The Wisconsin Society of Oregon held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening, October 15. E. H. Bates, president of the federation of state societies, gave a talk which was the feature of the evening. He spoke of what part the state societies were to take in the Land Products show, October 26 to November 10; also the Panama Pacific exposition in 1915 at San Francisco. A musical program and an old time spelling bee were a part of the entertainment, followed with refreshments, cards and dancing. The next meeting of the society will be held Thursday evening, November 19.

The Bonhomme club was pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon at its opening meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Hamacher, 403 East Fortieth street. An elaborate 3 o'clock luncheon was served, the table decorations being in yellow and white. Immediately after a business meeting was held. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. W. O. Beaumont; secretary, Mrs. A. C. Poole. The afternoon was spent playing auction bridge, card honors falling to Mrs. H. Hemmer and Mrs. Stiles. Mrs. F. Brandes will be next hostess at her residence in Ladd's addition, October 30.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Clinton Shorno (Alice Killingsworth) entertained delightfully in honor of her sister, Miss Lou Killingsworth, bride-elect, announcing the date of the wedding of Miss Killingsworth and Harry Swart for November 11. The afternoon was most enjoyable passed with five hundred, there being eight tables at cards, after which a dainty collation was served. The silver was brought in tied in the napkin with a pink ribbon, and on opening it the guests found a little card with the pictures of Miss Killingsworth and Mr. Swart, and the wedding date printed in gold. A pretty home wedding has been arranged at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Killingsworth, Mrs. H. A. Swart received with Mrs. Shorno, Mrs. Killingsworth and the honor guest.

Little Vincent Rafferty, radiant in white knickers, received the guests at the door.

Mrs. Frank H. Lewis entertained the girls of Miss Williams' Fourth B class, and a few other little ones, at her home in Irvington Wednesday afternoon. The time was happily spent in making bean bags for the Christmas Ship. One practical little "miss" suggested that when the children grew tired of playing with the bags they might cook up the beans—and as each bag is of good size and amply filled they may gladden a few hearts abroad.

In honor of Mrs. M. E. Monson (Irene Ellis) of Seattle, Wash., a former well-known Portland girl, Miss Margaret Mann presided at a delightful informal luncheon Monday afternoon at her home on Milwaukee avenue. Mrs. Monson has been summering in Portland and has been entertained with a number of smart affairs.
