

Social and Personal BY NONA LAWLER

FOR the pleasure of Miss Hilda Smith of Concord, Mass., who is visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkham Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cookingham were dinner guests Wednesday evening at their home in Eleventh street. Later they took their guests to their box at the Heilig to see "Pinaroff" and "Trial by Jury." Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kirkham Smith and Prescott W. Cookingham.

Last evening Prescott W. Cookingham was host at a box party at the Heilig, when his guests included: Dr. and Mrs. George Marshall, Miss Ruth Teal and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cookingham.

Enjoying Extended Eastern Trip. Mrs. F. S. Stanley, who left the latter part of September with her daughter, Miss Cornelia Stanley, to place her in school in New York, is enjoying an extended visit east. She is expected home October 25.

Home From Seattle. Mrs. Duncan W. Campbell has returned home after passing several weeks in Seattle as the house guest of Mrs. George T. Myers at the Hotel Perry.

Portia Club Bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Evans were hosts Tuesday evening to the members of the Portia club and their husbands. The room was resplendent with lovely clusters of pink roses. Card honors fell to Mrs. Frank Menefee and Geo. E. Caldwell. This organization of wives of Portland attorneys will meet twice each month this year, once in the afternoon and once in the evening, when the husbands are included. Those present Tuesday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. John Manning, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Caldwell, Mrs. Walter McCredie, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Menefee, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vazie, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Huntington and their guest, Mrs. Pease of The Dalles, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Atkinson.

Large Bridge and Tea. Fourteen tables were used for the bridge party given yesterday afternoon in the Tyler room of the Hotel Benson by Miss Rae Harris and Mrs. Leon Ross. The room was beautifully decorated in pink chrysanthemums and delicate foliage. Hand-some prizes were awarded the winning players, after which refreshments were served, several additional guests coming in for that.

To Visit in Chicago and New York. Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Coleman and their little son, Hal, left Wednesday evening for Chicago, Ill., where they will visit Mr. Coleman's mother, Mrs. Mary L. Coleman. Later they will go on to New York and visit, also making many interesting stops before returning home. They plan to be away several months.

For Piano Fund. This evening the Laurelwood Congregational church, a benefit concert will be given to raise funds for the new piano recently purchased for the church. Mrs. H. Jones and C. W. Wells are sponsoring the program which will be a splendid arrangement of musical and literary numbers.

For Mrs. Sutton of Astoria. One of the most pleasant events of the past week was the "500" party given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Harry Greene Knott, complimenting Mrs. E. Richardson Sutton of Astoria. The rooms were cleverly decorated in autumn leaves and dahlias. The honors were won by Mrs. F. W. Bay, Mrs. J. Penney and Mrs. Paul Sievera. Those present besides the honor guest were Mrs. Eliza Nathan Howe, Mrs. F. W. Bay, Mrs. S. D. Penney, Mrs. A. S. Bushlight, Mrs. J. Penney, Mrs. A. R. Smith, Mrs. F. L.
