

'WAR STILL IS HELL,' COL. HAYES AVERS 'AFTER SEEING FIGHT' Son of President Hayes Says Most Tragic Feature of the Thing Is Belgium.

(United Press Special Wire.) Washington, Oct. 7.—Colonel Webb Hayes of the United States army, a son of former President Rutherford B. Hayes, returned today from Europe, where he had been observing the war. "When I left Havre, September 27," said Colonel Hayes, "the air was fearful that they could not penetrate the German lines through the mass of putrefying men and horses on the battlefields. I don't see how they could pass through these fighting trenches was horrible, and the idea of climbing over bodies must be revolting, even to brave men. Colonel Hayes predicted that the war would last two years. "Well," he continued, "war is certainly hell. It's a sausage-grinder. The people are wonderful folks—clean, decent and respectable. What America should do is to concentrate her efforts in aiding the women and children of Belgium. Help for hospitals is not so much needed, but the fate of the Belgians is pathetic. "Peace talk at this stage of the war is useless. We must knock hands off now. We can do no good, and peace talk now will merely stir up trouble for ourselves. "The fronts these days are far different from those of former years. Few men and no guns are visible. Straps are continually hurrying in the air. In the hands of the fighting French use bayonets and the Turco knives."
