

PORTLAND MAY LAND U. OF O.-O. A. C. GAME TO BE PLAYED NOV. 21

Tiffany and Stewart Reserve Expressions but Sentiment Favors Metropolis.

ANNOUNCED NEXT WEEK

Classic Battle of Northwest Should Be Played Where Big Money Comes From to Help Treasury.

Sentiment in favor of bringing the University of Oregon-Oregon Agricultural college game to Portland on November 21 has crystallized to such an extent that it is hardly believed the athletic boards of the two big state colleges will pass up the opportunity to perform in the metropolis.

Graduate Manager Tiffany, of the University of Oregon, who was in Portland yesterday getting things ready for the visit here of the state university eleven and their opponents, the Washington State college team, next Saturday, says that the next game belongs to the Agricultural college and beyond that he is not in a position to state what may be done.

Over the telephone this morning from Corvallis, Athlete Director Stewart, said that he, too, was not in position to say what would be done.

Of course, both officials are probably a bit backward on account of the fact that there has been no official movement made on the part of their respective athletic boards. It is understood that a meeting will be held next Saturday or Monday, at which time a definite place will be selected for the big game, in many respects the classic contest of the entire northwest. Both colleges, unable to settle their differences two years ago, mutually agreed upon Albany as a battle ground and signed a two year contract to play there.

That contract has expired and both colleges are up in the air. Albany would like to have the big game again and so would Portland, which has not seen the colleges in action for some four years. It is known that sentiment at both colleges favors Portland for the coming and future games.

Both eleven have a hard time of it in the matter of finances, and this problem would be easily met by playing the game in Portland, where the greater number of people could see it. There has always been a big demand to play the game in Portland, which is the logical place both from a standpoint of neutrality and accessibility.

Portland alumni of both institutions will doubtless get to work in a concerted effort to have the game brought here on November 21.

Ross and Humphreys Win.

The water polo team captained by Eddie Humphreys and Norman Ross were winners in the games of the Multnomah Club Water Polo league last night. Humphreys' team beat Ted Preble's players, 5 goals to 1, and Norman Ross led his stars to a 2 to 1 victory over Collie Wheeler's lineup.
