Little Stories for Bedtime

Matters. Farmer Brown's boy came into the Old Orchard whistling. It was good to hear some one who seemed happy and wanted everybody else to feel happy The truth is there had been very little happiness in the Old Orchard since Bully, the English Sparrow, had moved there. Perhaps he and Mrs. Bully were happy. Probably they were. But if they were they had a funny way of showing it, for it seemed as if they goarreled with each other all the time when they had no one else to quarrel with. All the other birds were unhappy, because of the noisy ways and quarrelsome dispositions of Bully and

So it was good to hear the whistle of Farmer Brown's Boy, for there had been no song or whistle there for days and days. He thumped on the tree in which Drummer the Woodpecker had his home and laughed to see Mrs. prummer come rushing out, as if she thought the world was coming to an "Didn't mean to scare you to home," said he.

Magical Effect of New Face Peeler

To maintain a clear, rosy, youthful complexion, there's nothing so simple to use and yet so effective as ordinary mercolized war, which you can get at any drugstore in the original package. Just apply the wax at night as you would cold cream; in the morning wash it off with warm water. If you've sever tried it you can't imagine the magical effect of this harmless home treatment. The wax causes the worn-out scarf skin to come off in minute particles, a little at a time and soon you have entirely shed the offensive cuticle. The fresh young underskin now in evidence is so healthy and girlish looking, so free from any appearance of artificiality, you wish you had heard of this marvelous complexion-renewing secret long ago.

To get rid of your wrinkles, here's a formula that is wonderfully effective: I on powdered saxolits, dissolved in ½ pt. witch hazel. Bathe the face in this and you will be simply assonished at the results, even after the first

LET US BE PROUD OF FOR OUR CHILDREN

Oregon is the only state in the Union that has at any time reduced the number of its normal schools. Everywhere the movement is for more normals, a score of states have from three to fif-teen. California has eight; Washington has three; even Idaho has two.

Consider:-Only five states have smaller equipment for normal schools than Oregon would, were all three of its schools running; and -eighty per can do it. The normal school trains cent of the applicants for teachers her for the wook-shows her how. That last year ha received no training above the eighth

Cannot Oregon, like other states, provide that her common schools shall have competent, efficient teachers?

The Legislature has referred to the people a measure providing a small, but ample maintenance fund for the South-ern Oregon State Normal School—a school that was conducted with marked success for fourteen years.

A normal school exists solely to train grade school system. With trained teachers, your common schools are ef-ficient; without them they cannot be the last and sis, the teacher is the

Mrs. Willing Agrees With Anty Drudge About Fels-Naptha Soap

Mrs. Willing-"I tell you, Anty Drudge, I don't mind working when I can have time to rest after my work is done. Every woman should certainly know about Fels-Naptha Soap."

Anty Drudge-"That's the way I feel, and I try to tell every one about the Fels-Naptha way of doing things; it's so easy and so pleasant." breathing in sudsy steam, parboiling your face and rubbing the skin off your hands, isn't it?

But there's a better way-the "Fels-Naptha Way"—and it's a joy to see the beautiful work Fels-Naptha Soap will do for you. It washes clothes snowy white, without hard rubbing or boiling. Dissolves grease, makes dirt and stains disappear-and all this in cool or lukewarm water.

Freshens paint, whitens woodwork, cleans dishes and makes glass and silver shine. Fels-Naptha Soap does the hard part of your work.
