

DR. C. J. SMITH AT OREGON CITY GETS A HEARTY WELCOME

Asks Why People Should Not Demand Business-Like Administration.
GOVERNOR AS MANAGER
Harmony Plan, Meaning Higher Appropriations, Is All Wrong Declares Speaker.

Oregon City, Or., Oct. 9.—When the history of the state offers undispensible proof of the extravagance of our legislators, why should not the people of the state, at this time when taxation has become a burden, insist upon the strict application of business methods to state business?

This was a question driven home to a large audience in Willamette hall last night by Dr. C. J. Smith, Democratic candidate for governor, who clearly outlined his method for obtaining taxation relief and protection for the people's interests.

"As governor I would deem it my duty to maintain strict supervision over the financial affairs of the state," he said. "Legislatures are extravagant and too often irresponsible. Trading and logrolling have always prevailed and in late years a riot of useless appropriations and creation of offices, boards and commissions have made taxes unobtainable. In every private business it is found necessary to have some managing head who can and will assume responsibility for the financial operations. The governor as the head of the state's business should perform a similar function; and if in the performance of that function it becomes necessary to differ with the legislature on appropriations or other matters, he should not hesitate to take and maintain the stand which to him seems right. The idea that harmony with the legislature is to be sought for is all wrong. Harmony means higher appropriations, legislative extravagance, and a burden on the people."

Key Tax Down.

"I know that I can as a business man keep down the state tax, and the veto is one of the means I would employ. I would urge on the first legislature the submission of the single tax item veto amendment to the people."

In opening his address Dr. Smith briefly reviewed what the Democratic party, under the leadership of President Woodrow Wilson, has done for the United States in the past 18 months. In speaking of the tariff he said:

"I have traveled over Oregon during the past few months and have talked with thousands of people and I find that the people of Oregon as a whole are satisfied with the tariff revision downward. Only a few want protective tariff."

"The question of taxes is the one which is agitating the people of Oregon now. Everyone wants to discuss it. It is felt by all to be the one great burden."

"Last year the people of this state paid into the treasuries of the country, $2,400,000. Experts have placed the gross income from the state's products at $160,000,000 and estimated that it costs of that $100,000,000 to produce. This leaves a net income to the state of $60,000,000. It is only a matter of figures to find out what per cent of the income the state can take from any individual, corporation, or company that afford to spend 30 per cent of its net income for taxes?

"This $24,000,000 in taxes means that the head of every family in the state must pay $160. It means 50 cents a day for every head of a family for every working day in the year. Consequently it behooves every man and woman in Oregon to look well into the expenditure of the people's money in Oregon."

Only Two Remedies.

"You have only two remedies for an extravagant legislature; the governor's veto and prohibiting the emergency clause from being tacked to legislative measures, so the people can invoke the referendum against these measures."

Dr. Smith reviewed to what extent the former governor by referendum had used the veto power and said that only Governors Chamberlain and West had used it extensively to save the people's money. Whenever the names of either President Wilson, Senator Chamberlain or Governor West were mentioned throughout the evening they were greeted with enthusiastic applause.

Dr. Smith scored the advocated "harmony program" of his opponent, Dr. Withycombe. He said such a program would have meant much larger appropriations at the last legislature and he would submit that fact to the legislative members from Clackamas county if it was not so.

"I believe that all the laws should be strictly enforced," said Dr. Smith. "Lax law enforcement means an era of gunmen and bandits. Strict law enforcement means safety for the widows and orphans. If there are any laws upon the statute books of this state which you do not want enforced, they had better be repealed. For I promise to enforce every law strictly as far as my authority goes."

The applause was deafening when Dr. Smith concluded his address and the audience crowded forward to shake his hand.

The meeting was opened by Joseph E. Hedges. With a brief introductory address he introduced Milton A. Miller. He delivered an address which brought vigorous applause a number of times when he mentioned the work of Governor West, Senator Chamberlain or President Wilson. He designated President Wilson as the "world's greatest statesman" and paid a high tribute to his work in passing the currency bill.

Mr. Miller spoke in behalf of Senator Chamberlain's candidacy. "We have a candidate for United States senator to whose record we can look with pride," he said. "I have known him all his life and his record is white. He has no $1,000,000 in his pocket because his $1,000,000 is in the school fund of Oregon. Senator George B. Chamberlain will be the next United States senator."

The speaker closed with a glowing tribute to the support given by Senator Chamberlain to the administration's peace policy.

FEAR THAT WOMAN WANDERED TO DEATH NEAR TYGH VALLEY Mrs. J. Jarvey Left Home Monday to Get the Mail; Completely Disappeared.

(Special to The Journal.)
Friend, Or., Oct. 9.—The countryside is searching for Mrs. J. Jarvey, who disappeared Monday from her home on the Traxham ranch, seven miles from here, on the road to Tygh Valley, and of whom no definite information has since been received.

Mrs. Jarvey has but recently recovered from severe illness and it is the fear of her relatives and neighbors that she has wandered to her death in a spell of mental aberration. Possibilities are being discussed, however, and ranchers throughout this section have been advised to be on the lookout for the wanderer.

Mrs. Jarvey told her husband Monday afternoon that she intended going to Tygh Valley for the mail. Mr. Jarvey saw his wife start in that direction, and except a report that a woman answering her description was seen passing through Kingsley, on the Dufer road, no word of her has been received.

Mrs. Jarvey is about 25 years old, of medium size and light complexion.

Trials of Hunters Held at St. Johns

Several Charged With Breaking Law Against Shooting on Another Property Fined by Justice of Peace.
St. Johns, Or., Oct. 9.—A number of cases of hunters charged with violation of the statute against hunting on the property of another without securing the owner's permission were disposed of yesterday by Justice of Peace J. E. Williams. Complaints were made by the owners of the property.

Dick Spady of Portland was fined $25 and costs for hunting on the land of Kamel Maes. The fine was remitted. On the same land, three brothers, William, Fred and John Pahl, were caught hunting. William was fined $50, Fred $25 and John, who is under 18, was let off with only a fine.

Wednesday night O. G. Walker and L. S. Alberson were fined $30 and costs for hunting on the property of William Repp. The fines were remitted.

The trial of J. O'Connor, M. Jeffry and J. Harms of Portland for shooting on the property of Frank Chipman has not yet been held.

STATE CAPITAL NEWS

Salem, Or., Oct. 9.—The state board of health is engaged in the work of securing a cancer census of Oregon, the purpose being to ascertain its extent, as well as to determine if it is on the increase, according to Dr. W. B. Moree of Salem, who is a member of the board.

Prohibitionists of Marion county have endorsed a county ticket and are waging an active campaign in its behalf. The following candidates have been endorsed: W. L. Cummings, state senator; John P. Robertson, H. R. Hoffman, Mrs. Fannie M. Penn and Mrs. Z. A. Rosebraugh, representatives; W. L. Jernan, sheriff; H. L. Clark, recorder; Joseph N. Smith, treasurer; A. M. Clough, coroner.

E. J. Anderson has been indicted here on a statutory charge involving his 13-year-old daughter.

Caught in the act of looting the Sperling grocery store, Commercial street, W. S. Steiner, who says he lives three miles from Salem, was jailed by the police. He had broken in the front door in broad daylight and his sanity is questioned.

Figures just compiled in preparing Commissioner Watson's annual report show that the state corporation department from June 3, 1913, to June 30, 1914, inclusive, granted 285 permits to sell securities and the corporations to which these permits were granted represented an aggregate authorized capital stock of $12,743,198. In granting these permits, the department required that $19,224,079 be issued and outstanding stock be secured or pooled, this being done to keep stock issued to promoters for more or less fictitious services off the market.

A Fellow From the Country The Other Day Came in With a Musician.

A fellow who knew the real value of a piano because he had been a tuner for many years. After thoroughly examining the pianos now on sale at 388 Morrison street, he not only bought one for himself, but the tuner bought two, one player piano and an upright to send down to the little town where they came from. The piano tuner said he could easily get $100 or $150 or $200 more money.

He knew the old reliable makes we are selling. Don't overlook the fact that you can now buy almost any make at cost wholesale and less. Chickering, Kimball, Knabe, Behning, Wegman, Lester, Steinway, Steck, Weber, Emerson, Schumann, Weber, Finolas, Steck Pianolas, Vose & Son, Briggs, Hobart M. Cable, Hallet & Davis, Ludwig, Estey. I think we have told you all of them. Possibly we have missed telling you about the Krell and the Chase & Baker, and we are positive there are a lot more. You name the make, we cut the price. Probably all of these pianos are new. Those that are second-hand, with a very few exceptions, look as though they were just slightly shopped, but everything goes, regardless of their cost or value and on any terms that will suit you.

The store is open evenings until 9 or 10 o'clock, 388 Morrison street, just opposite Morrison-st. entrance of Olds, Wortman & King. Tomorrow (Saturday) the last day.—Adv.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN LINN COUNTY IS HORNIBROOK'S BELIEF

Secretary of State Central Committee Predicts Both Chamberlain, Smith to Win

HOLLISTER VERY POPULAR

Nominees for Congressmen Will Run Strong Throughout the Valley; Hawley Very Unpopular.

W. H. Hornibrook of Albany, secretary of the Democratic state central committee, was in Portland yesterday and predicted that both Senator Chamberlain and Dr. C. J. Smith will carry Linn county. He said the Democratic candidates, including Frederick Hollister for congressman and Judge William Galloway for the supreme court, will run very strong throughout the Willamette valley counties. He can see nothing but success for them on November 3.

Notwithstanding the Republicans have a majority in Linn county of approximately 130 votes," he said, "I am firmly convinced that both Senator Chamberlain and Dr. Smith will carry the county. Judge William Galloway is also well thought of in Linn and will make a good run."

PROPOSITION No. 9

Paroled as Soon as Sentence Started

Hugh Trainor, Convicted of Banking a Man in Portland, Allowed to Go to His Wife and Daughter.
Salem, Or., Oct. 9.—Hugh Trainor, who was sentenced to serve a term in the penitentiary for banking a man at Portland out of $2000 in a race deal, has been paroled to his wife and now in San Francisco, according to Miss Fern Hobbs, secretary to Governor West. Trainor had been in the Multnomah county jail. His daughter is bedfast in San Francisco with an illness that promises to be fatal. The evidence against him in the trial was by no means convincing, said Miss Hobbs.

Trainor was brought to the penitentiary this week and committed there in due form. Immediately thereafter he was paroled and hurried to his wife and daughter in the California city.

It was simply a case of justice tempered with mercy, according to Miss Hobbs.

Says Stefansson Is Dead of Starvation

Explorer Leffingwell Believes Canadian Arctic Explorer Cannot Have Lived Without Seal Meat.
Pasadena, Oct. 9.—That Stefansson, the noted Arctic explorer, may have met the same fate as his associates of the ill-fated Karluk, is the word brought from the north today by Ernest Leffingwell, who has spent the greater part of his time the past five years in the Arctic regions.

Stefansson, with two companions, left Point Collins July 1 on a hunting trip over the ice and had not been heard from when the Pasadena man left Point Barrow. Unless they have found abundance of seal meat, he believes they have perished.

A. W. LAFFERTY.
The Oregon & California Railroad Land Grant in Western Oregon amounts to 2,300,000 acres of unsold lands. These lands would make 1600-acre homes for 15,000 families, or 40-acre homes for 60,000 families. The law granting the lands to the railroad company approved four-fifths of the people hereby granted shall be sold by said railroad company to actual settlers only, in quantities not greater than a quarter section to any one settler, and for prices not exceeding $2.50 per acre.

A. W. Lafferty was the first man to ever file a suit in the courts of Oregon to enforce this law. He did so without fee to test the law. A year later the government intervened in the suits started by Lafferty. The litigation is now in the supreme court, after a seven years' bitter fight, and will be argued and decided in about six months. If you favor enforcement of the law, vote to sustain A. W. Lafferty, the man who started the litigation.

PAMPHLET FOR VOTERS

The Journal has received from the secretary of state 500 copies of the state pamphlet, giving all the measures to be voted on by the people on November 2, together with the arguments for and against each measure, when any have been submitted. These pamphlets were mailed to registered voters, but for some reason were not delivered. Ask for one at the business counter. They are free.

An Important Announcement

The Eastern Opens a Bargain Basement--An Outlet for Surplus Stocks

During the many years that this store has been operating in Portland, it has been necessary for the management to sell the surplus goods to another store, but now we propose to give the general public the benefit of the low prices at which this goods must be sold to keep our stock to moderate proportions.

If you want advance styles and fanciful creations, do not go to the Basement; there is no elevator, you will have to walk down a small flight of stairs. But if you want good conservative staple styles, priced below cost, the Bargain Basement is the place to find them.

Everything carried there will be good, honest merchandise—suits, coats and skirts of the best quality, so low priced as to tempt the most shrewd value seeker.

- Suits—$14.50 to $20 Values, $ 8.85
- $22.50 to $30 . . . $11.65
- $30 to $37.50 . . . $14.95
- Coats—$10 to $15 . . . $ 7.75
- $16.50 to $20 . . . $10.95
- $20 to $27.50 . . . $13.75
- Skirts—Values to $9 . . . $ 3.95

A special sales force will be retained in the Bargain Basement—those trading there will be treated with the utmost courtesy and given as much time for selection as when buying the higher priced goods on the upper floor.

The Basement Store Opens tomorrow at 10 a. m. If you need a good, serviceable Suit, Skirt or Coat, call and see the values displayed in this new department.
