

THREE O'CLOCK HOUR SET FOR O. A. C. CLUB GAME ON LOCAL FIELD

Captain Conville Expects M. A. A. C. Warriors to Put Up Stiff Fight Against Aggies.

COLLEGE NOT CONFIDENT

Agiess Have Worked Three Weeks, But It Is Said Freshmen Have Not Shown Class.

The Oregon Agricultural college and the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club football teams will line up against each other tomorrow afternoon in their annual contest. The game will start promptly at 3 o'clock.

The odds are against the "Winged M" team this season, but Captain Conville stated yesterday that he expected his players to put up a stiff fight against the college team.

The Multnomah team has had no scrimmage practice of any kind this season, except that against the Multnomah second eleven, while the Aggies have been hard at work every day for three weeks.

Up to a late hour this morning no word had been received from Coach Stewart regarding his lineup for the game. Manager Pratt announced the club lineup as follows:

A preliminary game between the Multnomah second eleven and the Western Amateur Athletic club will start at 1:30 o'clock.

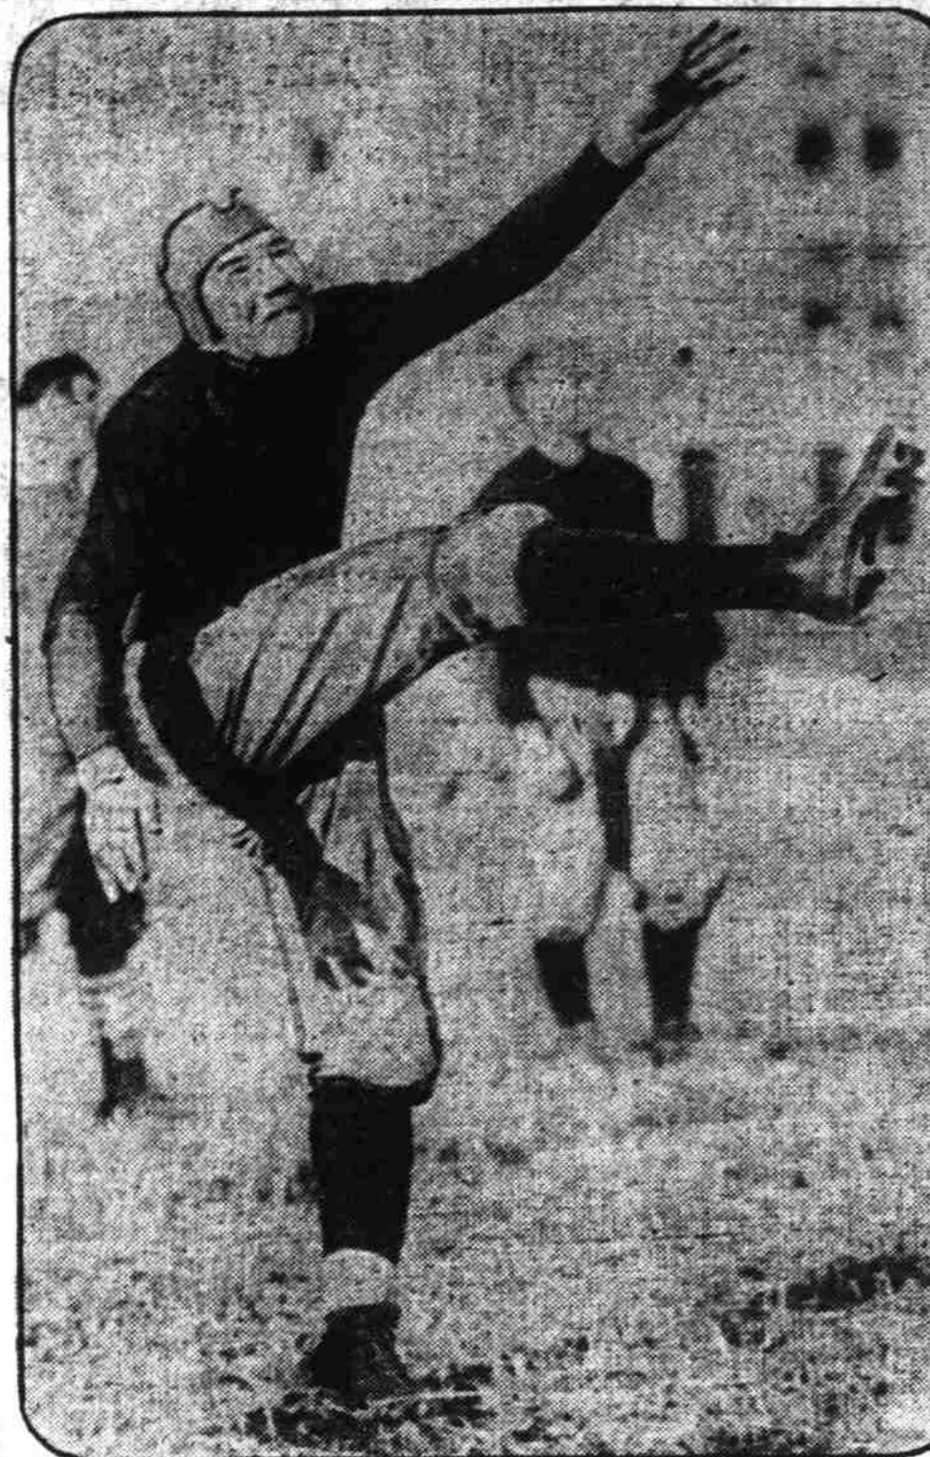

COACH STEWART SAYS CLUB VETERANS HAVE EDGE ON COLLEGIANS

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Or., Oct. 9.—The first big game on the calendar of the Oregon Agricultural college's football squad is scheduled with the Multnomah club at Portland tomorrow. The optimistic air that has been circulating through the Aggie training quarters for the past two weeks is disappearing as rapidly as the big contest is approaching, and in place a dubious feeling has worked its way.

When it is realized that not a freshman has as yet made the varsity, and that such stars as Chrisman, May, Robertson, Rasmussen, Smart, Shaw and other less notable of last year's squad are lost to this season's team through graduation, it can easily be seen that the pre-season dove spread around about the whirlwind eleven the Aggies are going to have is all so much hot air.

From this date then, it does not take a genius to see that the present team must be a great deal inferior to last year's squad if the men who could not make the team last year are not even given a chance to participate. These men are Captain Hofer, Huntley, Smyth, Cole, Anderson, Dewey, Yeager, Markham, Moore, Laythe, Bissett, "Billie" King, "Dag" King, "Trusty" Groce, Lutz, Selph, Alworth, Chenault, Billie, Watson, Abraham, Hoerline and Newman. At present however, Dewey and Bissett are practically out of the running, the former with a sprained knee, and the latter with a bad cut over the eye.

When questioned as to his opinion regarding the coming game, Coach Stewart said: "If we can get our cripples in the game Saturday, Multnomah won't beat us more than two or three touchdowns. I don't take much stock in tales about Multnomah's weakness this year, because it has always been my experience that club teams can be made just as strong as the occasion demands, and therefore it is always a good bet that a club team with a lot of all-star college men available will always beat the very best of college teams where certain restrictive rules have to be observed. Portland and vicinity has plenty of old college stars who, if gathered together, even for one game, should by virtue of their superior knowledge, defeat the best of college teams, and this is what has always happened in this section of the country."

concerns of local opinion that all the players who make the trip will be hard pressed for their berths on this year's varsity. As a whole, the freshman class of this year offers better football material than that of last, but it will take at least a season's experience in the collegiate game before they will be very valuable to Coach Stewart.

In selecting a team to go against the Multnomah club warriors Saturday, "Doc" Stewart and Assistant Coaches May and Pavey have given first choice to experience, second to fight and third to ability. A squad of 20 candidates has been picked, and these will all make the trip to Portland. As to the probable lineup "Doc" has had nothing to say whatever. However, it is the Second Game of Double-Header Goes Five Innings Without Score Being Rolled Up by Rivals.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 9.—Any old time Portland wants to gain a little ground in the rag end of a pennant race, let them stack up against the Venice club. They will make enough to carry them through to the end. The Beavers outplayed and outgamed the Tigers here yesterday in a 10 inning slugfest. There's one beauty about that Portland club, you never can tell who is going to hit the ball or who when things looked most promising, for the locals, up steps Rube Evans, who makes about a half dozen hits a year, and pines the ball for a three base hit that scored Kores with the winning run.

It was so much of an effort for the Reuben that he wobbled in the box in the next inning, and McCredie was forced to call upon Elmer Martinoni to stop the locals. The score of this game, which was the first of a double-header, was 8 to 7. Martinoni was kept in by McCredie to pitch the second game, and he was opposed to Doc White. This was the first time runners from reaching home for a period of five innings, and there were no scores when the umpires concluded to call the game at the end of the fifth frame.

Hogan used 16 men during the game, even getting in himself. He had a lot of nerve at that. He batted for Wilhoit in the ninth, but the big kid had made three hits and scored three runs. Can you beat it?

Dave Bancroft tried to steal first in the opening inning of the first game, but was called out by Umpire Hayes. Dave let out such a yelp of protest that he was banished from the field. However, he was back in the second game, and boosted his batting average by getting three hits in three times up during the day. Gus Fisher also hunched up his batting average with four hits in seven times at bat.

Kiepler and Higginbotham, two star right handers, started the first game, but both were knocked out of the box, the Beaver being chased in the eighth, and the Hag in the eighth. A motley array of hurriers followed them.
