MASTER OF GRANGE URGES SUPPORT FOR TIDELAND MEASURE

"Grange Constitutionally Opposed to Monopoly in Anything," Says Speaker.

EXPLAINS THE PROVISIONS

Both Constitutional Amendment and Initiative Measure Should Be Passed. Is the Declaration of the Speaker.

"The grange is constitutionally opposed to monopoly in anything. I cann the principles of the grange, or for Third floor, Morgan fildg. that matter, anyone else not allied DRESS suits for rent, all sizes. Unique with the private interests, can do otherwise than support the proposed tidelands and docks constitutional amendment and initiative measure, declared J. J. Johnson, master of ber 22, a son.

To Encourage Shipping.

The United States government, by building the Panama canal and by building the Panama canal and by building great appropriations for harbor improvements, and the Port of Portland, by dredging the river, are seeking to encourage shipping, and thus provide water competition with rail facilities," the speaker continued, "and we should do our part by supporting these two measures, which have the same object in view."

NEPPACH—October 3, at 331 Hassalo street, John C. Neppach, and Speaker of Mrs. Mary Neppach, father of Carl J. and Antonio Neppach. The funeral will leave the above residence Tuesday, October 6, at 8:30 a. m., thence to the Holy Rosary church, East Third and Clackamas streets, where services will be held at 9 o'clock. Friends are invited. Interment Mt. Calvary cemetery. Oakland and San Francisco, Cal., Oshkosh and Saukville, Wis., papers please copy.

MAY—At the family residence, 705 Davis street, October 4, Helen May, aged 53 years, 11 months, 15 days, widow of the late Levi May, mother of Clarence B. May, Mrs. Walter Rossman, sister of Soi, Phil and Mose Blumauer. Funeral services will be held at Holman's funeral parlors at 10 a. m. tomorrow, Tuesday, October 6. Friends respectfully invited to attend. Mr. Johnson showed by going into the details of the measures that they are fair to all. Those who have imroved their waterfront property, even down, have secured an irrevocable license on the property, which these vited to attend. measures cannot take away; and the upland owner who has "slept on his rights" and has not improved his property will not be injured, as he has never exercised his rights to the property, and by his failure to do so has forfeited his right to any conhas forfeited his right to any con-

We must support both the constiitiative measure now," Mr. Johnson told his hearers, "as if action is deferred the private interests might develop their waterfront property, thus securing an irrevocable license on the property and defeating the very objects of the two measures. If the initiative measure alone passes, it will unconstitutional. If the constitutional amendment alone passes, the people will not have secured the land. but will only have gained the right to accomplish that by means of future legislation or initiative measures,"

OATES—Howard Oates, St. Vincent's hospital, September 28, 30 years; fracture of skull—fall from bridge.

MAZAROVICH—Sam Mazurovich, 656 Vaughn atreet, September 26, 27 years; gunshot wound in breast, accidental.

OLSEN—Olaf Oisen, 308 East Davis street, September 30, 47 years; asphyxiation by gas. HODNEY—Mrs. Anna Hodney, 721 Second street, September 27, 29 years; valvular disease of heart.

WILSON—Charles Wilson, Bonneyville, Or., September 24, 40 years; fracture of skull. GADEBERG—Joseph Gadeberg, 2512 Sixty-seventh street, S. E., October 2, 64 years; anemia. CLARKE BROS., florists, fine flowers Continuing, the speaker pointed out that if the waterfront property is not needed for city purposes it can be leased or rented for a period of not to exceed 25 years, the owner of the adjacent upland property to be given first opportunity to lease the property. However, he must pay as much for it as anyone else offers to pay, and must deal impartially with everyone desiring to use the dock or wharf, just as railroads and other public utilities are now compelled to do.

Half the income of the property, Mr. Johnson pointed out, would go to the general or dockage fund of the city, and half to the state school fund. In closing, he praised the feature of the bills which will make submerged land which is filled in between the former high and low water marks the property of the city instead of the owner of the adjacent upland property. Scores Assembly Plan.

J. J. Johnson again spoke in opposition to the initiative bill legalizing the assembly, which he attacked at the recent meeting of the Multnomoh county Pomona grange at Pleasant Valley, as an effort to bring back the old convention system.

J. G. Kelly of the Kelly clan, overseer of Evening Star grange, spoke in opposition to the proposed universal eight hour law, declaring that it would work especial hardships on farmers. Robert C. Wright opposed practically all the tax measures to be voted upon at the coming election except the two whose object is to eliminate from the state constitution the "equal and uniform" provision in regard to taxation. Mrs. I. B. Garriott discussed the eight hour day and room ventilation measure; Dr. A. W. Chance opposed the dentistry bill, and J. R. Purcell discussed the prohibition constitutional
