

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 18, 1914.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS DISCUSS CAMPAIGN AT THE JACKSON CLUB

Voters Urged to Support
Chamberlain, Flegel and
Dr. C. J. Smith in Race.

MEETING IS ENTHUSIASTIC
Number of Speakers Take Part in Rousing Gathering Held at the Commercial Club.

Candidates on the Democratic ticket for county officers were the speakers at an enthusiastic meeting of the Jackson club at the Commercial club last night.

They urged their hearers to lend their support to the Wilson administration by voting for Senator Chamberlain and A. F. Flegel and in support of good government in Oregon by voting for Dr. C. J. Smith. And they asked the voters in the excitement of the campaign for the larger and more important offices at the head of the ticket not to forget those at the foot.

F. C. Whitten, president of the Jackson club, called on John Van Zante, candidate for circuit judge department No. 6, for the first talk of the evening. Calling attention to the growth of progressivism and the corresponding decrease of staidness he said that it was the duty of the voter to select the best man for the job and that if the voter followed this principle in the voting a large share of the Democratic ticket would be elected.

Word Paid Tribute.
"If there is one man on the whole ticket that deserves election," said Mr. Van Zante, "it is Tom Word. He has been used to be a hell hole; it was called the most ungodly city on the continent. Gambling dens ran uncontrolled by a powerful syndicate. But when Tom Word was elected sheriff he closed them all. This is the type of a sheriff that Multnomah county needs."

Mrs. Nellie C. Hughes, candidate for coroner, told of the progress of her campaign and predicted victory for herself at the forthcoming election. "I am making a vigorous personal campaign," she said, "and getting results even though my opponent, Dr. Dammasch, is backed by all the undertakers in town save two."

"I want people to vote for me if they are convinced I am the best man for the office," said Tom Word in a short talk. "I promise to do my best to strive the greatest possible efficiency in my department." The sheriff received an ovation when he arose to speak.

Benjamin F. Brick, candidate for county commissioner, outlined his policy of a division of duties among the commissioners, and proposed a separate department for greater efficiency and better to fix the responsibility.

R. Lee Paget, candidate for state treasurer on both the Democratic and Prohibition tickets, was introduced by George W. Allen as a man preeminently fitted for the treasurership because of his long experience in business and finance.

Wilson Is Honored.
"I am proud to be associated on the ticket of a party that has at its head such a splendid man as statesman as Woodrow Wilson," he said, "a man who was farseeing enough to keep this country out of such a catastrophe as is now visited upon Europe."

Paying the highest praise to Governor West he urged that a man pledged to carry out the West policies should be elected in his place. Pointing out the need of having harmony on the state board of control he urged the election of a governor and a state treasurer who would cooperate.

Tom B. Kay, the present state treasurer, has hindered Governor West greatly. He has not cooperated in the board of control. If elected I promise the fullest cooperation in my power."

Mr. Paget urged his hearers to vote for proportional representation and the abolishment of the state senate.

Among the other speakers were T. A. Hague, legislative candidate who advocated making Portland the premier port of the Pacific; Roscoe P. Hurst, candidate for the state senate who has been endorsed by the Republican party for the office; Dr. A. K. Higgs, candidate for the legislature who expressed confidence in the outcome of his campaign, and J. A. Dunbar, candidate for county clerk on the Prohibition ticket.

A Democratic meeting was held at the Davis in over in Newberg and Raleigh streets, last night at which campaign issues were discussed by several Democratic candidates. George H. Watson, chairman of the county central committee, presided. Among the speakers were Roscoe P. Hurst, candidate for state senator; E. Lee Paget, candidate for state treasurer; and Dr. A. K. Higgs, legislative candidate.

Portland Boy Writes
Norway Impressions

That the boys of Norway seem to have much more leisure time than American boys is an observation that forcefully struck Thorsten Thorpe, a Journal carrier, who now is on a visit to Scandinavia and who writes from Aasgaardstrand, Norway, in part as follows: "This is such a small place, I haven't much to do; none of the boys has. Once in a while I go after a bunch of wood. It isn't like America, where there are always many things to do."

"There are paper boys in Christiana, too. They deliver their papers from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock every morning. There are no evening papers. They only receive $5 a month. "I don't think we will stay here this winter, for if we do, I am sure we will freeze. For now (Sept. 27) it is so cold after the sun goes down that I have to put on a heavy coat. The snow will come pretty soon. The fruit time is over in Norway. They have the same varieties we do in Oregon, except the apricot. "There are many boys in Aasgaardstrand. They all want to see how strong an American is, so they are always picking fights. When I told one of my cousins where I was from he said: 'Portland, that's where the cement comes from.'"
