were supposed to have reservists aboard them whom they would attempt to smuggle into America.

The term reservists, however, was not used in the dispatches, and the immigrants, if discovered, will not be questioned as to their intentions to enter military service, but merely as to their desirability as citizens.

Every small port on Puget sound is closely watched by the military authorities, and if the other vessels appear they immediately will be held up for investigation.

Girl Bandit Released.
San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Nina Luke, alleged girl bandit, accused of holding up George Brown with Fred Riest and Peter Nelson, was released today on her own recognizance, through the efforts of her pastor, the Rev. Dr. Frank de Fries Miller of the Holy Innocents Memorial church. He appeared before Police Judge Deasy this morning to say that the girl's bail be fixed at a sum which he himself could furnish. When he told the court that Miss Luke was a member of his congregation and of his choir, Judge Deasy released her without bail.

"While I am sure that Nina's companions are thoroughly bad," said Dr. Miller, "I know that she is a good girl. I am convinced that she was compelled to accompany them under threats of physical violence."

Mrs. McColough Buried.
Albany, Or., Oct. 3.—The funeral of Mrs. W. A. McColough, who died here Thursday at the age of 63 years, of cancer, after a year's illness, was held yesterday afternoon, Rev. F. H. Geiselbracht, of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the services and interment took place in the city cemetery. The deceased had resided in Albany for many years.

Dean Vincent's Protest.
Washington, Oct. 3.—Dean Vincent, president of the Portland Realty board, wires Senator Chamberlain a strenuous protest against the proposed war tax on deeds, mortgages and contracts, alleging real estate now bears the heaviest burden of taxation. He also protests against the broker's license of $50.

Albany Will Have Election.
Albany, Or., Oct. 3.—Registration for the city election to be held December 7 is now in progress and will continue until the end of November. Chief of Police Anthony Austin was the first to register. City Recorder Van Tassel expects a registration much larger than that of last year as two referendum and one initiative measure are to be voted on this year. The people will be asked to decide whether the city should accept Bryant Park as a gift for park purposes, and whether the playing of cards should be prohibited in public places. The initiative measure asks that the moving picture shows be closed on Sunday.

Oregon Homesteads Can Be Enlarged

Secretary Lane Has Designated More Than 1,000,000 Acres in Oregon as Non-Irrigable Land.

Washington Bureau of the Journal. Washington, Oct. 3.—Secretary Lane has notified Senator Chamberlain that he has designated as non-irrigable more than 1,000,000 acres of land in Oregon. Persons having entries of 160 acres within the designated area may apply to enlarge their homesteads to 320 acres by taking up designated vacant land adjoining their present entries. The order will become effective November 10. The lands lie principally in Klamath, Wasco, Crook, Sherman, Wheeler, Morrow, Harney, Grant, Umatilla, Malheur and Baker counties.

Script Companies May Go to Court

President of Local Concern Says He Will Fight to Retain Name and Do Business in State.

Salem, Or., Oct. 3.—Corporation Commissioner Watson today notified the American Travel Script company, of Portland, that he would file the articles of the American Script company, of California, and let the Portland company make a fight in the courts, if it desired.

Under ordinary circumstances, I would say that the American Script company would have to change its name on account of the conflict," said Watson.

Dean Vincent's Protest.
Washington, Oct. 3.—Dean Vincent, president of the Portland Realty board, wires Senator Chamberlain a strenuous protest against the proposed war tax on deeds, mortgages and contracts, alleging real estate now bears the heaviest burden of taxation. to our name even if we have to go to the courts.

"As far as the American Script company is concerned, we welcome it in the Portland field as we recognize that competition is the life of trade and that their publicity campaign will serve to educate the public in the benefits of script."

"As far as the origin of 'script' is concerned, I am one of the six men who originated the idea and who formed the first script company in Los Angeles as the National Script company. Due to the fact that the men separated, two going to Honolulu, one to Oakland and myself to Portland, the National company passed out of existence. To get away from the old name one of the men who remained in Los Angeles hit upon the American Script company, while I myself, who started the company here in Portland, chose the American Travel company for the same reason."

Old Soldiers Deplore War.
Roseburg, Or., Oct. 3.—Local Civil War veterans have passed resolutions in which they deplore the great war now raging in Europe and resolve themselves to join with the nation in prayer for the early termination of the war.

WILHELM'S LUCK STONE

London, Oct. 3.—Englishmen are wondering whether Kaiser Wilhelm is wearing the famous Hohenzollern luck stone. It is said that upon the accession of Frederick the Great, he found among the possessions of his father a box containing a ring set with a peculiar black stone. A note written by Frederick stated that the ring had been given him by his father with the injunction that the Hohenzollerns would prosper so long as it remained in the family.

Excused From School Attendance.
London, Oct. 3.—All Boy Scouts on active semi-military service have been excused from school attendance during the war.

BUSH & LANE PIANOS

Are the best pianos in every respect that can be bought

THOROUGHNESS

Is the keynote of our manufacturing policy

In a few weeks we shall have the most beautiful Piano store in Portland, but just now carpenters and painters have things topsy-turvy and upside down.

Fine cases might be damaged and it's a strain to think of the risk of having fine pianos spoiled by lath and plaster. So we're sweeping out part of our immense stock—for even with additional floor space already contracted for we'll need every inch of room for the finest, biggest stock of Pianos in the most beautiful warerooms in Portland. They will be on display by November 1.

So we're making unheard-of prices on the following Pianos taken in trade on Bush & Lane Player Pianos, Pianos reprocessed from dealers and some shop-worn and discontinued styles. Here are a few:
